Jackson, 2019-03-14 What would it take for you to kill a man Does each of us have a breaking point or are there some among us who would never take another life As hard as he tried to do the right thing Mr Bruce Johnson found his breaking point Bruce Johnson and Mikaila O Hara first met outside of a local department store in Bruce s hometown of Jonesboro That chance meeting led to a budding romance and that romance would eventually take them to Tennessee and it was there that they would settle down. It was in a small town outside of Nashville that the two of them would find jobs, buy their first house together, marry, and come in contact with the Jordan family. Bruce and Mikaila could be described as a typical fun-loving young American couple that went on to produce a child by the name of Nancy Evangeline Johnson. The Jordans, on the other hand, were a dangerous, vindictive, and very ruthless family who controlled the goings on around town and the county as a whole. The paths of these two families would cross one day as a result of a routine traffic stop when a young police officer, Bruce Johnson, pulled over a man by the name of Matthew Jordan for speeding. That single event was the catalyst that was going to change the lives of the local townspeople as well as the lives of Bruce Johnson and his family.
