Tales From A Mad Man's Wife Marilyn Miller Skylar, 2014-01-16 Take a behind the scenes look at a real advertising Mad Man typical of the postwar era of peace and prosperity After heeding his nation's call to duty and serving in the Air Force in World War II David Skylar entered the University of Missouri's journalism school vowing to become a newspaper reporter Although he experienced success on the Columbia Missourian staff David didn't find his true calling until the biggest ad agency between Chicago and New York signed him as a freelance writer The passionate writer soon proved his worth and dove headlong into advertising and public relations The fast paced business which came into its own in the 1940s to 1960s brought fame and fortune to the young man known as the Green Hornet by his employees for his creativity and craftiness From his agency vice presidency at just 33 years old to discovering Liberace's musical talent and putting it to use in a successful bank sponsorship to becoming a newspaper publisher this memoir reveals David's incredible coast to coast career As well as being the brains behind numerous campaigns he devoted himself to charity work and became a confidant to mayors senators judges and governors

Mad Men, Women, and Children Heather Marcovitch, Nancy Batty, 2012-07-13 As rich and complex as The Sopranos or The Wire Mad Men demands a critical look at its narrative and characters as representative of both the period it depicts and of our memories and assumptions of the period Mad Men Women and Children Essays on Gender and Generation edited by Heather Marcovitch and Nancy Batty focuses on women and children two groups that are not only identified together in this period women characters in this show are often treated as coddled children and the children look to their parents as models of adult behaviors but are also two groups who are beginning to gain political and social rights in this period The connections between the women of Mad Men early second wave feminism and contemporary third wave feminism and post feminism invite discussion in nearly every episode These characters are further contextualized in light of historical figures and events from the death of Marilyn Monroe and the assassination of Kennedy to the March on Washington and the bohemian counterculture Moreover the points of view of the children who are now adult viewers of Mad Men bridge the 1960s to the social and cultural concerns of today Mad Men Women and Children presents an examination of these characters and issues in light of 1960s feminist writers such as Betty Friedan and popular writers such as Helen Gurley Brown of historical events like the Civil Rights Movement and the Women's Liberation Movement and as lenses through which to view the sensibilities of the early 1960s
