Manymouthed Birds Contemporary Writings By Chinese Canadians:

Asian Canadian Writing Beyond Autoethnography Christl Verduyn, 2008-08-14 Asian Canadian Writing Beyond Autoethnography explores some of the latest developments in the literary and cultural practices of Canadians of Asian heritage While earlier work by ethnic multicultural or minority writers in Canada was often concerned with immigration the moment of arrival issues of assimilation and conflicts between generations literary and cultural production in the new millennium no longer focuses solely on the conflict between the Old World and the New or the clashes between culture of origin and adopted culture No longer are minority authors identifying simply with their ethnic or racial cultural background in opposition to dominant culture The essays in this collection explore ways in which Asian Canadian authors such as Larissa Lai Shani Mootoo Fred Wah Hiromi Goto Suniti Namjoshi and Ying Chen and artists such as Ken Lum Paul Wong and Laiwan have gone beyond what Fran oise Lionnet calls autoethnography or ethnographic autobiography They demonstrate the ways representations of race and ethnicity particularly in works by Asian Canadians in the last decade have changed have become more playful untraditional aesthetically and ideologically transgressive and exciting Many-mouthed Birds Bennett Lee, Jim Wong-Chu, 1991 Asian Canadian Studies Reader Roland Sintos Coloma, Gordon Pon, 2017-06-16 Roland Sintos Coloma and Gordon Pon's Asian Canadian Studies Reader brings together essential writings by leading and emerging scholars in the field to explore the vibrancy of the diverse Asian diaspora in Canada The Reader is the perfect textbook for undergraduate courses in Race and Ethnic Studies Women and Gender Studies and Migration and Diaspora Studies The volume is organized into four main themes ethnic intersectional comparative and transnational encounters It critically engages topics regarding orientalism settler colonialism globalization and nationalism Each groundbreaking essay challenges our conventional understandings of diversity and multiculturalism by tackling the intricacies of racism and racialization By capturing the rich diversity within Asian Canadian communities Coloma and Pon dispel the perceptions of Asians as always immigrants newcomers or model minorities The Asian Canadian Studies Reader is the first interdisciplinary collection of essays intended for undergraduate use about Canada's largest racialized minority group Haunted Nations Sneja Gunew, 2013-04-15 Postcolonialism has attracted a large amount of interest in cultural theory but the adjacent area of multiculturalism has not been scrutinised to quite the same extent In this innovative new book Sneja Gunew sets out to interrogate the ways in which the transnational discourse of multiculturalism may be related to the politics of race and indigeneity grounding her discussion in a variety of national settings and a variety of literary autobiographical and theoretical texts Using examples from marginal sites the settler societies of Australia and Canada to cast light on the globally dominant discourses of the US and the UK Gunew analyses the political ambiguities and the pitfalls involved in a discourse of multiculturalism haunted by the opposing spectres of anarchy and assimilation Banana Bending Tseen-Ling Khoo, 2003-07-24 Asian Australian and Asian Canadian writers exist within the realities of specific national contexts that are not necessarily bypassed by configurations of the diasporic community Tseen Ling Khoo shows that Asian Canadian and Asian Australian literatures are developing in dissimilar ways because of demographic and geographical differences the degree of governmental intervention through cultural policy initiatives and the levels of encouragement or financial support for racial minority authors and their work Khoo exposes the particularities of literary development within specific historical bases through comparative critiques of Asian Canadian and Asian Australian texts and argues that the questions of whether authors of Asian descent writing in the western world are adding to national canons or creating subversive but marginalized streams will remain as long as binary demarcations prevail Khoo contends that literary criticism should see racial minority literatures as existing in both categories at once thus shifting the boundaries of what constitutes a national canon as well as posing challenges to the literary status quo

Transformations Sarah Ahmed, Jane Kilby, Celia Lury, Maureen McNeil, Maureen McNeil, Beverley Skeggs, 2005-07-19 With contributions from some of the most important current feminist thinkers Transformations traces both the shifts in thinking that have allowed feminism to arrive at its present point and the way that feminist agendas have progressed in line with wider social developments A thorough reassessment of feminism's place in contemporary life the authors engage in current debates as diverse as globalization technoscience embodiment and performativity taking feminism in fresh directions mapping new territory and suggesting alternative possibilities

Towards a Transcultural Future: Literature and Human Rights in a 'Post'-Colonial World ,2021-10-18 Studying postcolonial literatures in English can and indeed should make a human rights activist of the reader there is after all any amount of evidence to show the injustices and inhumanity thrown up by processes of decolonization and the struggle with past legacies and present corruptions Yet the human rights aspect of postcolonial literary studies has been somewhat marginalized by scholars preoccupied with more fashionable questions of theory The present collection seeks to redress this neglect whereby the definition of human rights adopted is intentionally broad The volume reflects the human rights situation in many countries from Mauritius to New Zealand from the Cameroon to Canada It includes a focus on the Malawian writer Jack Mapanje The contributors concerns embrace topics as varied as denotified tribes in India female genital mutilation in Africa native residential schools in Canada political violence in Northern Ireland the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the discourse of the Treaty of Waitangi The editors hope that the very variety of responses to the invitation to reflect on questions of Literature and Human Rights will both stimulate further discussion and prompt action Contributors are Edward O Ako Hilarious N Ambe Ken Arvidson Jogamaya Bayer Maggie Ann Bowers Chandra Chatterjee Lindsey Collen G N Devy James Gibbs J U Jacobs Karen King Aribisala Sindiwe Magona Lee Maracle Stuart Marlow Don Mattera Wumi Raji Lesego Rampolokeng Dieter Riemenschneider Ahmed Saleh Jamie S Scott Mark Shackleton Johannes A Smit Peter O Stummer Robert Sullivan Rajiva Wijesinha Chantal Zabus

Diasporic Histories Andrea

Riemenschnitter, Deborah L. Madsen, 2009-08-01 Chinese migrant communities have reinvented their histories in many contexts but the process of globalization has accelerated and diversified this phenomenon Their fluid identities innovative modernities and generative talents in overcoming prejudice and multiple dislocations offer powerful examples of creative resistance to placebound traditions and nationalist histories As the velocity of exchange in global media and commerce steadily increases emergent and dynamic diasporas are increasingly influential in transnational discourses This volume engages cultural representations of the subjectivities and loyalties of Chinese migrant communities including analyses of aesthetic texts as well as theoretical approaches in cultural studies The book situates diasporic agency as an historical phenomenon with far reaching political and social implications for both home and host societies and as a major site of contemporary cultural developments By assembling a variety of regional temporal and disciplinary perspectives it interrogates current notions of the diasporic subject raising questions about respective ideological roots and cultural repositories as well as extensions and transgressions of new aesthetic vocabularies Contributors include Roland Altenburger Pheng Cheah Prasenjit Duara Kathrin Ensinger Ping kwan Leung Helen F Siu Tamara S Wagner Mary Shuk han Wong Sau ling C Wong and Nicolas Zufferey

Asian Diaspora Poetry in North America Benzi Zhang, 2007-12-12 Presenting a new way of reading that helps us discern some previously unnoticed or unnoticeable features of Asian diaspora poetry this volume highlights how poetry plays a significant role in mediating and defining cross cultural and transnational positions Asian diaspora poetry in North America is a rich body of poetic works that not only provide valuable material for us to understand the lives and experiences of Asian diasporas but also present us with an opportunity to examine some of the most important issues in current literary and cultural studies As a mode of writing across cultural and national borders these poetic works challenge us to reconsider the assumptions and meanings of identity nation home and place in a broad cross cultural context In recent postcolonial studies diaspora has been conceived not only as a process of migration in which people crossed and traversed the borders of different countries but also as a double relationship between different cultural origins With all its complexity and ambiguity associated with the experience of multi cultural mediation diaspora as both a process and a relationship suggests an act of constant repositioning in confluent streams that accommodate to multiple cultural traditions By examining how Asian diaspora poets maintain and represent their cultural differences in North America Zhang is able to seek new perspectives for understanding and analyzing the intrinsic values of Asian cultures that survive and develop persistently in North American societies

Postcolonial Poetry in English Rajeev S. Patke, 2006-06-15 This book offers an introductory survey of contemporary poetry in English from all the regions that have developed into modern nations from the former British Empire It is ideally suited for readers interested in world writing in English contemporary literature postcolonial writing cultural studies and postmodern culture

Transgressive Transcripts Bennett Yu-Hsiang Fu, 2012 Transgressive Transcripts examines the construction of women s subjectivity and the textual production of Canadian female voices orchestrated in history culture ethnicity and sexuality The book stressing the dissemination and re inscription of femaleness and femininity in Chinese Canadian history employs critical models that defy the sexual textual imaginary of the Canadian literary scene Four fields of study are conjoined feminist theories of the body gender and sexuality studies women s writing and Asian North American studies Analysing four writers SKY Lee Larissa Lai Lydia Kwa and Evelyn Lau the book anchors its thematic and theoretical concern with female sexuality in the context of Chinese Canadian writing Feminist narratives and gender politics in contemporary Asian North American literature are highlighted via the trope of transgression

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Asian American Literature Guiyou Huang,2008-12-30 Asian American literature dates back to the close of the 19th century and during the years following World War II it significantly expanded in volume and diversity Monumental in scope this encyclopedia surveys Asian American literature from its origins through 2007 Included are more than 270 alphabetically arranged entries on writers major works significant historical events and important terms and concepts Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical social cultural and legal contexts surrounding Asian American literature and central to the Asian American experience Each entry is written by an expert contributor and cites works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography of essential print and electronic resources While literature students will value this encyclopedia as a guide to writings by Asian Americans the encyclopedia also supports the social studies curriculum by helping students use literature to learn about Asian American history and culture as it pertains to writers from a host of Asian ethnic and cultural backgrounds including Afghans Chinese Japanese Koreans Filipinos Iranians Indians Vietnamese Hawaiians and other Asian Pacific Islanders The encyclopedia supports the literature curriculum by helping students learn more about Asian American literature In addition it supports the social studies curriculum by helping students learn about the Asian American historical and cultural experience

Eastern Encounters: Canadian Women's Writing about the East, 1867-1929 Shoshannah Ganz □,2017-04-17 Eastern Encounters releases early Canadian women writers from a simple focus on autobiography and racial politics and interrogates their specific and sophisticated Asian influences With a compelling reconstruction of historical context Ganz has created perhaps the first book in a much needed series that will revisit Canadian nationalism through the important cultural exchanges she examines Though shaped with an Asian readership in mind Eastern Encounters is an important work for all who wish to challenge the notion that Judeo Christian traditions almost exclusively shaped early Canadian discourse
