Mapping Postmodernism:

Mapping Postmodernism Robert C. Greer, 2003-08-11 Helping you navigate the complex debate among Christians over postmodernism Robert C Greer maps four different paths marked out by Francis Schaeffer Karl Barth John Hick and George Lindbeck Ultimately he points to the true Subject who makes knowledge possible through the language of revelation and relationship with God

A Postmodern Reader Joseph P. Natoli, Linda Hutcheon, 1993-01-01 These readings are organized into four sections The first explores the wellsprings of the debates in the relationship between the postmodern and the enterprise it both continues and contravenes modernism Here philosophers social and political commentators as well as cultural and literary analysts present controversial background essays on the complex history of postmodernism The readings in the second section debate the possibility or desirability of trying to define the postmodern given its cultural agenda of decentering challenging even undermining the guiding master narratives of Western culture The readings in the third section explore postmodernism's complicated complicity with these very narratives while the fourth section moves from theory to practice in order to investigate in a variety of fields the common denominators of the postmodern condition in action

Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity Peta Mitchell, 2013-01-11 The last fifty years have witnessed the growing pervasiveness of the figure of the map in critical theoretical and fictional discourse References to mapping and cartography are endemic in poststructuralist theory and similarly geographically and culturally diverse authors of twentieth century fiction seem fixated upon mapping While the map metaphor has been employed for centuries to highlight issues of textual representation and epistemology the map metaphor itself has undergone a transformation in the postmodern era This metamorphosis draws together poststructuralist conceptualizations of epistemology textuality cartography and metaphor and signals a shift away from modernist preoccupations with temporality and objectivity to a postmodern pragmatics of spatiality and subjectivity Cartographic Strategies of Postmodernity charts this metamorphosis of cartographic metaphor and argues that the ongoing reworking of the map metaphor renders it a formative and performative metaphor of postmodernity

The Routledge Handbook of Mapping and Cartography Alexander J. Gladstone,Andrew Hoberek,Daniel Worden,2016-07-01 Within the past ten years the field of contemporary American literary studies has changed significantly Following the turn of the twenty first century and mounting doubts about the continued explanatory power of the category of postmodernism new organizations have emerged book series have been launched journals have been created and new methodologies periodizations and thematics have redefined the field Postmodern Postwar and After aims to be a field defining book a sourcebook for the new and emerging critical terrain that explores the postmodern postwar period and what comes after The first section of essays returns to the category of the post modern and argues for the usefulness of key concepts and themes from postmodernism to the study of contemporary literature or reevaluates postmodernism in light of recent developments in the field and historical and economic changes in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries These essays take the contemporary abandonments of postmodernism as an occasion to assess the current states of postmodernity After that the essays move to address the critical shift away from postmodernism as a description of the present and toward a new sense of postmodernism as just one category among many that scholars can use to describe the recent past The final section looks forward and explores the question of what comes after the postwar postmodern Taken together these essays from leading and emerging scholars on the state of twenty first century literary studies provide a number of frameworks for approaching contemporary literature as influenced by yet distinct from postmodernism The result is an indispensable guide that seeks to represent and understand the major overhauling of postwar American literary studies that is currently underway The Politics of Mapping Bernard

Debarbieux,Irene Hirt,2022-05-20 Maps and mapping are fundamentally political Whether they are authoritarian hegemonic participatory or critical they are most often guided by the desire to have control over space and always involve power relations This book takes stock of the knowledge acquired and the debates conducted in the field of critical cartography over some thirty years The Politics of Mapping includes analyses of recent semiological social and technological innovations in the production and use of maps and more generally geographical information The chapters are the work of specialists in the field in the form of a thematic analysis a theoretical essay or a reflection on a professional scientific or militant practice From mapping issues for modern states to the digital and big data era from maps produced by Indigenous peoples or migrant advocacy organizations in Europe the perspectives are both historical and contemporary The Map Reader Martin Dodge,Rob Kitchin,Chris Perkins,2011-05-09 WINNER OF THE CANTEMIR PRIZE 2012 awarded by the Berendel Foundation

Mapping in Architectural Discourse Marc Schoonderbeek,2021-11-29 This book explores the notion of mapping in architectural discourse First locating positioning and theorizing mapping it then makes explicit the relationship between research and design in architecture through cartography and spatial analysis It proposes three distinct modalities tool operation and concept showing how these methods lead to discursive aspects of architectural work and highlighting mapping as an instrument in developing architectural form It emphasizes the importance of place and time as fundamental terms with which to understand the role of mapping An investigation into architectural discourse this book will appeal to academics and researchers within the discipline with a particular interest in theory history and cartography Indigenous Knowledge and the Environment in Africa and North America David M. Gordon, Shepard Krech III, 2012-03-01 Indigenous knowledge has become a catchphrase in global struggles for environmental justice Yet indigenous knowledges are often viewed incorrectly as pure and primordial cultural artifacts This collection draws from African and North American cases to argue that the forms of knowledge identified as indigenous resulted from strategies to control environmental resources during and after colonial encounters At times indigenous knowledges represented a middle ground of intellectual exchanges between colonizers and colonized elsewhere indigenous knowledges were defined through conflict and struggle The authors demonstrate how people claimed that their hybrid forms of knowledge were communal religious and traditional as opposed to individualist secular and scientific which they associated with European colonialism Indigenous Knowledge and the Environment offers comparative and transnational insights that disturb romantic views of unchanging indigenous knowledges in harmony with the environment The result is a book that informs and complicates how indigenous knowledges can and should relate to environmental policy making Contributors David Bernstein Derick Fay Andrew H Fisher Karen Flint David M Gordon Paul Kelton Shepard Krech III Joshua Reid Parker Shipton Lance van Sittert Jacob Tropp James L A Webb Jr Marsha Weisiger Mapping Early Modern Japan Marcia Yonemoto, 2003-04-21 Annotation This is a book about geographical imagination through the prism of maps travel accounts fiction and other cultural works that helped fashion understandings of space and place in early modern Japan Contemporary Cultural Theory Andrew Milner, Jeff Browitt, 2013-08-21 First Published in 2002 This lucid and concise overview brings a much needed sense and history and theoretical scale to the growth of cultural studies The authors identify six major paradigms in cultural theory utilitarianism cultural materialism critical theory and postmodernism They outline social and discursive contexts within each of these has developed and provide the essential grounding to understand current debates in the field This third edition has been extensively revised to include new material on the new historicism queer theory black and Latino cultural studies cultural policy and posthumanism and on the work of thinkers such as Zizek Bourdieu Deleuze and Guattari Translation as Growth Udaya Narayana Singh, 2010

The Universe Next Door James W. Sire, 2020-08-04 For more than forty years The Universe Next Door has set the standard for an introduction to worldviews This sixth edition uses James Sire's widely influential model of eight basic worldview questions to examine prominent worldviews that have shaped the Western world critiquing each worldview within its own frame of reference and in comparison to others Classics in Cartography Martin Dodge, 2011-06-15 Classics in Cartography provides an intellectually driven reinterpretation of a selection of ten touchstone articles in the development of mapping scholarship over the last four decades The classics are drawn exclusively from the international peer review journal Cartographica and are reprinted in full here They are accompanied by newly commissioned reflective essays by the original article authors and other eminent scholars to provide fresh interpretation of the meaning of the ideas presented and their wider lasting impact on cartographic research The book provides an equal balance of influential articles from the past and current commentaries which highlight their impact and current context Read in combination the original classic articles and these new reflective essays demonstrate how cartography works as a powerful representational form and explores how various different aspects of mapping practice have been conceptualized by an influential set of academic researchers Collates classic articles from four decades of the journal Cartographica Brings key articles up to date with contemporary interpretative essays by the leading scholars in mapping research Themes covered are the epistemological of mapping practice the ontological underpinnings of cartographic representation and the contested societal implications of maps Evaluates the progression of the field of cartographic research and demonstrates how new theoretical ideas originate develop and circulate Provides a signpost for students and new researchers on the key articles in cartography to read and reflect upon

A History of Spaces John Pickles, 2012-11-12 This book provides an essential insight into the practices and ideas of maps and map making It draws on a wide range of social theorists and theorists of maps and cartography to show how maps and map making have shaped the spaces in which we live Going beyond the focus of traditional cartography the book draws on examples of the use of maps from the sixteenth century to the present including their role in projects of the national and colonial state emergent capitalism and the planetary consciousness of the natural sciences It also considers the use of maps for military purposes maps that have coded modern conceptions of health disease and social character and maps of the transparent human body and the transparent earth
