March To Calumny:

March to Calumny, 1979      Torture and Democracy Darius Rejali, 2009-06-08 This is the most comprehensive and most comprehensively chilling study of modern torture yet written Darius Rejali one of the world's leading experts on torture takes the reader from the late nineteenth century to the aftermath of Abu Ghraib from slavery and the electric chair to electro-torture in American inner cities and from French and British colonial prison cells and the Spanish American War to the fields of Vietnam the wars of the Middle East and the new democracies of Latin America and Europe As Rejali traces the development and application of one torture technique after another in these settings he reaches startling conclusions As the twentieth century progressed he argues democracies not only tortured but set the international pace for torture Dictatorships may have tortured more and more indiscriminately but the United States Britain and France pioneered and exported techniques that have become the lingua franca of modern torture methods that leave no marks Under the watchful eyes of reporters and human rights activists low level authorities in the world's oldest democracies were the first to learn that to scar a victim was to advertise iniquity and invite scandal Long before the CIA even existed police and soldiers turned instead to clean techniques such as torture by electricity ice water noise drugs and stress positions As democracy and human rights spread after World War II so too did these methods Rejali makes this troubling case in fluid arresting prose and on the basis of unprecedented research conducted in multiple languages and on several continents begun years before most of us had ever heard of Osama bin Laden or Abu Ghraib The author of a major study of Iranian torture Rejali also tackles the controversial question of whether torture really works answering the new apologists for torture point by point A brave and disturbing book this is the benchmark against which all future studies of modern torture will be measured      Dark Persuasion Joel E. Dimsdale, 2021-08-10 A harrowing account of brainwashing's pervasive role in the twentieth and twenty-first centuries This gripping book traces the evolution of brainwashing from its beginnings in torture and religious conversion into the age of neuroscience and social media When Pavlov introduced scientific approaches his research was enthusiastically supported by Lenin and Stalin setting the stage for major breakthroughs in tools for social political and religious control Tracing these developments through many of the past century's major conflagrations Dimsdale narrates how when World War II erupted governments secretly raced to develop drugs for interrogation Brainwashing returned to the spotlight during the Cold War in the hands of the North Koreans and Chinese In response a huge Manhattan Project of the Mind was established to study memory obliteration indoctrination during sleep and hallucinogens Cults used the techniques as well Nobel laureates university academics intelligence operatives criminals and clerics all populate this shattering and dark story one that hasn't yet ended      American Editor in Early Revolutionary China Neil O'Brien, 2004-03 This is a study of Sino American relations and the editorial policy of the China Weekly Review China Monthly Review published in Shanghai by John William Powell during the Chinese Civil War and the Korean War The Review supported US attempts in early 1946 to avert civil war through the creation of a coalition government By 1947 it reflected growing disillusionment with Guomindang policies and increasing sympathy for the demands of impoverished students and faculty for multi party democracy and peace As the Civil War shifted in favour of the Communists in late 1948 Powell and the Review counseled US businessmen to remain in Shanghai and urged the US government to establish working relations with the Communists and later to recognize the new regime Staying in Shanghai to report changes engendered by the Communist victory the Review s staff accomodated themselves to the new orthodoxy and to the regime s coordination of the press During the Korean War the Review opposed the expanding US air war becoming the foremost American purveyor of Chinese and North Korean allegations of American use of bacteriological weapons The Review was also utilized for the political indoctrination of US prisoners of war by the Chinese and North Koreans After closing the Review in July 1953 and returning to the United States Powell his wife Sylvia Campbell and assistant editor Julian Schuman were put on trial for sedition As the government narrowed its focus to the bacteriological warfare issue Powell and his lawyers countered by trying to prove the veracity of the charges seeking witnesses in China and North Korea Adverse publicity led to a mistrial in January 1959 and limitations in both the sedition and treason statutes ended plans to renew prosecution Powell and the Review had insisted that positive diplomatic and economic relations between China and the United States were both possible and desirable The gradual normalization of trade investment and political relations since the 1970s seemed to validate this belief In the post Cold War age when Sino American relations are often strained and tempestuous this book serves as a reminder of the value of making the extra effort to achieve understanding A Homilectical Commentary on the Book of Psalms William Jones (theologian.),1879

Political Indoctrination in the U.S. Army from World War II to the Vietnam War Christopher S.

DeRosa,2006-01-01 A study of the indoctrination of the U S Army from World War II to Vietnam Eyewitness Korea James Goulty,2018-11-30 Today the Korean War of 1950 1953 is overshadowed by later twentieth century conflicts in Vietnam and the Middle East yet at the time it was the focus of international attention It threatened to lead to a third world war and although fought on a limited scale it still involved over a million men under UN command and even more on the Communist side It left the American and British troops who took part with a range of intense recollections that often marked them for the rest of their lives and it is these experiences that James Goulty draws on in this eyewitness history of the conflict He uses official documents letters diaries regimental histories memoirs oral histories and correspondence to show what the war was like for those who took part Their accounts vividly contrast the American and British experience as seen through the eyes of individual servicemen and they throw fresh light on the relations between the UN forces on their different attitudes tactics training and equipment and on the tensions that developed between them Cold War Captives Susan Lisa Carruthers,2009 Susan Carruthers offers a provocative history of early Cold War America in which she recreates a time when World War III seemed imminent She shows how central to American opinion at the time was a fascination with captivity escape Captivity became a way to understand everything      Hollywood Asian Hye Seung Chung,2006-10-15 From silent films to television programs Hollywood has employed actors of various ethnicities to represent Oriental characters from Caucasian stars like Loretta Young made up in yellow face to Korean American pioneer Philip Ahn whose more than 200 screen performances included roles as sadistic Japanese military officers in World War II movies and a wronged Chinese merchant in the TV show Bonanza The first book length study of Korean identities in American cinema and television Hollywood Asian investigates the career of Ahn 1905 1978 a pioneering Asian American screen icon and son of celebrated Korean nationalist An Ch ang ho In this groundbreaking scholarly study Hye Seung Chung examines Ahn s career to suggest new theoretical paradigms for addressing cross ethnic performance and Asian American spectatorship Incorporating original material from a wide range of sources including U S government and Hollywood screen archives Chung s work offers a provocative and original contribution to cinema studies cultural studies and Asian American as well as Korean history

Cold Days in Hell William Clark Latham,2013-02-03 Prisoners suffer in every conflict but American servicemen captured during the Korean War faced a unique ordeal Like prisoners in other wars these men endured harsh conditions and brutal mistreatment at the hands of their captors In Korea however they faced something new a deliberate enemy program of indoctrination and coercion designed to manipulate them for propaganda purposes Most Americans rejected their captors promise of a Marxist paradise yet after the cease fire in 1953 American prisoners came home to face a second wave of attacks Exploiting popular American fears of communist infiltration critics portrayed the returning prisoners as weak willed pawns who had been brainwashed into betraying their country The truth was far more complicated Following the North Korean assault on the Republic of Korea in June of 1950 the invaders captured more than a thousand American soldiers and brutally executed hundreds more American prisoners who survived their initial moments of captivity faced months of neglect starvation and brutal treatment as their captors marched them north toward prison camps in the Yalu River Valley Counterattacks by United Nations forces soon drove the North Koreans back across the 38th Parallel but the unexpected intervention of Communist Chinese forces in November of 1950 led to the capture of several thousand more American prisoners Neither the North Koreans nor their Chinese allies were prepared to house or feed the thousands of prisoners in their custody and half of the Americans captured that winter perished for lack of food shelter and medicine Subsequent communist efforts to indoctrinate and coerce propaganda statements from their prisoners sowed suspicion and doubt among those who survived Relying on memoirs trial transcripts debriefings declassified government reports published analysis and media coverage plus conversations interviews and correspondence with several dozen former prisoners William Clark Latham Jr seeks to correct misperceptions that still linger six decades after the prisoners came home Through careful research and solid historical narrative Cold Days in Hell provides a detailed account of their captivity and offers valuable insights into an ongoing issue the conduct of prisoners in the hands of enemy captors and the rules that should govern their treatment Hollywood Diplomacy Hye Seung Chung, 2020-02-28 Hollywood Diplomacy contends that rather than simply reflect the West's cultural fantasies of an imagined Orient, images of Chinese, Japanese, and Korean ethnicities have long been contested sites where the commercial interests of Hollywood studios and the political mandates of U.S. foreign policy collide, compete against one another, and often become compromised in the process. While tracing both Hollywood's internal foreign relations protocols from the Open Door policy of the silent era to the National Feelings provision of the Production Code and external regulatory interventions by the Chinese government, the U.S. State Department, the Office of War Information, and the Department of Defense, Hye Seung Chung reevaluates such American classics as Shanghai Express and The Great Dictator and applies historical insights to the controversies surrounding contemporary productions including Die Another Day and The Interview. This richly detailed book redefines the concept of creative freedom in the context of commerce shifting focus away from the artistic entitlement to offend foreign audiences toward the opportunity to build new, better relationships with partners around the world through diplomatic representations of race, ethnicity, and nationality. Hollywood and War, The Film Reader J. David Slocum, 2023-04-28 Discussing such classic films as Sergeant York, Air Force, and All Quiet on the Western Front, as well as more modern blockbusters like Apocalypse Now and Saving Private Ryan, this outstanding volume focuses on Hollywood and its production of war films. Topics covered include the early formation of war cinema, the apotheosis of the Hollywood war film, the ascendancy of ambivalence, Hollywood and the war since Vietnam, war as a way of seeing. For any student of film studies or American cultural studies, this is a valuable companion. Reelpolitik II Beverly Merrill Kelley, 2004-02-16 Reelpolitik II moves past typical left-right political distinctions to examine political ideologies cycling through U.S. history during the 50s and 60s. These eight Cold War movies, especially equipped for the moviegoer with a unique vantage point to scrutinize the arms race, the Red Scare, the Korean Conflict, and the Vietnam War, they also helped audiences to observe the way film functions as a purveyor of American mythology, a megaphone to shout political messages, a metaphorical route to the emotions, a flattering mirror, an unflattering microscope, and a magic carpet ride back to the future.

The Korean War Remembered Michael J. Devine, 2023 Michael J. Devine provides a fresh, wide-ranging, and international perspective on the contested memory of the 1950-1953 conflict that left the Korean Peninsula divided along a heavily fortified, demilitarized zone. His work examines theaters of memory, including literature, popular culture, public education efforts, monuments, and museums in the United States, China, and the two Koreas, to explain how contested memories have evolved over decades and how they continue to shape the domestic and foreign policies of the countries still involved in this unresolved struggle for dominance and legitimacy. The Korean War Remembered also engages with the revisionist school of historians who, influenced by America's long nightmare in Vietnam, consider the Korean War an unwise U.S. interference in a civil war that should have been left to the Koreans to decide for themselves. As a former Peace Corps volunteer in Korea, a two-time senior Fulbright lecturer at Korean universities, and former director of the Harry S. Truman Presidential Library,

Devine offers the unique perspective of a scholar with half a century of close ties to Korea and the Korean American community as well as practical experience in the management of historical institutions     Motivating Soldiers Peter Karsten, 1998 First published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company     Speech Closing the Debate on Trade Relations, March 15th, 1889 Sir John Joseph Caldwell Abbott, 1889     Prisoners of War in American Conflicts Harry P. Riconda, 2003 Those interested in the human side of war will find this an interesting and informative read as it discusses details of wars only to the extent necessary to cover prisoners of war Jacket     Lift Every Voice Patricia Sullivan, 2009-07-29 A civil rights Hall of Fame Kirkus that was published to remarkable praise in conjunction with the NAACP's Centennial Celebration Lift Every Voice is a momentous history of the struggle for civil rights told through the stories of men and women who fought inescapable racial barriers in the North as well as the South keeping the promise of democracy alive from the earliest days of the twentieth century to the triumphs of the 1950s and 1960s Historian Patricia Sullivan unearths the little known early decades of the NAACP's activism telling startling stories of personal bravery legal brilliance and political maneuvering by the likes of W E B Du Bois Mary White Ovington Walter White Charles Houston Ella Baker Thurgood Marshall and Roy Wilkins In the critical post war era following a string of legal victories culminating in Brown v Board the NAACP knocked out the legal underpinnings of the segregation system and set the stage for the final assault on Jim Crow A sweeping and dramatic story woven deep into the fabric of American history history that helped shape America's consciousness if not its soul Booklist Lift Every Voice offers a timeless lesson on how people without access to the traditional levers of power can create change under seemingly impossible odds     Americana Germanica , 1900
