Matisse and the Subject of Modernism Alastair Wright, 2004 Focusing on the period 1905-1913 this provocative groundbreaking new book refutes the popular view of Matisse as a painter dedicated to the simple pleasures of decorative line sensuous colour Wright discovers a darker more complex side to the artist Matisse on Art, Revised Edition Henri Matisse, 1995-07-24 Ed Brooklyn College and City University of New York Revised edition Includes new texts introduction biography overview The New York Times Guide to the Arts of the 20th Century: 1900-1929, 2002 Reviews news articles interviews and essays capturing 100 years of art architecture literature music dance theater film and television

Matisse's Poets Kathryn Brown, 2017-09-21 Throughout his career Henri Matisse used imagery as a means of engaging critically with poetry and prose by a diverse range of authors Kathryn Brown offers a groundbreaking account of Matisse's position in the literary cross currents of 20th century France and explores ways in which reading influenced the artist's work in a range of media This study argues that the livre d'artiste became the privileged means by which Matisse enfolded literature into his own idiom and demonstrated the centrality of his aesthetic to modernist debates about authorship and creativity By tracing the compositional and interpretive choices that Matisse made as a painter print maker and reader in the field of book production this study offers a new theoretical account of visual art's capacity to function as a form of literary criticism and extends debates about the gendering of 20th century bibliophilia Brown also demonstrates the importance of Matisse's self placement in relation to the French literary canon in the charged political climate of the Second World War and its aftermath Through a combination of archival resources art history and literary criticism this study offers a new interpretation of Matisse's artist's books and will be of interest to art historians literary scholars and researchers in book history and modernism Modernism on Stage Juliet Bellow, 2017-07-05 Modernism on Stage restores Serge Diaghilev's Ballets Russes to its central role in the Parisian art world of the 1910s and 1920s During those years the Ballets Russes stage served as a dynamic forum for the interaction of artistic genres dance music and painting in a mixed media form inspired by Richard Wagner's Gesamtkunstwerk total work of art This interdisciplinary study combines a broad history of Diaghilev's troupe with close readings of four ballets designed by canonical modernist artists Pablo Picasso Sonia Delaunay Henri Matisse and Giorgio de Chirico Experimental both in concept and form these productions redefine our understanding of the interconnected worlds of the visual and performing arts elite culture and mass entertainment in Paris between the two world wars This volume traces the ways in which artists working with the Ballets Russes adapted painterly styles to the temporal three dimensional and corporeal medium of ballet Analyzing interactions among sets costumes choreography and musical accompaniment the book establishes what the Ballets Russes productions looked like and how audiences reacted to them Juliet Bellow brings dance to bear upon modernist art history as more than a source of imagery or ornament she spotlights a complex dialogue among art forms that did not preclude but rather enhanced artists' interrogation of the limits of medium

Cézanne's Bathers: Biography and the Erotics of Paint Aruna D'Souza, 1999 "Rival Sisters, Art and Music at the Birth of Modernism, 1815-1915" James H. Rubin, 2017-07-05

Introducing the concept of music and painting as rival sisters during the nineteenth century this interdisciplinary collection explores the productive exchange from rivalry to inspiration to collaboration between the two media in the age of Romanticism and Modernism The volume traces the relationship between art and music from the opposing claims for superiority of the early nineteenth century to the emergence of the concept of synesthesia around 1900 This collection puts forward a more complex history of the relationship between art and music than has been described in earlier works including an intermixing of models and distinctions between approaches to them Individual essays from art history musicology and literature examine the growing influence of art upon music and vice versa in the works of Berlioz Courbet Manet Fantin Latour Rodin Debussy and the Pre Raphaelites among other artists

Matisse Henri Matisse, Sean Rainbird, Ortrud Westheider, Michael Philipp, Dorothee Böhm, Bucerius Kunst Forum, 2008

Henri Matisse 1869 1954 is considered to be one of the preeminent artists of the early twentieth century By placing its focus on the artist's portraits the show as well as the exhibition catalogue will concentrate on a facet of his oeuvre which has never yet been the theme of an exhibition The concern here will be with the fascinating question as to how Matisse managed to create a likeness of his subject despite the fact that his consistent aim was the generally valid synthesis of the outward appearance of nature and not exactitude true character true portrait

The Making of Modern Art Michael Peppiatt, 2020-05-05

A new collection of key texts from a leading critic of modern art The critic Michael Peppiatt has been described by Art Newspaper as the best art writer of his generation For more than 50 years he has written trenchant and lively dispatches from the center of the international art world In this new volume of key works Peppiatt gives his unique insight into the making collection display and interpretation of modern art Covering the whole spectrum of modern art from pioneers such as Gustav Klimt and Chaim Soutine to collectors and dealers who played a pivotal role in the modern art world to artists such as Francis Bacon Bill Jacklin and Frank Auerbach with whom he had close relationships Peppiatt interweaves personal anecdote with critical judgment Each text is accompanied by a new short introduction written in Peppiatt's signature vivid and jargon free style in which he contextualizes his writings and reflects on significant moments in a lifetime of artistic engagement This volume will provide readers with an exhilarating tour of 20th century art

Rival Sisters, Art and Music at the Birth of Modernism, 1815-1915 Mr James H Rubin, Dr Olivia Mattis, 2014-11-28

Introducing the concept of music and painting as rival sisters during the nineteenth century this interdisciplinary collection explores the productive exchange from rivalry to inspiration to collaboration between the two media in the age of Romanticism and Modernism The volume traces the relationship between art and music from the opposing claims for superiority of the early nineteenth century to the emergence of the concept of synesthesia around 1900

"Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France, 1789-1914" Heather Belnap Jensen, 2017-07-05 Focusing specifically on portraiture as a genre this volume challenges scholarly assumptions that regard interior spaces as uniquely feminine Contributors analyze portraits of men in domestic and studio spaces in France during the long nineteenth century the preponderance of such portraits alone supports the book's premise that the alignment of men with public life is oversimplified and more myth than reality The volume offers analysis of works by a mix of artists from familiar names such as David Delacroix Courbet Manet Rodin and Matisse to less well known image makers including Dominique Doncre Constance Mayer Anders Zorn and Lucien Etienne Melingue The essays cover a range of media from paintings and prints to photographs and sculpture that allows exploration of the relation between masculinity and interiority across the visual culture of the period The home and other interior spaces emerge from these studies as rich and complex locations for both masculine self expression and artistic creativity Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France 1789-1914 provides a much needed rethinking of modern masculinity in this period Modern: Genius, Madness, and One Tumultuous Decade That Changed Art Forever Philip Hook, 2022-04-19 A revelatory fast paced account of the most exciting frenzied and revolutionary decade in art history 1905 to the dawn of World War I in 1914 and the avant garde artists who indelibly changed our visual landscape Modern begins on a specific day March 22 1905 at a specific place the Salon des Indépendants in Paris where works of art we recognize as modern were first exhibited Drawing on his forty five year fine art career author Philip Hook illuminates how this new art came to be and how truly shocking it was With Hook's expert guidance we witness movement upon movement that burst forth in dizzying succession Fauvism Expressionism Primitivism Symbolism Cubism Futurism and Abstract art As Hook barnstorms across Europe to London Germany Moscow Scandinavia and everywhere modern art was being made his vivid accounts breathe new life into the work and times of Picasso Matisse Modigliani Kandinsky Malevich Klimt Schiele Munch and nearly two hundred other artists who painted sculpted and exhibited alongside them and whose collective genius was understood and appreciated by few at the time Hook reconsiders the decade from a series of fresh angles What was the conventional art against which Modernism sought to rebel Why were avant garde artists so self obsessed What persuaded a few bold collectors to buy difficult modern art And why did others pay so much money for Old Masters at the same time Modern helps us answer these questions and more and to see how avant garde artists marshaled their genius and oftentimes their madness to create works of such profound consequence they still reverberate today and which taken together made for a movement more influential than even the Renaissance The Fred Jones Jr. Museum of Art at the University of Oklahoma Eric McCauley Lee, 2004 This beautifully illustrated catalogue highlights 101 works of art from the Fred Jones Jr Museum of Art at the University of Oklahoma Combining full color reproductions with explanatory text the catalogue presents significant examples of Asian European American American Indian and contemporary art from the museum's permanent collection. For visitors to the museum and art aficionados these pages offer a tour of the museum's exceptional paintings, sculptures, works on paper, and photographs. Arranged in chronological and thematic sequence, the catalogue entries focus on single works each by a different artist. Authors Eric McCauley, Lee and Rima Canaan discuss the artists' backgrounds and analyze the featured works. Where appropriate, related objects in the collection appear as accompanying illustrations. The celebrated artists represented in the catalogue include Claude Monet, Pierre Auguste Renoir, Vincent van Gogh, Pablo Picasso, Edward Hopper, Georgia O'Keeffe, Allan Houser, and members of the Taos Society of Artists. Published to coincide with the opening of the museum's new wing designed by renowned architect Hugh Newell Jacobsen and named in honor of Mary and Howard Lester, this catalogue celebrates the extraordinary development of the museum's collections over nearly three quarters of a century.

Investigating Modern Art Liz Dawtrey, Elizabeth Dawtrey, Toby Jackson, Mary Masterton, Pam Meecham, Paul Wood, 1996-01-01. Modern art sometimes seems difficult or even impossible to understand. In this appealing book, modern art becomes accessible through clear and informative discussions about modern artists, art movements, and art works. Charting the development of modern art from the nineteenth century through the present day, each chapter focuses on particular artists and works of art, placing them in their artistic contexts and discussing them from a variety of viewpoints. Issues of gender and ethnicity, criticisms of the accepted canon of modern art, and important social and political influences on the institutions of art are woven into the discussion of key artists such as Picasso, Matisse, Pollock, and Warhol, and movements such as Cubism, Surrealism, Abstract Impressionism, and Minimal Art.

In Pursuit of Universalism Alicia Volk, 2010. Volk's impressive study rethinks the East-West binary often reiterated in discussions of Japanese modernism by reinserting local aspects into the universalizing tendencies of modernism itself. The book makes an important contribution to the growing literature on modern Japanese art history by providing an alternative comparative framework for understanding the global development of modernism that decenters Euro-America. Rigorously historical in her critique, Volk destabilizes our understanding of the Japanese experience of modernity through the prism of Yorozu's singular vision of the self, leaving us questioning conventional wisdom and contented to wobble. Jennifer Weisenfeld, Duke University.

In Volk's affecting, stunning, and deeply reflective study of the Japanese artist Yorozu Tetsugoro's work between 1910-1930, we have a profoundly historical reminder of how modernism everywhere struggled to meet the demands of the new with the readymades of received artistic practices. In this study of Yorozu's utopian universalist project, Volk has imaginatively broadened our understanding of the modernist moment and perceptively captured its global program to unify art and life, contemporary culture, and history.

Harry Harootyan, author of Overcome by Modernity: History, Culture, and Community in Interwar Japan.

Liu Kang: Essays on Art and Culture Sara Siew, 2011. Liu Kang's Essays on Art and Culture is a testament to the inexorable passion of an artist who knew no boundaries. This collection of essays, which Liu Kang wrote over 44 years, offers an insight into the artist's myriad interests: interior design, music, literature, dance, photography, medical science, and the visual arts Beyond these topics Liu Kang's contributions as a first generation Nanyang artist and art educator come to the fore through his thoughts and ideas about art societies exhibitions artists the development of art education and the growth of art in Singapore and the region Liu Kang wrote his essays in Chinese They have been translated into English for this volume and are accompanied by commentaries that help contextualise one's reading This volume also contains snapshots of the artist's life from old photographs of Liu Kang travelling or painting to that of the people he wrote about in his essays

Style and Content in Christian Art Jane Dillenberger, 2005-01-25 A profound and sympathetic introduction to the scope of Christian art it is written in language simple enough for the lay person and its length is almost ideally suited to its purpose This work is sound from the standpoint of art history and criticism as well as Christian thought and understanding Liturgical Arts In 228 pages of lucid exposition Mrs Dillenberger presents an authoritative yet untechnical history of style in western art Her time span is Christian her examples all illustrated are Christian in subject matter Her analyses weigh subject and meaning iconography together with formal values line shape mass space light and shade It is written for the intelligent educated lay person seeking an understanding of art it should appeal to Christian and non Christian alike Religious Education The title is honest the approach logical and effective The author knows what she is doing both artistically and theologically Often grubby matters like iconography form composition and meaning in works of art are clearly and interestingly handled It is a model of commonsense lucidity Duke Divinity

All About Process Kim Grant, 2017-02-28 In recent years many prominent and successful artists have claimed that their primary concern is not the artwork they produce but the artistic process itself In this volume Kim Grant analyzes this idea and traces its historical roots showing how changing concepts of artistic process have played a dominant role in the development of modern and contemporary art This astute account of the ways in which process has been understood and addressed examines canonical artists such as Monet C zanne Matisse and De Kooning as well as philosophers and art theorists such as Henri Focillon R G Collingwood and John Dewey Placing process art within a larger historical context Grant looks at the changing relations of the artist's labor to traditional craftsmanship and industrial production the status of art as a commodity the increasing importance of the body and materiality in art making and the nature and significance of the artist's role in modern society In doing so she shows how process is an intrinsic part of aesthetic theory that connects to important contemporary debates about work craft and labor Comprehensive and insightful this synthetic study of process in modern and contemporary art reveals how artists' explicit engagement with the concept fits into a broader narrative of the significance of art in the industrial and postindustrial world

Matisse Nicholas Watkins, 1985 This volume traces the career of Henri Matisse from the Fauve paintings of the 1907 Salon d'Automne to the final flowering of his paper cut outs culminating in his masterpiece the Vence Chapel Along the way the author describes the full range of Matisse's paintings sculpture book illustrations and paper cut outs with visual sensitivity and a keen knowledge of technique At times the author seems to pause to look at specific masterpieces in all their complexity The Dinner Table Le

Bonheur de vivre and Luce calme et volupe among many others He also shows us how Matisse responded to the artistic political and social events of his day from Cubism to the two World Wars
