Getting In and Getting On in the Youth Labour Market Pauline Leonard, Rachel J. Wilde, 2019-10-29 Based on up to date qualitative and ethnographic research, this book examines youth education to work transitions in the UK. Using the theoretical lens of a Foucauldian governmentality approach, the authors consider the why and how of youth employability training and demonstrate how different employability schemes planned and operationalised in diverse geographical and economic landscapes work in practice. The book examines and compares a range of employment entry route programmes and reveals the tension between employability and good quality employment and the ways in which young people from varying social and regional backgrounds are positioned very differently within this.

Getting On Message Peter Laarman, 2006-04-12 In the 2004 election 80 percent of those who claimed moral values was the most important issue affecting their vote. They cast their ballots for Bush as did 63 percent of frequent churchgoers. Since then the Religious Right has continued to cement an association between Christian and moral values and conservative policies. Getting On Message challenges this association from the very heart of the Christian tradition. These readable and incisive essays use biblical framing to discern the personal and social ethics that truly embody Christian values in the contemporary world. Marilynne Robinson discusses the link between personal holiness and a generous spirit. Garret Keizer looks at the growing wealth class divide from a Christian perspective. Rev Heidi Neumark examines hospitality as a core Christian value. Rev Chloe Breyer explores a justice criterion for women's decisions on abortion. Rev Bill Sinkford asks what really constitutes a God approved marriage and family. Getting On Message is a book for clergy, for politically active people of faith and for progressive organizers and strategists who want to learn how to talk to religious believers about the values they share.
