Sterling, 2021 Brent L Sterling examines how well or poorly the US military has learned lessons and applied findings from analyzing foreign wars through observer missions and post conflict military to military liaisons Preparing for the next war at an unknown date in the future against an undetermined opponent is an inherently difficult undertaking with extremely high stakes Even the most detailed exercises and wargames do not truly simulate combat and the fog of war Thus militaries the world over have studied foreign wars to see what lessons can be gleaned but the effectiveness of this learning process has rarely been evaluated Sterling's goals are to better understand learning dynamics in the military to better determine what types of knowledge can be gained from foreign wars to identify common pitfalls and to propose ways to maximize the benefits for doctrine organization and training This book explores four major cases of US observation missions at key junctures in history the Crimean War 1853 56 the Russo Japanese War 1904 05 the Spanish Civil War 1936 39 and the Yom Kippur War 1973 These conflicts preceded the US
