Many Paths A Catholic Approach To Religious Pluralism:

Many Paths Eugene Hillman, 2008-06-01 In Many Paths Eugene Hillman a pioneer in the area of interreligious dialogue and Catholic thought argues that the wider ecumenism to which Christians were summoned by Vatican II may prove to be the most radically demanding of the Council's many calls. It requires a reexamination of christology of ecclesiology of missiology and a coming to terms with the reality of religious pluralism. By exploring religion's historico-cultural dimensions examining the Church's tradition and practice vis-à-vis other cultures and religions and explicating the challenges of a post-Vatican II ministry Many Paths makes a vital contribution to the development of interreligious dialogue. A Fundamental Theological Study of Radical Secularization and its Aftermath Alpo Penttinen, 2024-01-17 In the wake of various secularization processes a growing number of people in Western societies are now describing themselves as non-religious. But what does this sociological fact really mean for the Church and for society at large? Has human religiosity a future after secularization? It does, this book argues, but in a radically altered form. Taking its cue from Pope Francis's suggestion that globalizing humanity is presently living through a genuine epochal shift, this book presents an original analysis of the transformative effect of secularization on our spiritual predicament in the Western, now definitively post-Christian world. Instead of succumbing to the all too common polarizations in contemporary religious discourse, this book aspires to overcome the religious vs. secular dichotomy through developing the logic of Radical Secularization, arguably the genuine novelty of the particularly Western process of secularization. The past homogeneously religious culture is certainly dusking, but this only paves the way for the dawn of the future and radically open horizon for our human search for meaning. This challenging book will offer intellectual impulses and spiritual incentives to everybody who ponders the future of human religious evolution after secularization. An Introduction to the Theology of Religions Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen, 2009-08-20 How does Christianity relate to other religions? Beginning with a consideration of the biblical perspective, Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen offers a detailed and comprehensive survey of the diverse explanations proposed by teachers of the church down through the ages. This indispensable guide is for anyone seeking to grasp Christianity's relationship to world religions. African Religion in the Dialogue Debate Laurenti Magesa, 2010 Dialogue between African Religion and other world religions has regrettably been a much neglected area in formal religious discourse in Africa to date. Moreover, up to now the imperative of dialogue in the process of evangelism figures only peripherally, if at all, in the study of African Christian Theology. This book is probably the first deliberate, extensive and well-argued attempt by an African theologian to fill this unfortunate lacuna. How can Christian and African spiritualities interact with and enrich each other on the basis of mutual respect without, as has historically been the case, the one necessarily seeking to eradicate the other? This is the fundamental question of dialogue discussed in the pages of this book. Dr. Laurenti Magesa is Senior Lecturer in African Theology at the Maryknoll Institute of African Studies and the Jesuit School of Theology, Catholic University of Eastern Africa, Nairobi, Kenya. Dialectics of Faith-Culture

Integration Michael Muonwe, 2014-02-21 This book navigates the contours of cultural and theological hermeneutics in order to critique affirm as well as reconceptualise the vital underpinnings and subtleties of faith culture intercourse and reciprocity. It questions claims to effective inculturation by theologians and church authorities even as it acknowledges the inevitability of the tension between inculturation process and syncretic formations. It is an irresistible asset for teachers and students of theology, cultural and religious studies for pastors and missionaries and for all Christians in need of finding Christian beliefs and practices more meaningful to them in their daily lives. The hope is that it challenges the straitjacketed conceptual and pastoral frameworks that have often characterised the church's evangelisation initiatives and assists in making Christian faith a concrete and living possession of every age and culture. Michael Muonwe is a priest of the Catholic diocese of Awka, Nigeria. He holds Licentiate and Doctorate in Theology and Religious Studies from the Catholic University of Leuven, Belgium. He obtained Bachelors in Philosophy from Bigard Memorial Seminary, Enugu, Nigeria. Michael also holds Diplomas in Mass Communication and Education. He has authored a number of articles and is an editor of a book. His major research interest is the often convoluted relationship and interplay between religion and the contemporary culture. His research on the relationship between Christianity, feminism and culture will soon be published in two volumes. On the present book, Prof. Annemie Dillen of the Catholic University of Leuven affirms: This is a must-read book for local church leaders, theologians and everyone involved in pastoral work. It challenges the reader to give up a longing for security and finding answers in fixed rules or the so-called universal truths and invites him or her to an in-depth study of cultural practices and beliefs. The overview of the discussions on inculturation and the reality or sometime maybe phantom of syncretism is very illuminating and thought-provoking. Thomas F. Magill asserts: A timely and well-balanced study of the theology of inculturation as understood in the Roman Catholic tradition, offering new and fresh insights situated in the cusp between the Benedict XVI's emphasis on the relationship between faith and reason and the problem of relativism and Francis I's desire for a poor church for the poor. T. F. Magill, L. S. S. Ph. D., parish priest of the Diocese of Motherwell, formerly a Lecturer in New Testament Studies at the University of Glasgow. The Catholic Tradition, Second Edition Timothy G. McCarthy, 2012-04-16 This expanded edition of a Loyola Press best-seller traces profound changes in Catholicism's institutional, intellectual and devotional life in this century. Organized by theme: authority, mission, social justice, sexual morality and others, the book explains Church thinking prior to Vatican II, Church thinking now and the how and why of Council changes. It shows the Church struggling to find the best way to maintain and hand on the Catholic tradition even as it engages in intrafaith and interreligious dialogue. A new chapter on women in the Church, their contributions and issues, completes the update.

Pluralism Chester Gillis, 1993 Methodologically, Gillis suggests that Christian theology be constructed not only with an awareness of but also using the data of other religions. Theologically, he defends the position of pluralism and investigates the implications of this for soteriology, christology and ethics. As practical theology, he offers suggestions for the conduct of interreligious dialogue on the local level Chester Gillis is assistant professor theology at Georgetown University He holds a Licentiate degree in Philosophy and the M A in Religious Studies from the Catholic University of Leuven His Ph D in Theology is from the Divinity School of the University of Chicago He is author of A Question of Final Belief Roman Catholicism in America Chester Gillis, 2020-03-24 Who are American Catholics and what do they believe and practice How has American Catholicism influenced and been influenced by American culture and society This book examines the history of American Catholics from the colonial era to the present with an emphasis on changes and challenges in the contemporary church Chester Gillis chronicles America Catholics where they have come from how they have integrated into American society and how the church has influenced their lives He highlights key events and people examines data on Catholics and their relationship to the church and considers the church's positions and actions on politics education and gender and sexuality in the context of its history and doctrines This second edition of Roman Catholicism in America pays particular attention to the tumultuous past twenty years and points toward the future of the religion in the United States It examines the unprecedented crisis of sexual abuse by priests the legal moral financial and institutional repercussions of which continue to this day and the bishops' role in it Gillis also discusses the election of Pope Francis and the controversial role Catholic leadership has played in American politics

One Earth, Many Religions Paul F. Knitter, 1995 One of the world's foremost exponents of the pluralist position as the most adequate Christian theological account of religious diversity turns to a new and urgent issue facing the community of world religions For Paul Knitter the spectre of environmental and social injustice looms over any serious discussion of humankind's future As urgent as it is to have peace among the world's believers to achieve peace among nations it is urgent that these communities unite in understanding and defending of the earth In One Earth Many Religions Knitter looks back at his own dialogical odyssey and forward to the way that interfaith encounters and dialogue must focus attention on new challenges Nothing less than enlisting the commitment of the world's religions on the task of saving our common home will do In making that case Knitter makes clear the complex structures political economic and social as well as religious that face those who approach this task While articulating a this worldly soteriology necessary to overcome our eco human plight Knitter offers practical considerations on actions and projects that have and should have been undertaken to stem the tide of environmental and human suffering The global crisis is both at the center of One Earth Many Religions and a test case for Knitter and others engaged in the dialogue of religions Can religious differences concerning the nature of the transcendent themselves be transcended in order to promote eco human well being The issue seems basic and clear if interreligious dialogue cannot effect such a change then one must question whether religion is of any use whatsoever

'Multi-faith Worship?', 1992 In this text the Inter Faith Consultative Group discussed the various types of multi faith worship and considers the theological issues involved
