KENNEDY,2016-07-07 This isn t just another love story Generically perhaps but otherwise not It is indeed a story about love falling in love being in love experiencing love in all of its manifold unpredictable aspects with its roller coaster emotions its exhilarating highs its heartbreaking lows and its gut wrenching uncertainties But the difference and the reason why I believe the reader will kvell over this tale and find it all but un put down able is because this is a story about mature love venerated love old love if you will to put it plainly In short how hope springs eternal and how we all are truly as young as we think we are This is a great book For anyone who wants to believe there is still magic in the world and that love can happen at any age this is a must read Vikki Walker USA July 2016 The Lucky Ones KG MacGregor,2019-10-01 Scarred by her mother s betrayal Brittany Iverson left home half a lifetime ago for the promise of California with its vibrant cosmopolitan lesbian community She wouldn t go back to Kentucky for a million dollars But several million That s a different kettle of fish All Britt has to do is help resurrect her father's failing business so they can sell it to the highest bidder. Thanks to a college softball scholarship, Ninah Faust escaped her upbringing as well, leaving eastern Kentucky's impoverished coal country for the quaint small town of Leland. Now a high school history teacher, she enjoys a laid-back lifestyle, a close-knit circle of lesbian friends, and the Longdogs, Leland's minor league baseball team. Ninah knows better than to fall for newcomer Britt, whose plan is to get in, get rich, and get out. Britt knows better too, since the last thing she needs is a girlfriend in Kentucky. But fall they do, so which one will give up her perfect life for the other?

The Lucky Ones marks a return to the idyllic hamlet of Leland, Kentucky, where you're sure to run into the town's most prominent lesbian couple, Justine Hall and Carly Griffin from The House on Sandstone. The Lucky Bag, 1927. At the Lucky Hand, Goran Petrović, 2020-09-01. At the Lucky Hand is an account of the different love stories that revolve around a very peculiar book, My Legacy, by Anastas Branica. At first glance, this is a book where there is no plot or characters, only descriptions. However, that is what makes it a self-sufficient space, a world that can only be inhabited by its readers, which Anastas has written in order to live within the book with his beloved. Through what Petrović called simultaneous reading, it is possible to coincide with other people in the same book, and not only that, but also to live beyond what is simply written. Within this experience of reading, while reading, participants are able to access a meeting place that is outside of reality. How else can we describe what happens to us when we read with true conviction when books become life, palpable, manifested when books become part of our physiology when love is incarnated in the reading that two strangers perform at the same time, hoping that time will be abolished by the mere fact of fixing their gaze on a page. In short, what the reader of this book will surely experience along with all the other readers who coincide in the experience will be a state of joyous stupefaction. Above all else, the book is a love letter to the power of literature.

Memoir of Lucky Joe, Joseph H. Yang, 2014-02. America is still a land of opportunities when you have good friends and schoolmates, appreciative bosses who value your potential to contribute to their enterprise regardless of your race, national origin, or speaking English with a foreign accent. But it is not inevitable that you can have a great journey in America. God luck will make it happen. This is a true story of Joe's lucky journey in America. Joe came to Seattle with a foreign student visa from Taipei in 1960. His first job in Seattle was a night shift janitor at Doctors Hospital, so he might go to school during the day. Two years later, his physics laboratory partner got him a job as a part-time technician at Boeing Airplane Company. The Boeing experience got him a teaching assistantship in the electrical engineering department of Johns Hopkins University in 1963. He finished his Ph.D. dissertation in 1968. He taught Communication Systems at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee in 1968-1969. Not by planning, he luckily entered into the American military-industrial complex world beginning 1970.
