Southern Economic Journal, 1927 AMS., 1960 Feminist Policymaking in Turbulent Times Hannah Partis-Jennings, Clara Eroukhmanoff, 2024-05-31 Feminist Policymaking in Turbulent Times offers a unique and timely reflection of the critical debates around the institutionalisation of feminist and gender focused ideas and norms into policy Many states and non governmental organisations are increasingly invested in feminist policymaking at the domestic and international levels Yet this liberal feminist agenda is also vastly disputed by critical intersectional and decolonial voices on the one hand and by anti gender movements around the world on the other hand Indeed while opposition to gender ideology is mounting from reactionary religious and secular forces feminist policymaking is also being challenged in important ways from within Thus this book situates feminist policymaking in a challenging and turbulent global context This book explores feminist policymaking in multiple areas of policy examining various gender focused programmes that states and international organisations have undertaken in the last decade offering critical interventions and rethinking the relationship between feminism and policy This book not only reflects on the advances of feminist policymaking globally but also critically assesses the intersectional challenges embedded within it and lying ahead It moves the field forward by creating opportunities based on lived experiences for re imagining the transformative potential of the nexus between feminism and policymaking Interdisciplinary in scope and bringing to the fore the voices of both academics and practitioners this book is the product of an international collaboration forging links and dialogue that are increasingly necessary to question some of the exclusionary militaristic and hierarchical assumptions of policymaking which is labelled as feminist Feminist Policymaking in Turbulent Times will be of interest to all scholars students and practitioners interested in the role of gender in policymaking and concerned with contestations around gender focused projects      Structural Adjustment SAPRIN,2013-07-18 Structural adjustment programmes are the largest single cause of increased poverty inequality and hunger in developing countries This book is the most comprehensive real life assessment to date of the impacts of the liberalisation deregulation privatisation and austerity that constitute structural adjustment It is the result of a unique five year collaboration among citizens groups developing country governments and the World Bank itself Its authors the members of the Structural Adjustment Participatory Review International Network SAPRIN reveal the practical consequences for manufacturing small enterprise wages and conditions social services health education food security poverty and inequality The stark conclusion emerges if there is to be any hope for meaningful development structural adjustment and neoliberal economics must be jettisoned international experts to offer new perspectives on how to take analytic tools from the realm of academic research out into the real world to address pressing policy questions. As the essays discuss political polarization, regional conflicts, climate change, and the dramatic technological breakthroughs of the digital age, have all left the standard tools of regulation floundering in the twenty-first century. These failures have in turn precipitated significant questions about the fundamentals of law and economics. The contributors address law and economics in diverse settings and situations, including central banking and the use of capital controls, fighting corruption in China, rural credit markets in India, pawnshops in the United States, the limitations of antitrust law, and the role of international monetary regimes. Collectively, the essays in Law, Economics, and Conflict rethink how the insights of law and economics can inform policies that provide individuals with the space and means to work, innovate, and prosper while guiding states and international organizations to regulate in ways that limit conflict, reduce national and global inequality, and ensure fairness.
