Making Futures Pelle Ehn, Elisabet M. Nilsson, Richard Topgaard, 2014-11-07 Experiments in innovation design and democracy that search not for a killer app but for a collaboratively created sustainable future Innovation and design need not be about the search for a killer app Innovation and design can start in people's everyday activities They can encompass local services cultural production arenas for public discourse or technological platforms The approach is participatory collaborative and engaging with users and consumers acting as producers and creators It is concerned less with making new things than with making a socially sustainable future This book describes experiments in innovation design and democracy undertaken largely by grassroots organizations non governmental organizations and multi ethnic working class neighborhoods These stories challenge the dominant perception of what constitutes successful innovations They recount efforts at social innovation opening the production process challenging the creative class and expanding the public sphere The wide range of cases considered include a collective of immigrant women who perform collaborative services the development of an open hardware movement grassroots journalism and hip hop performances on city buses They point to the possibility of democratized innovation that goes beyond solo entrepreneurship and crowdsourcing in the service of corporations to include multiple futures imagined and made locally by often marginalized publics Contributors M ns Adler Erling Bj rgvinsson Karin Book David Cuartielles Pelle Ehn Anders Emilson Per Anders Hillgren Mads Hoby Michael Krona Per Linde Kristina Lindstr m Sanna Marttila Elisabet M Nilsson Anna Seravalli Pernilla Severson sa St hl Lucy Suchman Richard Topgaard Laura Watts

The Law and Governance of Decentralised Business Models Roger M Barker, Iris H-Y Chiu, 2020-12-30 This book draws together themes in business model developments in relation to decentralised business models DBMs sometimes referred to as the sharing economy to systematically analyse the challenges to corporate and organisational law and governance DBMs include business networks the global supply chain public private partnerships the platform economy and blockchain based enterprises The law of organisational forms and governance has been slow in responding to changes and reliance has been placed on innovations in contract law to support the business model developments The authors argue that the law of organisations and governance can respond to changes in the phenomenon of decentralised business models driven by transformative technology and new socio economic dynamics They argue that principles underlying the law of organisations and governance such as corporate governance are crucial to constituting facilitating and enabling reciprocity mutuality governance and redress in relation to these business models the wealth creation of which subscribes to neither a firm nor market system is neither hierarchical nor totally decentralised and incorporates socio economic elements that are often enmeshed with incentives and relations Of interest to academics policymakers and legal practitioners this book offers proposals for new thinking in the law of organisation and governance to advance the possibilities of a new socio economic future
