Macro Case Studies In Social Work:

Macro Case Studies in Social Work Robert W. McClelland, 1998 Decision Cases for Advanced Social Work Practice Terry A. Wolfer, Lori D Franklin, Karen A Gray, 2013-11-19 These fifteen cases take place in child welfare mental health hospital hospice domestic violence refugee resettlement veterans administration and school settings and reflect individual family group and supervised social work practice They confront common ethical and treatment issues and raise issues regarding practice interventions programs policies and laws Cases represent open ended situations encouraging students to apply knowledge from across the social work curriculum to develop problem solving and critical thinking skills An instructor's manual is available on the press's website Dying, Death, & Bereavement in Social Work Practice Terry A. Wolfer, Vicki M. Runnion, 2008 Practitioners who work with clients at the end of their lives face difficult decisions concerning the client's self determination the kind of death he or she will have and the prolongation of life They must also remain sensitive to the beliefs and needs of family members and the legal ethical and spiritual ramifications of the client's death Featuring twenty three decision cases based on interviews with professional social workers this unique volume allows students to wrestle with the often incomplete and conflicting information ethical issues and time constraints of actual cases Instead of offering easy solutions this book provides detailed accounts that provoke stimulating debates among students enabling them to confront their own responses beliefs and uncertainties to hone their critical thinking and decision making skills for professional practice Please note Teaching Notes for this volume will be available from Electronic Hallway in Spring 2010 To access the Teaching Notes you must first become a member of the Electronic Hallway The main Electronic Hallway web page is at <https://hallway.org/index.php> To join click Become a Hallway Member in the Get Involved category or point your browser directly to <https://hallway.org/involved/join.php> and provide the required information After your instructor status has been confirmed you will receive an e mail granting access to the Electronic Hallway Once logged on to Electronic Hallway as a member click Case Search in the Cases and Resources category on the main web page Enter death dying bereavement without the quotation marks in the search box select all of the words in the drop down menu and click Submit The search process will generate a list of Teaching Notes for cases from Dying Death and Bereavement in Social Work Practice Decision Cases for Advanced Practice Dilemmas in Social Work Field Education Terry A. Wolfer, Melissa Reitmeier, 2021-07-20 Field education is social work's signature pedagogy the essential preparation for professional practice Its success depends on field educators field instructors task supervisors or preceptors and faculty field liaisons to guide and assess student learning and maintain the pedagogical integrity of the field experience Despite its importance and complexity few resources exist for orienting and preparing field educators This anthology presents decision cases that depict the actual experiences of social work field educators and students They showcase the complex dynamics of field education and highlight a range of dilemmas experienced by novice and seasoned field educators In various combinations the dilemmas include interpersonal boundaries emotional reactivity initiative expectations role confusion inadequate performance accountability interpersonal conflict personal values and impairment The cases show how other field educators have navigated the issues that typically arise with greater or lesser success The cases portray the intricacy and rewards of this educational role and are selected for their ability to facilitate in depth discussion among field educators during their initial training or continuing education Guided discussions of these cases can bolster supervisory competence and confidence They enable field educators to develop important problem solving and critical thinking skills related to their overlapping roles as instructors supervisors mentors advisors colleagues and role models helping them thrive and continue to serve the profession An accompanying instructor manual provides extensive information for each decision case and also includes guidance for field directors on how to use the case method of teaching and sources for additional information

Social Work and Simulations Associate Dean for Engagement Diversity Equity and Inclusion Kevin Tan, Kevin Tan (Professor of social work), Chi-Fang Wu, Professor and PhD Program Director of Social Work Chi-Fang Wu, Professor Emerita of School of Social Work Terry Ostler, Teresa Ostler, 2025 Drawing on five years of work and research on simulated learning experiences with actors this book describes their implementation in social work classes on social work practice policy and research in the School of Social Work at the University of Illinois Urbana Champaign UIUC PhD students took the lead in developing and implementing many simulations worked with instructors to tie the simulations to learning objectives and facilitated student discussion and reflection Emphasis was given to understanding social work competencies in the context of issues of social injustice diversity equity and inclusion Staged in simulation house in classrooms in a library setting and online the simulations included a collaboration with the UIUC police and with librarians at UIUC and the University of Washington Tacoma The book describes how brave spaces were created to facilitate difficult conversations sharing and reflections rather than grading performance Challenges included resource and time constraints concerns about

re traumatizing students or stereotyping experiences and reluctance to include simulations in social work classes. It provides an immersive learning experience for students and instructors alike. Simulations emerge as a paradigm shift in social work education as it allows them to become more alive and accountable to the multifaceted complex and human elements of social work practice. The text includes a wealth of case studies and material to build ethical simulations in practice. Greening Social Work Education Susan Hillock, 2024-03-01. Despite urgent calls for global action, sustainable social work practice and a solid green theoretical knowledge base. North American social work and helping professions have been slow to learn from community activists acknowledge the international climate emergency and act collectively to achieve climate justice. Greening Social Work Education examines how social work educators can best incorporate sustainability content into social work curricula, integrate green teaching methods and mobilize students and colleagues towards climate action, justice and leadership. Drawing on Canadian content, this collection highlights Indigenous eco-feminist collective action and multi-interdisciplinary approaches to social work. The book provides a rationale for why the topic of greening is important for social work and the helping professions, discussion of current debates, tensions and issues, useful ideas related to innovative interdisciplinary theoretical approaches, analyses and constructs and practical recommendations for teaching green social work education. In doing so, Greening Social Work Education strives to help social workers and educators gain the confidence and tools they need to transform their teaching and curricula. The Routledge International Handbook of Social Work and Sexualities SJ Dodd, 2021-07-19. This Handbook is the first volume to address the dynamic issues related to sexuality from a social work perspective by providing a comprehensive current and international overview of issues related to sexuality. It explains how each issue is important and critically discusses the leading views in the area, providing diverse and inclusive perspectives from leading scholars in the field. Divided into seven parts: Structural Context, Sexual Identities, Sexuality through the Lifespan, Health, Mental Health and Sexuality, Sexual Health and Well Being, Pleasure, Desire and Consent, Practice Issues, Regulating Sexuality, Historical and Contemporary Legislation. It will be of interest to students, academics, researchers and practitioners of social work and related health and social care subjects and is particularly relevant for practice courses as well as courses on Human Growth and Development and Human Behavior in the Social Environment. Social Services Administration In Hong Kong: Theoretical Issues And Case Studies Kam-tong Chan, 2003-05-03. This book collates a number of case studies by former students from the Master of Arts Social Work programme whose stream of study was Social Services Administration. Many of these studies involved the action learning projects conducted by them. Academic colleagues and experienced administrators in the welfare and health sector also contribute their insights and experience regarding the major theoretical and practical issues in social services administration.
