

The background of the entire image is a photograph of a cave interior. In the upper half, there are several large, yellowish-brown stalactites hanging from the ceiling. The lower half of the image features a large, reddish-brown rock wall with a black-painted prehistoric animal, likely a bison or auroch, facing left. The animal's body is outlined in black, and it has some internal details like legs and horns.

Secrets Of The Stone Age A Prehistoric Journey:

Secrets of the Stone Age Richard Rudgley, 2005-11-01 Secrets of the Stone Age Richard Rudgley, 2003-12-23 The popular view that Stone Age Man was primitive and ignorant is shattered as the author reveals the remarkable accomplishments made before the dawn of history The journey begins in ancient Egypt where excavations at Abydos have unearthed hieroglyphs belonging to an age before the pharaohs It continues to stone circles and burial chambers in Ireland which carbon dating proves pre date Stonehenge by two millennia to the world's first town 9 000 year old Catal Huyuk in Turkey and to startling new research on the Ice Man the 5 000 year old mummy found in an Alpine glacier The author discusses 11 000 year old writing unearthed on the banks of the Euphrates awe inspiring cave paintings of Ice Age France and the discovery of stone tools in Indonesia that proves that pre Neanderthal man undertook sea voyages 700 000 years before the Kon Tiki

The Return of Odin Richard Rudgley, 2018-03-13 A controversial examination of the influence and presence of the Norse god Odin in contemporary history and culture Documents Odin's role in the rise of Nazi Germany the 1960s counterculture revolution nationalist and ecological political movements and the occult revival Examines the spiritual influence of Odin in relation to Jesus Christ Profiles key individuals instrumental in the rise of the modern pagan renaissance Exploring the influence of the Norse god Odin in the modern world Richard Rudgley reveals Odin's central role in the pagan revival and how this has fueled a wide range of cultural movements and phenomena including Nazi Germany the 1960s counterculture revolution the Lord of the Rings the ecology movement and the occult underground Rudgley argues that it is Odin and not Jesus Christ who is the single most important spiritual influence in modern Western civilization He analyzes the Odin archetype first revealed by Carl Jung's famous essay on Wotan in the context of pagan religious history and explains the ancient idea of the Web a cosmic field of energies that encompasses time space and the hidden potentials of humanity the pagan equivalent to the Tao of Eastern tradition The author examines the importance of the concept of wyrd which corresponds to fate or destiny exploring techniques to read destiny such as the Runes as well as the existence of yoga in prehistoric and pagan Europe which later produced the Norse Utiseti an ancient system of meditation Rudgley documents how the Odin archetype came into play in Nazi Germany with the rise of Hitler and the pagan counterculture of the 1960s He examines how the concept of subterranean and mythic realms such as the Hollow Earth Thule and Agartha and mysterious energies like Vril were manifested in both occult and profane ways and investigates key occult figures like Madame Blavatsky Guido von List and Karl Wiligut He provides pagan analyses of Tolkien and the Lord of the Rings and documents the impact the Odin archetype has had on nationalist and fascist groups in America and Europe Examining pagan groups in Europe and America that use the Norse template Rudgley reveals true paganism as holistic and intimately connected with the forces at work in the life of the planet Showing how this green paganism can be beneficial for dealing with the adverse consequences of globalization and the ongoing ecological crisis he explains how when repressed the Odin archetype is responsible for regressive tendencies and even mass psychosis a reflection of the unprecedented chaos of Ragnarok but if embraced the Odin archetype makes it possible for like minded traditions to work together in the service of life

Clean Virginia Sarah Smith,2008 From pre historic grooming rituals to New Age medicine from ascetics to cosmetics Clean looks at how different cultures have interpreted and striven for personal cleanliness and shows how throughout history this striving for purity has brought immense social benefits as well as great tragedies Looking at human history through the lens of public baths lavatories laundry teeth cleaning cosmetics food storage and panty liners Virginia Smith here combines archeology psychology biology and other fields to illuminate our modern obsession cleanliness She peppers her entertaining account with engaging and often surprising details The book reveals for instance that even at the earliest stages of human development our bodies produced pleasure giving chemical opiates when things smelled or felt clean inducing us to bathe or at least remove dirty clothes She describes how during the Bronze Age an emerging hierarchy of wealthy elites turned their love of grooming into an explosion of the cosmetic and luxury goods industry greatly affecting the culture and economy of Eurasia and leading to advances in chemistry and medicine Likewise in Greece and Rome citizens focused much of their leisure time on perfecting bathing or just writing about the model athletic body Even today our enlightened medical knowledge could not stop an onslaught of health remedies treatments spas and New Age nature cures all in the pursuit of purity This engrossing and highly original work will introduce you to the customs and ideas of a myriad of cultures across centuries of human history providing a marvelous new perspective on the importance of cleanliness to human civilization

The Gods' Machines Wun Chok Bong,2008-05-27 Based on the author s decipherment of prehistoric carvings and the application of mathematical measurements The Gods Machines shows how unknown phenomena from Angkor Wat to Stonehenge to crop circles are actually powerhouses built by an advanced extraterrestrial civilization for tapping electromagnetic energy The book traces the development of that civilization on Earth over 5 000 years revealing how all these structures are aligned according to a universal formula an angle of 135 degrees at which Earth s energy has been tapped by the alien creators of these monuments These fascinating theories not only explain our distant past but also open the door to a future of power technology and space travel Megalithic sites such as Newgrange and Stonehenge are constructed with quartz and iron rich stones with electrical conduction properties minerals also found atop Aztec temple and inside crop circles These stones according to the author served as dry cell batteries when heated and stressed and supplied energy to the builders traveling vehicles Most interestingly the author has tested his theory on today s crop circles The Gods Machines is certain to stimulate debate among readers interested in alternative history ancient civilization and extraterrestrial intelligence preceding period of development their technological sophistication seems far beyond the capabilities of ancient peoples Drawing on the literature and art of the Chaldeans Sumerians Babylonians and others Rene Noorbergen's contention is that a superior race of man was responsible for these scientific marvels that bear testimony to a civilization with technology comparable to our own

Conserving Africa's Mega-Diversity in the Anthropocene Joris P. G. M. Cromsigt, Sally Archibald, Norman Owen-Smith, 2017-03-02 This book synthesises key insights from a century of ecological research and monitoring efforts in one of Africa's oldest protected areas

Echoes of Africa's Past. Archaeological explorations in the Anthropocene Savino di Lernia, 2025-05-30 Marking the 70th anniversary of the Libyan Italian archaeological Mission in the Tadrart Acacus and Messak this volume offers a multidisciplinary reflection on Africa's deep past and its enduring legacies in the Anthropocene By tracing the echoes of human environment interactions across time it highlights how archaeological research continues to reshape our understanding of adaptation resilience and transformation in African societies Drawing on interdisciplinary approaches including palaeoecology bioarchaeology rock art analysis the archaeology of food production and their various connections and networks this book challenges outdated Eurocentric narratives by foregrounding African agency and complexity Key themes include among others the Holocene environmental changes that influenced settlement patterns the significance of rock art in interpreting past belief systems and the impact of colonial trade and imperial expansion on indigenous communities Echoes of Africa's Past serves as a resource for archaeologists historians anthropologists and heritage scholars offering fresh perspectives on Africa's dynamic past and its relevance to debates on sustainability and cultural heritage in the Anthropocene Archaeological knowledge is incremental and hard won It is assembled through time intensive study of fragmentary evidence and its corpus represents intergenerational effort Though sometimes based on the study of stones our interpretations are not written in them Our working hypotheses typically run ahead of the evidence needed to assess them Expanded investigations new methods and changing premises compel revision and sometimes outright rejection of earlier ideas Typological aids deemed useful by earlier generations may outlive their usefulness at the same time as the evidence they organize remains pertinent and available for rethinking The cumulative character of archaeological knowledge enables scalar perspectives across space and through time casting what we know of one location in relief through comparison to others These revisions rethinkings and scalar reflections encourage us to appreciate the complexity and diversity of past contexts as amply illustrated in contributions to this volume In short resuscitating echoes of Anthropocene Africa is painstaking work In this way and others archaeology is and should be slow science Ann B Stahl University of Victoria BC Canada
