Matsushima Haiku:

Snow Falling from a Bamboo Leaf: the Art of Haiku Hiag Akmakjian, 2005-09 Many lovers of poetry consider haiku to be literature's most subtle art form. The whole of life seems effortlessly expressed in only a few words and images. The book presents readers with sixty of the more famous classical haiku in the original romanized Japanese along with their interlinear transliterations. This unique combination becomes a great help in understanding how they were made. An introductory essay tells how haiku can just as easily be written in English and as a help to readers creating their own haiku it explains to them the elegant but rigorous structure of what appears to be an easy art form. This charming and informative book is tastefully illustrated with the author's own lovely ink drawings. Matsushima Gerald Robert Vizenor, 1984 The Classic

Tradition of Haiku Faubion Bowers, 2012-04-26 DIV Unique collection spans over 400 years 1488-1902 of haiku by greatest masters Basho Issa Shiki many more. Translated by top flight scholars. Foreword and many informative notes to the poems. div

Border Crossings Ian Marshall, 2012 The International Appalachian Trail runs north from Mount Katahdin seven hundred miles to the end of the Gasp Peninsula. Inspired by Basho, Ian Marshall hiked it for six summers probing the poetics of haiku while exploring a vast and beautiful wilderness little known in the US. Marshall is an engaging trail companion and a superb story teller with a self-deprecating wit and sharp intellect that spice up his observations and ideas. Like Basho he finds the miraculous in the common and elevates the humble walk into a spiritual practice, sprinkling his narrative with lovely original haiku that seem to have condensed in the moment like droplets of dew. Backpackers will appreciate his pungent descriptions of life on the trail and ecocritics will savor his abundant insights on poetry, nature, and culture. This lively book serves up a classic blend of high adventure, literary pilgrimage, and self-discovery. It tastes as tart and fresh as wild raspberries. John Tallmadge, past president of the Association for the Study of Literature and Environment and author of The Cincinnati Arch: Learning from Nature in the City. Finding Wisdom in East Asian Classics Wm. Theodore De Bary, 2011-08-02 Finding Wisdom in East Asian Classics is an essential all-access guide to the core texts of East Asian civilization and culture. Essays address frequently read foundational texts in Chinese, Japanese, Korean, and Vietnamese as well as early modern fictional classics and nonfiction works of the seventeenth century. Building strong links between these writings and the critical traditions of Confucianism, Buddhism, and Daoism, this volume shows the vital role of the classics in the shaping of Asian history and in the development of the humanities at large. Wm. Theodore de Bary focuses on texts that have survived for centuries if not millennia through avid questioning and contestation. Recognized as perennial reflections on life and society, these works represent diverse historical periods and cultures and include the Analects of Confucius, Mencius, Laozi, Xunzi, the Lotus Sutra, Tang poetry, the Pillow Book, The Tale of Genji, and the writings of Chikamatsu and Kaibara Ekken. Contributors explain the core and most commonly understood aspects of these works and how they operate within their traditions. They trace their reach and reinvention throughout history and their ongoing relevance in modern life. With fresh interpretations of familiar readings these essays inspire renewed appreciation and examination In the case of some classics open to multiple interpretations de Bary chooses two complementary essays from different contributors Expanding on debates concerning the challenges of teaching classics in the twenty first century several pieces speak to the value of Asia in the core curriculum Indispensable for early scholarship on Asia and the evolution of global civilization Finding Wisdom in East Asian Classics helps one master the major texts of human thought
