Barros Decad iii lib v cap viii that letters of Magellan to Francisco Serrano were found after the death of the latter in Maluco in which Magellan said that he should soon see him and if it were not by way of Portugal it would be by way of Castile and that Serrano should therefore wait for him there Further on Barros says that recourse to Castile appears from these letters to have been in Magellan s mind some time before the occurrence of the king s dismissal of his business and that this was shown by his always associating with pilots and occupying himself with sea charts Forest and Stream ,1901 Jeff
