Maps and Models for Ministry David Whitelaw, 1996 ... Official Catalogue ... Moses Purnell Handy, 1893 A Map of the New Country Sara Maitland, 2014-10-03 Most feminists have turned away from the Christian churches regarding both Catholicism and the protestant denominations as bastions of sexism and patriarchal oppression However Christian feminists committed to improving the position of Christian women and to the spiritual renewal of their respective churches are drawing inspiration for their struggles from the contemporary Women s Movement In this study Sara Maitland looks at what has been happening to Christian women in general and Christian feminists in particular over the last fifteen to twenty years She sets their experiences in the framework of the history of the churches and reviews it in the light of events such as the Second Vatican Council the ordination of Baptist and Episcopal women ministers in America and Britain and the debate about the ordination of women in the Anglican communion She argues that the insights gained by Christian feminists put them in a unique position to prophesy to their respective churches leading them back to the Gospel imperatives of love justice and freedom and that an understanding and acceptance of this role of women is crucial to the well being of the whole Church As well as studying the history theology and institutional structures of the denominational churches the book uses a wealth of interview material from both sides of the Atlantic to describe the experiences of women from many different backgrounds including nuns women priests and lay workers Sara Maitland concludes that Christianity can and must pass beyond the long centuries of oppression and division into a new country a country in which women and men are equally made in the image of God First published in 1983 Church Planting Road Map James R. Nikkel, 2004 The Ministry of the Shepherd and the Church in Africa , 2017-01-25 With over two million church leaders working in the more than ten million parishes congregations seminaries and houses of religious formation around the world it is important that all the people of God of every church have selfless church leaders who reflect the mind of Christ But how can church leaders learn to be true shepherds like Jesus whose selfless sacrifice of his life for his people set the standard for the pastoral ministry The Ministry of the Shepherd and the Church in Africa draws on a wide range of Old and New Testament texts to develop the biblical theology of the shepherd Ministry which encourages right shepherding and evangelization in the world of self serving leadership styles Focusing especially on the example of pastoral ministry in Africa author and priest Cletus Chukwudi Imo explores some of the underlying attitudes of the pastor and the laity and challenges church leaders to adopt a role as shepherds and servants not as self serving masters so that they can lead guide and teach their congregations as Christ would Because it can be easy for church leaders to get wrapped up in the sociocultural political and economic concerns of their parishes it is important for these church leaders to shed an undue focus on these concerns instead of shepherd their flocks By modeling their lives and leadership on the ideals of Jesus church leaders including priests religious lecturers seminarians and even lay Christian parents alike can become true servants and shepherds honoring the example of Jesus the Good Shepherd A Map of the New Country Sara Maitland, 2014-10-03 Most feminists have turned away from the Christian churches regarding both Catholicism and the protestant denominations as bastions of sexism and patriarchal oppression. However, Christian feminists committed to improving the position of Christian women and to the spiritual renewal of their respective churches are drawing inspiration for their struggles from the contemporary Women's Movement. In this study, Sara Maitland looks at what has been happening to Christian women in general and Christian feminists in particular over the last fifteen to twenty years. She sets their experiences in the framework of the history of the churches and reviews it in the light of events such as the Second Vatican Council, the ordination of Baptist and Episcopal women ministers in America and Britain, and the debate about the ordination of women in the Anglican communion. She argues that the insights gained by Christian feminists put them in a unique position to prophesy to their respective churches, leading them back to the Gospel imperatives of love, justice, and freedom, and that an understanding and acceptance of this role of women is crucial to the well-being of the whole Church. As well as studying the history, theology, and institutional structures of the denominational churches, the book uses a wealth of interview material from both sides of the Atlantic to describe the experiences of women from many different backgrounds, including nuns, women priests, and lay workers. Sara Maitland concludes that Christianity can and must pass beyond the long centuries of oppression and division into a new country, a country in which women and men are equally made in the image of God. First published in 1983.

Congregational Connections Carroll Anne Sheppard,Nancy Burton Dilliplane,2011-09-15 Congregational Connections challenges both clergy and lay leaders to become deeply sensitized to the demographic reality of six separate generational cohorts being alive at once This is the first time in the worlds history that such a thing has happened to humans and none of us has the reality clear in our minds yet It takes work to analyze consciously what we are seeing when multiple generations are present We discover that we are quite happy when we see the expected three Elders Parents raising kids and the children themselves and we often fail to ask Who isnt here Demographers and marketers have created names for these six cohorts a cohort is a group of people born within a 20 or 25 year span who have some distinctive characteristics In America today we have Builders approximately ages 110 87 Silents 86 68 Boomers 67 51 48 GenXers 51 48 27 Millennials 27 11 and GenZ 10 and under The first three Builders Silents and Boomers are referred to in Congregational Connections as Olders and the second three GenX Millennials and GenZ are referred to as Youngers A great shift in worldview and preferred technologies separates Olders and Youngers Today five of these cohorts the youngest Builders Silents Boomers GenX and the oldest Millennials are playing adult roles in a world that recently seemed to be populated by Elders and Parents raising Children It is making everyone grumpy There does not seem to be psychological room for all these players The March 2011 cover of Philadelphia Magazine pictured a generic texting device with the following text Dear Baby Boomers Just die already Well take Philly from here Thanks XOXO Generation X In congregation after congregation Olders are wondering why the Youngers dont seem to be attending worship regularly Yet when they do come the Olders wish they would make their children stop texting and the parents would stop checking their cell phones Youngers are wondering why Olders want to have all these time wasting repetitive meetings and wont use e technologies to avoid them And why arent they being respected Congregational Connections offers a discussion of who these cohorts are and why they act the way they do Its nine chapters cover How We Got Here Six Different Cohort Experiences The Generational Divide Realities for Congregational Life Worship Christian Formation Programs and Space Community is Congregation and The Way Forward Hope The books aim is not only to have readers become aware of the six cohorts and their different attitudes and needs but also to offer insights through Congregational Moments case studies that let readers see how these realities play out in church life and suggest questions for discussion Why is it happening now In her book The Great Emergence Phyllis Tickle offers us a thesis that we are in the middle of the next Reformation These happen every five hundred years and take about 150 years to roll their paradigm shift of technology and worldview through society The last Reformation was fueled by printing technology that promoted widespread literacy and a worldview shift that supported increasing political democracy and social leveling The one that we are living through now is about electronic technology radio phone television computers internet and who knows and an even flatter social environment Those changes by themselves seem sufficient to make the Second Reformation happen Yet added to their pressures is the arrival of six generational cohorts on the worlds playing field Each cohort has its own identity but Olders and Youngers break into two different sides of the game Whats more by the time the Second Reformation finishes rolling through medical advances may add several decades to the average lifespan Perhaps eight nine or even more generational cohorts will be alive together at its end Right now congre
