Made With Love A Devotional For Handcraft Lovers:

Made with Love Margaret D. Smith,1998 Margaret Smith invites you to discover more about the character of God by learning about different types of crafts and the people who make them Thirty short readings are followed by questions to help you reflect on God s creativity in your own life The Elements of Song Craft Billy Seidman,2020-08-15 An effective new songwriting vocabulary supported by ASCAP BMI and SESAC The Elements Of Song Craft does for songwriters what William Strunk Jr and E B White s The Elements Of Style did for English language students and writers alike gives an all in one definitive manifesto for contemporary songwriters in every genre to organize understand and practice the rules principles definitions forms and song craft needed to create good songs songs of undeniable creative power and beauty songs that last The Elements of Song Craft beelines directly to the most important aspect of writing good songs identifying the key emotion living at the heart of the song then offers a step by step process to harnessing that singular emotional power Additionally a dozen other strategies formulas perspectives and exercises are offered in the book The Elements of Song Craft introduces for the first time to a general songwriting audience an effective new songwriting vocabulary utilized by songwriters taught in the SONG ARTS ACADEMY method and supported by ASCAP BMI and SESAC the world s leading Performance Rights Organizations at the heart of the songwriting business as well as at NYU Steinhardt s and The New School s songwriting programs for over sixteen years Thousands of song arts participants including hit songwriters and The Voice and American Idol contestants have been trained in this method American Book Publishing Record ,1999

Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2000 Sharing God's Love and Joy Willa Ruth Garlow,2011-05-25 The joy to be found in the discovery of Gods word is a lifelong journey that can begin at any age This book is full of Bible studies that have been written specifically for use by people who have experienced life for a few years and their families Willa Ruth Garlow is a gifted Bible teacher and writer She has the wonderful gift of illustrating God s Word and applying it to our lives She has a love for God and for people that comes alive in these 52 studies one for every week of the year If you lead a weekly Bible study for older adults you will find this rich resource very helpful and rewarding These lessons can be used as a weekly or monthly study in churches retirement communities and many other settings They also make a wonderful devotional Bible study at home You will be blessed May God bless the study of His Word New World A-Coming Judith Weisenfeld,2017-02-07 Albert J Raboteau Prize Best Book in Africana Religions Impeccably researched paints a colorful picture of religious diversity among Black people Journal of Africana Religions When Joseph Nathaniel Beckles registered for the draft in 1942 he rejected the racial categories presented to him and persuaded the registrar to cross out the check mark she had placed next to Negro and substitute Ethiopian Hebrew God did not make us Negroes declared religious leaders in black communities of the early twentieth century urban North They insisted that so called Negroes are in reality Ethiopian Hebrews Asiatic Muslims or raceless children of God Rejecting conventional American racial classification many black southern migrants and immigrants from the Caribbean embraced these alternative visions of black history racial identity and collective future thereby reshaping the black religious and racial landscape Focusing on the Moorish Science Temple the Nation of Islam Father Divine s Peace Mission Movement and a number of congregations of Ethiopian Hebrews Judith Weisenfeld argues that the appeal of these groups lay not only in the new religious opportunities membership provided but also in the novel ways they formulated a religio racial identity Arguing that members of these groups understood their religious and racial identities as divinely ordained and inseparable the book examines how this sense of self shaped their conceptions of their bodies families religious and social communities space and place and political sensibilities Drawing on extensive archival research and incorporating a rich array of sources to highlight the experiences of average members the book demonstrates that the efforts by members of these movements to contest conventional racial categorization contributed to broader discussions in black America about the nature of racial identity and the collective future of black people that still resonate today A masterful work of religious history a significant contribution to the study of religious narratives and their role in shaping African American identity and community in the past and the present Journal for the Scientific Study of Religion
