Building Assets, Building Credit Nicolas P. Retsinas, Eric S. Belsky, 2006-05-25 Poor people spend their money living day to day How can they accumulate wealth In the United States homeownership is often the answer Homes not only provide shelter but also are assets and thus a means to create equity Mortgage credit becomes a crucial factor More Americans than ever now have some access to credit However thanks in large part to the growth of global capital markets and greater use of credit scores not all homeowners have benefited equally from the opened spigots Different terms and conditions mean that some applicants are overpaying for mortgage credit while some are getting in over their heads And the door is left wide open for predatory lenders In this important new volume accomplished analysts examine the situation illustrate its ramifications and recommend steps to improve it Today low income Americans have more access to credit than ever before The challenge is to increase the chances that homeownership becomes the new pathway to asset building that everyone hopes it will be

Handbook of Public Administration B Guy Peters, Jon Pierre, 2007-05-23 The past two decades have been marked by a period of substantial and often fundamental change in public administration Critically reflecting on the utility of scholarly theory and the extent to which government practices inform the development of this theory the Handbook of Public Administration was a landmark publication which served as an essential guide for both the practice of public administration today and its on going development as an academic discipline The Concise Paperback Edition provides a selection of 30 of the original articles in an accessible paperback format and includes a new introduction by B Guy Peters and Jon Pierre It is an essential point of reference for all students of public administration Graduate Programs in Business, Education, Information Studies, Law & Social Work 2014 (Grad 6) Peterson's, 2013-12-20 Peterson's Graduate Programs in Business
