Mating Birds A Novel:

Mating Birds Lewis Nkosi, 1987      On the Winds and Waves of Imagination Constance S. Richards, 2020-04-22 First published in 2000 This book takes a transnational feminist approach to the literature of three contemporary women authors Virginia Woolf Alice Walker and South African writer Zoe Wicomb The author draws from post colonial studies and considers how gender collides with race national origin and class in women s oppression      The Mating Lives of Birds James Parry, 2012 Provides an illustrated account of bird courtship from dancing cranes to somersaulting hummingbirds and discusses how the reproductive strategies of birds have evolved over time      Still Beating the Drum Lindy Stiebel, Elizabeth Gunner, 2005 Lewis Nkosi is one of South Africa s foremost writers and critics and one of the few survivors of the exile generation dating from the Drum era Up until now however no full length study has been done on his work This is a gap in South African literary history and criticism that this book is intended to fill Besides his well known earlier works Nkosi is still very much an active writer as the publication in 2002 of his novel Underground People shows with his latest novel due out in 2005 The timing of Still Beating the Drum a book which intends to highlight and evaluate his extensive and varied oeuvre is thus appropriate Given Lewis Nkosi s life trajectory this volume will appeal to readers interested in South African and African literature both in South Africa and abroad      Starck-Adler: Lewis Nkosi: The Black Psychiatrist, 2023-06-02 This rich volume is dedicated to the astounding South African writer and literary critic Lewis Nkosi 1936 2010 In this book Nkosi s celebrated one act play The Black Psychiatrist is published together with its unpublished sequel Flying Home a play on the satirically fictionalized inauguration of Mandela as South African president Critical appraisals tributes and recollections by scholars and friends reflect on the beat of his writing and life An ideal volume for those encountering Lewis Nkosi for the first time as well as for those already devoted to his work      Postcolonial Naturalism Eric D. Smith, 2023-11-16 Postcolonial Naturalism proposes an innovative periodizing schema for historicizing contemporary Anglophone fiction Engaging and revising the materialist paradigm of the Warwick Research Collective s concept of world literature Fredric Jameson s mapping of modernity s cultural periods and Christopher L Hill s positing of a transnational naturalism Eric D Smith theorizes postcolonial naturalism as a structurally determined cultural logic rather than as a literary technique or style Supported by careful theoretically and critically sophisticated analyses of exemplary literary works this important intervention invites us to reconsider the living history of aesthetic naturalism as well as its social and political implications for the practice of world literature in the aftermath of anticolonial resistance      Book History Through Postcolonial Eyes Robert Fraser, 2008-08-18 This surprising study draws together the disparate fields of postcolonial theory and book history in a challenging and illuminating way Fraser illustrates his combined approach with comparative case studies of print script and speech cultures in South Asia and Africa      500 Walks with Writers, Artists and Musicians Katherine Stathers, 2021-03-16 Explore the diverse cultural and historical legacy of the world s greatest writers artists and composers on foot This unique trans continental culture trip around the world presents a series of inspiring walks treks and hikes that vary between easy one hour strolls half day trails and multi day expeditions for people who love a walking holiday and are looking for a more immersive experience The book includes walks in easy to reach countryside areas national parks the wild and the great cities of the world From an urban Street Art Walking Tour of East London to a traverse through the Georgian melting pot city of Tbilisi to a literary themed Millennium Tour of Stieg Larsson s Stockholm Discover the World in 500 Walks with Writers Artists Musicians has all the inspiration and information you need to plan your next walking adventure Fact - Fiction - "faction" Horst Zander,1999 Rethinking the Romance Genre E. Mwangi, 2010-07-02 The profound effects of colonialism and its legacies on African cultures have led postcolonial scholars of recent African literature to characterize contemporary African novels as first and foremost responses to colonial domination by the West In Africa Writes Back to Self Evan Maina Mwangi argues instead that the novels are primarily engaged in conversation with each other particularly over emergent gender issues such as the representation of homosexuality and the disenfranchisement of women by male dominated governments He covers the work of canonical novelists Nadine Gordimer Chinua Achebe Ngugi wa Thiong'o and J M Coetzee as well as popular writers such as Grace Ogot David Maillu Promise Okekwe and Rebeka Njau Mwangi examines the novels self reflexive fictional strategies and their potential to refigure the dynamics of gender and sexuality in Africa and demote the West as the reference point for cultures of the Global South The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi, 2016-10-03 Why did the novel take such a long time to emerge in the colonial world And what cultural work did it come to perform in societies where subjects were not free and modes of social organization diverged from the European cultural centers where the novel gained its form and audience Answering these questions and more Volume 11 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 explores the institutions of cultural production that exerted influence in late colonialism from missionary schools and metropolitan publishers to universities and small presses How these structures provoke and respond to the literary trends and social peculiarities of Africa and the Caribbean impacts not only the writing and reading of novels in those regions but also has a transformative effect on the novel as a global phenomenon Together the volume s 32 contributing experts tell a story about the close relationship between the novel and the project of decolonization and explore the multiple ways in which novels enable readers to imagine communities beyond their own and thus made this form of literature a compelling catalyst for cultural transformation The authors show that even as the novel grows in Africa and the Caribbean as a mark of the elites mastery of European form it becomes the essential instrument for critiquing colonialism and for articulating the new horizons of cultural nationalism Within this historical context the volume examines works by authors such as Chinua Achebe Nadine Gordimer George Lamming Jamaica Kincaid V S Naipaul Zoe Wicomb J M Coetzee and many others
