Office of Special Studies, 1959 Research and Development Data Needs National Research Council, Policy and Global Affairs, Board on Science, Technology, and Economic Policy, 2005-03-30 This report contains the proceedings of a one day workshop organized by the National Research Council s Board on Science Technology and Economic Policy STEP in conjunction with a study by a panel of the NRC Committee on National Statistics CNSTAT This combined activity was commissioned by the Science Resources Statistics Division SRS of the National Science Foundation

NSF to recommend improvements in the Foundation's portfolio of surveys of research and development spending by the federal government, state governments, private industry, the nation's universities and colleges, and other nonprofit institutions.

Data on Federal Research and Development Investments National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Committee on National Statistics, Panel on Modernizing the Infrastructure of the National Science Foundation Federal Funds Survey, 2010-01-27 Two surveys of the National Science Foundation's Division of Science Resources Statistics SRS provide some of the most significant data available to understand research and development spending and policy in the United States. These are the Survey of Federal Funds for Research and Development and the Survey of Federal Science and Engineering Support to Universities, Colleges, and Nonprofit Institutions. These surveys help reach conclusions about fundamental policy questions such as whether a given field of research is adequately funded, whether funding is balanced among fields, and whether deficiencies in funding may be contributing to a loss of U.S. scientific or economic competitiveness. However, the survey data are of insufficient quality and timeliness to support many of the demands put on them. In addition, the surveys are increasingly difficult to conduct in times of constrained resources, and their technological, procedural, and conceptual infrastructure has not been modernized for procedure or content. Data on Federal Research and Development Investments reviews the uses and collection of data on federal funds and federal support for science and technology and recommends future directions for the program based on an assessment of these uses and the adequacy of the surveys. The book also considers the classification structure or taxonomy for the fields of science and engineering. Research and Development in Industry, 1995 Includes detailed statistical tables.
