Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements. The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history. All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography. Heads of States and Governments Since 1945 Harris M. Lentz, 2014-02-04 More than half the nations that exist today have gained their independence since 1945. During this period over 2 300 individuals have ruled the various nations of the world. This encyclopedia offers insight into the history of individual nations through the lives of their leaders. Outstanding Academic Book War and Nationalism in China: 1925-1945 Hans van de Ven, 2003-09-02 In 1937 the Nationalists under Chiang Kaishek were leading the Chinese war effort against Japan and were lauded in the West for their efforts to transform China into an independent and modern nation yet this image was quickly tarnished. The Nationalists were soon denounced as militarily incompetent, corrupt, and antidemocratic and Chiang Kaishek the same. In this book van de Ven investigates the myths and truths of Nationalist resistance including issues such as the role of the US in East Asia during the Second World War, the achievements of Chiang Kaishek as Nationalist leader, the respective contributions of the Nationalists and the Communists to the defeat of Japan, the consequences of the Europe First strategy for Asia War, and Nationalism in China. This book offers a major new interpretation of the Chinese Nationalists placing their war of resistance against Japan in the context of their prolonged efforts to establish control over their own country and providing a critical reassessment of Allied Warfare in the region. This groundbreaking volume will interest students and researchers of Chinese History and Warfare. In the Mao Zedong era Wei Li Zhang, 2025-09-16 The book In the Mao Zedong era is a memoir about the lives of the Chinese people for better or worse before and after the liberation in China, focusing on the period from 1949 to 1976. We follow the author's own life looking back at the historical events of that period. She hopes that through this book more people around the world will understand the true historical story of China during the Mao Zedong's time. Generalissimo Jonathan Fenby, 2003 Following his acclaimed studies of the state of modern France and how Hong Kong has changed since the 1997 handover, Jonathan Fenby now turns his attention to one of the most interesting yet under-reported figures of twentieth century history. Chiang Kai-shek was the man who lost China to the Communists. As leader of the nationalist movement, the Kuomintang, Chiang established himself as head of the government in Nanking in 1928 Yet although he laid claim to power throughout the 1930s and was the only Chinese figure of sufficient stature to attend a conference with Churchill and Roosevelt during the Second World War his desire for unity was always thwarted by threats on two fronts Between them the Japanese and the Communists succeeded in undermining Chiang's power plays and after Hiroshima it was Mao Zedong who ended up victorious Brilliantly re-creating pre-Communist China in all its colour, danger and complexity Jonathan Fenby's magisterial survey of this brave but unfulfilled life is destined to become the definitive account in the English language
