They appear to be in a state of alert or movement. In the background, there are trees and a light-colored vehicle, possibly a truck or jeep. The overall color palette is dominated by dark blues, greys, and greens, creating a somber and intense mood.

Witchcraft of New England Explained by Modern Spiritualism Allen Putnam, 1880
Religious Horror and the Ecogothic Mary Going, Kathleen Hudson, 2024-06-10
Religious Horror and the Ecogothic explores the intersections of Anglophone Christianity and the Ecogothic, a subgenre that explores the ecocritical in Gothic literature, film, and media. Acknowledging the impact of Christian ideologies upon interpretations of human relationships with the environment, the Ecogothic in turn interrogates spiritual identity and humanity's darker impulses in relation to ecological systems. Through a survey of Ecogothic texts from the eighteenth century to the present day, this book illuminates the ways in which a Christianized understanding of hierarchy, dominion, fear, and sublimity shapes reactions to the environment and conceptions of humanity's place therein. It interrogates the discourses which inform environmental policy as well as definitions of the human in a rapidly changing world.
