Luce Di Venezia:

Opere Niccolò Machiavelli, 1820 The Shipwreck at Gnalić Irena Radić Rossi, Mariangela Nicolardi, Mauro Bondioli, Katarina Batur, 2021-12-23 Unlike official history which takes long and impersonal strides through the past this book describes individual human destinies that convey the story of the late Renaissance period throughout Europe and the Mediterranean as uncovered at the site of the shipwreck at Gnali Croatia Dissemination of Music Hans Lenneberg, 2014-03-18 The contributors are leading scholars from the United States Canada Great Britain and Italy The essays examine the history of music publishing from its inception to the early twentieth century The Dissemination of Music provides new insight into the social history of music illustrating how certain types of music were made popular because publishers made them more available and how the reputations of composers were made or broken by the whims of publishers This important reference work will interest scholars and students in all areas of music This collection brings the history of music publishing into the realm of social history looking beyond the printing process to examine why and for whom music publishers produced their work The book shows how technological limitations and printers and publishers preferences significantly influenced musical tastes in Europe from medieval times to the modern age Gunpowder, Explosives and the State Brenda J. Buchanan, 2016-12-05 Gunpowder studies are still in their infancy despite the long standing civil and military importance of this explosive since its discovery in China in the mid ninth century AD In this second volume by contributors who meet regularly at symposia of the International Committee for the History of Technology ICOHTEC the research is again rooted in the investigation of the technology of explosives manufacture but the fact that the chapters range in scope from the Old World to the New from sources of raw materials in south east Asia to the complications of manufacture in the West shows that the story is more than the simple one of how an intriguing product was made This volume is the first to develop the implications of the subject not just in the sense of relating it to changing military technologies but in that of seeing the securing of gunpowder supplies as fundamental to the power of the state and imperial pretensions The search for saltpetre for example an essential ingredient of gunpowder became a powerful engine of sea going European trade from the early seventeenth century Smaller states like Venice were unable to form these distant connections and so to sustain a gunpowder army Stronger states like France and Britain were able to do so and became even more powerful as the demand for improved explosives fostered national strengths leading to a development of the sciences especially chemistry in the former case and of manufacturing techniques in the latter The Birth of the Despot Lucette Valensi, 2018-05-31 In her graceful account of the transformation of European attitudes toward the Ottoman empire during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Lucette Valensi follows the genealogy of the concept of Oriental despotism The Birth of the Despot examines a crucial moment in the long and ambiguous encounter between the Christian and Islamic worlds the period after the fall of Constantinople to the Turks when Venice s pursuit of its commercial and maritime interests brought two powerful protagonists Venice and the

Sublime Porte face to face Vivaldi's oratorio Juditha Triumphans in which Judith liberates her besieged town by killing the Turk Holofernes serves as the organizing metaphor in Valensi's study of how Venice's perceptions of its rival changed Valensi shows how Venice's initial admiration for the sultan and his orderly empire metamorphosed into revulsion at a monstrous tyrant

Venice's Secret Service Ioanna Iordanou, 2019-10-28 Venice's Secret Service is the untold and arresting story of the world's earliest centrally organised state intelligence service Long before the inception of SIS and the CIA in the period of the Renaissance the Republic of Venice had masterminded a remarkable centrally organised state intelligence organisation that played a pivotal role in the defence of the Venetian empire Housed in the imposing Doge's Palace and under the direction of the Council of Ten the notorious governmental committee that acted as Venice's spy chiefs this proto modern organisation served prominent intelligence functions including operations intelligence and covert action analysis cryptography and steganography cryptanalysis and even the development of lethal substances Official informants and amateur spies were shipped across Europe Anatolia and Northern Africa conducting Venice's stealthy intelligence operations Revealing a plethora of secrets their keepers and their seekers Venice's Secret Service explores the social and managerial processes that enabled their existence and that furnished the foundation for an extraordinary intelligence organisation created by one of the early modern world's most cosmopolitan states

The Refugee-Diplomat Diego Pirillo, 2018-12-15 The establishment of permanent embassies in fifteenth century Italy has traditionally been regarded as the moment of transition between medieval and modern diplomacy In The Refugee

Diplomat Diego Pirillo offers an alternative history of early modern diplomacy centered not on states and their official representatives but around the figure of the refugee diplomat and more specifically Italian religious dissidents who forged ties with English and northern European Protestants in the hope of inspiring an Italian Reformation Pirillo reconsiders how diplomacy worked not only within but also outside of formal state channels through underground networks of individuals who were able to move across confessional and linguistic borders often adapting their own identities to the changing political conditions they encountered Through a trove of diplomatic and mercantile letters inquisitorial records literary texts marginalia and visual material The Refugee Diplomat recovers the agency of religious refugees in international affairs revealing their profound impact on the emergence of early modern diplomatic culture and practice Columbia Record Catalog, 1925 Catalogue of Scientific Papers (1800-1900): First series 1800-1863 Royal Society (Great Britain), 1867 Madama Butterfly Arthur Groos, Virgilio Bernardoni, 2008 The Universal Electrical Directory (J.A. Berly's), 1911 Lo stato Woodrow Wilson, 1921 Vi Conosco, Cultural Change Among the Jews of Early Modern Italy Robert Bonfil, 2024-12-11 The articles collected in this volume display Robert Bonfil's pioneering reappraisal of the economic and socio cultural history of the Jews of Italy during the Renaissance and the early modern period focusing on their encounter with and incorporation into the Italian society that surrounded them Rather than thinking in terms of challenge and response and the passive surrender of the Jews to the influence of their Christian surroundings Bonfil's exploration of the evidence shows it mirroring their conscious choice to preserve a distinctive Jewish identity while at the same time being an integral part of the socio economic and cultural fabric of the environment in which they lived Rejecting the ideological assumptions of both the lachrymose and anti lachrymose conceptions of Jewish history these are articles which provide stimulating explorations of the realities of the era and paradigms and case studies of the processes of cultural adjustment to the impact of constantly changing otherness Atlantica Filippo Càssola, 1929 Tintoretto Robert Echols, Frederick Ilchman, 2018-01-01 Considered one of the three greatest painters of sixteenth century Venice along with Titian and Veronese Tintoretto was a bold innovator His free expressive brushwork made his work look unfinished to contemporaries but is now recognized as a key step in the development of oil on canvas painting Even today's audiences are astonished by the superhuman scale painterly dynamism and visionary qualities of his work On the 500th anniversary of Tintoretto's birth this volume provides a comprehensive overview of his career and achievement with fifteen essays and reproductions of more than 140 paintings many newly conserved as well as a selection of his finest drawings One special contribution is a focus on the artist's portraiture Library of Congress Roman Pottery and Glass Manufactures: Production and Trade in the Adriatic Region and Beyond Goranka Lipovac Vrkljan, Ana Konestra, Anamarija Eterović Borzić, 2022-09-22 32 papers consider issues of pottery production in the wider Adriatic area during Roman times in particular relation to landscape and communication features ceramic building materials as well as general studies on ceramic production pottery and glass finds
