Broadcasting and Public Life John Horgan, 2004 News and current affairs have been at the core of RTE's activity ever since its foundation but more particularly since the inauguration of Irish television in 1961 This book focuses on the pressures the programmes and the presenters in this controversial area It is a story that touches on the most significant events in the political history of 20th century Ireland particularly the Northern crisis and explores the responses and the responsibilities of a national public service broadcasting organization in an era of conflict and dramatic social change

Books Ireland, 2005 It's Part of What We Are - Volumes 1 and 2 - Volume 1: Richard Boyle (1566-1643) to John Tyndall (1820-1893); Volume 2: Samuel Haughton (18210-1897) to John Stewart Bell (1928-1990) Charles Mollan, 2007-11-15 Biographies of more than 100 Irish scientists or those with strong Irish connections in the disciplines of Chemistry and Physics including Astronomy Mathematics etc describing them in their Irish and international scientific social educational and political context Written in an attractive informal style for the hypothetical educated layman who does not need to have studied science Well received in Irish and international reviews The Broadcaster, Electrical & Wireless Retailer, 1929 The Wireless World and Radio Review, 1929 Media, Technology and Society Brian

Winston, 2002-09-11 Challenging the popular myth of a present day information revolution Media Technology and Society is essential reading for anyone interested in the social impact of technological change Winston argues that the development of new media forms from the telegraph and the telephone to computers satellite and virtual reality is the product of a constant play off between social necessity and suppression the unwritten law by which new technologies are introduced into society only insofar as their disruptive potential is limited The Wireless World and Radio Review, 1937 Syren and

Shipping Illustrated, 1925 The Musical Times & Singing-class Circular, 1926 Screening Ireland Lance Pettitt, 2000 Analysing historical and contemporary examples this book offers a thematically informed synthesis of influential research on Irish audio visual culture Thunderstruck Erik Larson, 2006-10-24 A true story of love murder and the end of the world's great hush In Thunderstruck Erik Larson tells the interwoven stories of two men Hawley Crippen a very unlikely murderer and Guglielmo Marconi the obsessive creator of a seemingly supernatural means of communication whose lives intersect during one of the greatest criminal chases of all time Set in Edwardian London and on the stormy coasts of

Cornwall Cape Cod and Nova Scotia Thunderstruck evokes the dynamism of those years when great shipping companies competed to build the biggest fastest ocean liners scientific advances dazzled the public with visions of a world transformed and the rich outdid one another with ostentatious displays of wealth Against this background Marconi races against incredible odds and relentless skepticism to perfect his invention the wireless a prime catalyst for the emergence of the world we know today Meanwhile Crippen the kindest of men nearly commits the perfect murder With his unparalleled narrative skills Erik Larson guides us through a relentlessly suspenseful chase over the waters of the North Atlantic Along the way he tells of a sad and tragic love affair that was described on the front pages of newspapers around the world a chief inspector who found himself strangely sympathetic to the killer and his lover and a driven and compelling inventor who transformed the way we communicate
