Dodwell Arthur Percival Newton, Ernest Alfred Benians, 1929      A Comprehensive History of Medieval India Salma Ahmed Farooqui, 2011 Presents a consolidated timeline of medieval India by taking into account the period that marked the end of ancient India and focusing on the importance of the transitory centuries when Delhi had begun to surface as the new power center triggering prominent trends in thought and institutions This book analyzes the nature of social forces complexity of causation and the interdependence of change and continuity in the light of the crucial transition from ancient to early medieval India with the emergence of the Delhi Sultanate and the Vijayanagar Bahmani kingdoms Proceeding to detail the most effervescent period in Indian history the era of the great Mughals the text provides an insight into the ideological philosophical basis of the times focusing on the Sufi and Bhakti movements and culminates with the rise of the Marathas the advent of European companies and the eventual establishment of the British in Bengal keeping in mind that the history of medieval India has not moved in a linear fashion and that much of the period saw phases of expansion and realignment of political attributes this book contributes to a deeper understanding of the much misread period of Indian history with a view that takes into account the resultant interface between the political social economic religious and cultural elements and devotes to this crucial period the attention it deserves      On the Eighteenth Century as a Category of Asian History Leonard Blussé, Femme S Gaastra, 2016-12-05 The starting point of this volume is the scathing attack far reaching in its consequences launched in 1942 by J C van Leur on the views then current on the character and significance of the 18th century as a category in Asian history His denial of European pre eminence in Asian waters represented a direct attack on colonial historiography The essays here derive from an international conference held 50 years later to assess the impact of van Leur s work In part historiographic in part drawing on new research they aim to delimit the boundaries of European Asian interaction and to provide case studies of what this period actually meant for the history of South and East Asia      Urban Histories of Rajasthan Elizabeth M. Thelen, 2022-06-20 An exploration of religious conflicts in premodern urban India Diverse peoples intermingled in the streets and markets of premodern Indian cities This book considers how these diverse residents lived together and negotiated their differences Which differences mattered when and to whom How did state actions and policies affect urban society and the lives of various communities How and why did conflict occur in urban spaces Through these questions this book explores the histories of urban communities in the three cities of Ajmer Nagaur and Pushkar in Rajasthan between the sixteenth and eighteenth centuries The focus of this study is on everyday life contextualizing religious practices and conflicts by considering patterns of patronage and broader conflict patterns within society The book examines various archival documents from family and institutional records to state registers and uses these documents to demonstrate the complex and sometimes contradictory ways religion intersected with politics economics and society The author shows how many patronage patterns and processes persisted in altered forms and how the
