Marc Chagall, 2000 Marc Chagall Marc Chagall, 2000 Marc Chagall, 1887-1985 Marc Chagall, Sylvie Forestier, Standard Bank Centre Art Gallery, South African National Gallery, 2000 Ausstellungskat Marc Chagall, South African National Gallery, 2000 Corporate Art Collections Mr James Salzmann, Ms Charlotte Appleyard, 2012-11-01 This new volume in the series of Handbooks in International Art Business published in association with Sotheby's Institute of Art offers a timely guide to the history nature and importance of corporate collecting and the different reasons for starting and maintaining corporate collections including investment cultural cachet and asset diversification Based on interviews with the curators consultants and investors who run such collections and more extended case studies of important collections the book concludes with an examination of when corporate collecting becomes a liability and the market impact of deaccessioning looking ahead to the future of corporate collecting De arte, 1999 A Social History of Christian Origins Simon J. Joseph, 2022-12-30 A Social History of Christian Origins explores how the theme of the Jewish rejection of Jesus embedded in Paul's letters and the New Testament Gospels represents the ethnic social cultural and theological conflicts that facilitated the construction of Christian identity Readers of this book will gain a thorough understanding of how a central theme of early Christianity the Jewish rejection of Jesus facilitated the emergence of Christian anti Judaism as well as the complex and multi faceted representations of Jesus in the Gospels of the New Testament This study systematically analyzes the theme of social rejection in the Jesus tradition by surveying its historical and chronological development Employing the social psychological study of social rejection social identity theory and social memory theory Joseph sheds new light on the inter relationships between myth history and memory in the study of Christian origins and the contemporary re construction of the historical Jesus A Social History of Christian Origins is primarily intended for academic specialists and students in ancient history biblical studies New Testament studies Religious Studies Classics as well as the general reader interested in the beginnings of Christianity Marc Chagall Victoria Charles, 2011-07-01 Marc Chagall was born into a strict Jewish family for whom the ban on representations of the human figure had the weight of dogma A failure in the entrance examination for the Stieglitz School did not stop Chagall from later joining that famous school founded by the Imperial Society for the Encouragement of the Arts and directed by Nicholas Roerich Chagall moved to Paris in 1910 The city was his second Vitebsk At first isolated in the little room on the Impasse du Maine at La Ruche Chagall soon found numerous compatriots also attracted by the prestige of Paris Lipchitz Zadkine Archipenko and Soutine all of whom were to maintain the smell of his native land From his very arrival Chagall wanted to discover everything And to his dazzled eyes painting did indeed reveal itself Even the most attentive and partial observer is at times unable to distinguish the Parisian Chagall from the Vitebskian The artist was not full of contradictions nor was he a split personality but he always remained different he looked around and within himself and at the surrounding world and he used his present thoughts and recollections He had an

utterly poetical mode of thought that enabled him to pursue such a complex course Chagall was endowed with a sort of stylistic immunity he enriched himself without destroying anything of his own inner structure Admiring the works of others he studied them ingenuously ridding himself of his youthful awkwardness yet never losing his authenticity for a moment At times Chagall seemed to look at the world through magic crystal overloaded with artistic experimentation of the Ecole de Paris In such cases he would embark on a subtle and serious play with the various discoveries of the turn of the century and turned his prophetic gaze like that of a biblical youth to look at himself ironically and thoughtfully in the mirror Naturally it totally and uneclectically reflected the painterly discoveries of C zanne the delicate inspiration of Modigliani and the complex surface rhythms recalling the experiments of the early Cubists See Portrait at the Easel 1914 Despite the analyses which nowadays illuminate the painter s Judaeo Russian sources inherited or borrowed but always sublime and his formal relationships there is always some share of mystery in Chagall s art The mystery perhaps lies in the very nature of his art in which he uses his experiences and memories Painting truly is life and perhaps life is painting Marc Chagall on Art and Culture Marc Chagall, Abram Markovich ?fros, Benjamin Harshav, Barbara Harshav, 2003 Marc Chagall 1887 1985 traversed a long route from a boy in the Jewish Pale of Settlement to a commissar of art in revolutionary Russia to the position of a world famous French artist This book presents for the first time a comprehensive collection of Chagall s public statements on art and culture The documents and interviews shed light on his rich versatile and enigmatic art from within his own mental world The book raises the problems of a multi cultural artist with several intersecting identities and the tensions between modernist form and cultural representation in twentieth century art It reveals the travails and achievements of his life as a Jew in the twentieth century and his perennial concerns with Jewish identity and destiny Yiddish literature and the state of Israel This collection includes annotations and introductions of the Chagall texts by the renowned scholar Benjamin Harshav that elucidate the texts and convey the changing cultural contexts of Chagall s life Also featured is the translation by Benjamin and Barbara Harshav of the first book about Chagall s work the 1918 Russian The Art of Marc Chagall Jewish Affairs , 2001 The Essence of Humanity Moritz Bilagher, 2024-12-21 Even in a time when voices from both the natural and social sciences seem to have made some of the main tenets from religion seem implausible religions remain a strong force across the world Sometimes and even often not always a force for good Is it possible that regarding religion the voices that argued that religious belief is an illusion or even a delusion were wrong all along Is it possible that there exists a rational basis for religious thought that makes it possible to assess specific tenets that originate in religions That is the basic idea of this text In this important new book the author develops an original new theory on the origin of religious thought from the perspective of psychoanalysis thereby seeking to explain its very nature and to re read sacred texts in light of these insights with a view to ultimately unveil their esoteric i e hidden meanings Marc Chagall and His Times Benjamin Harshav, Marc Chagall, Barbara Harshav, 2004 Renowned Israeli American scholar Harshav presents the first comprehensive investigation of

Marc Chagall's life and consciousness after the classic 1961 biography by Chagall's son-in-law Franz Meyer Dictionary of Artists' Models Jill Berk Jimenez, 2013-10-15 The first reference work devoted to their lives and roles this book provides information on some 200 artists models from the Renaissance to the present day Most entries are illustrated and consist of a brief biography selected works in which the model appears with location a list of further reading This will prove an invaluable reference work for art historians librarians museum and gallery curators as well as students and researchers Alfred H. Barr, Jr. and the Intellectual Origins of the Museum of Modern Art Sybil Kantor, 2003-08-29 An intellectual biography of Alfred H Barr Jr founding director of the Museum of Modern Art Growing up with the twentieth century Alfred Barr 1902 1981 founding director of the Museum of Modern Art harnessed the cataclysm that was modernism In this book part intellectual biography part institutional history Sybil Gordon Kantor tells the story of the rise of modern art in America and of the man responsible for its triumph Following the trajectory of Barr's career from the 1920s through the 1940s Kantor penetrates the myths both positive and negative that surround Barr and his achievements Barr fervently believed in an aesthetic based on the intrinsic traits of a work of art and the materials and techniques involved in its creation Kantor shows how this formalist approach was expressed in the organizational structure of the multidepartmental museum itself whose collections exhibitions and publications all expressed Barr's vision At the same time she shows how Barr's ability to reconcile classical objectivity and mythic irrationality allowed him to perceive modernism as an open ended phenomenon that expanded beyond purist abstract modernism to include surrealist nationalist realist and expressionist art Drawing on interviews with Barr's contemporaries as well as on Barr's extensive correspondence Kantor also paints vivid portraits of among others Jere Abbott Katherine Dreier Henry Russell Hitchcock Philip Johnson Lincoln Kirstein Agnes Mongan J B Neumann and Paul Sachs A General History of Horology Anthony Turner, James Nye, Jonathan Betts, 2022-07-28 A General History of Horology describes instruments used for the finding and measurement of time from Antiquity to the 21st century In geographical scope it ranges from East Asia to the Americas The instruments described are set in their technical and social contexts and there is also discussion of the literature the historiography and the collecting of the subject The book features the use of case studies to represent larger topics that cannot be completely covered in a single book The international body of authors have endeavoured to offer a fully world wide survey accessible to students historians collectors and the general reader based on a firm understanding of the technical basis of the subject At the same time as the work offers a synthesis of current knowledge of the subject it also incorporates the results of some fundamental new and original research The Encyclopaedia of Brands & Branding in South Africa , 2003 Marc Chagall - Vitebsk -Paris -New York Mikhail Guerman, Sylvie Forestier, Donald Wigal, 2019-12-09 Chagall loved blue The blue of the sky which ceaselessly combats the clouds which pass which pass Baudelaire Marc Chagall's journey began in his native Russia and concluded with his Parisian triumph the extraordinary ceiling of the Paris Opera House commissioned by Andr Malraux On the way he embraced the spirit of the twentieth century without ever disowning his Jewish Russian origins This work follows the path of the artist through his early works his discovery of the United States and his passion for France Marc Chagall unaffiliated with any movement but influenced by his encounters with Bakst Matisse and Picasso remains undeniably the painter of poetry
