that Mrs and Mr Coleman should go with the Major to Drury Lane to see the great Edmund Kean in Othello The day was fixed and Mrs Coleman was busy for a long time beforehand in furbishing up and altering her wedding dress so that she might make a decent figure She was all excitement and as happy as she could well be For months Zachariah had not known her to be so communicative She seemed to take an interest in politics she discussed with him the report that Bonaparte was mad and Zachariah on his part told her what had happened to him during the day and what he had read in the newspapers The Prince Regent had been to Oxford and verses had been composed in his honour Mr Bosanquet had recited to the Prince an ode or something of the kind and had ventured after dilating on the enormous services rendered by kings in general to the community during the last twenty years to warn them But ye yourselves must The Revolution in Tanner's Lane William Hale White, 1984 This is a pre 1923 historical reproduction that was curated for quality Quality assurance was conducted on each of these books in an attempt to remove books with imperfections introduced by the digitization process Though we have made best efforts the books may have occasional errors that do not impede the reading experience We believe this work is culturally important and have elected to bring the book back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide
