Luckily Nick Delgado is no ordinary man Original Jean Baudrillard Richard G Smith, 2015-07-01 This new collection gathers 23 highly insightful yet previously difficult to find interviews with Baudrillard ranging over topics as diverse as art war technology globalisation terrorism and the fate of humanity Inscribing the Other Sander L. Gilman, 1991-01-01 Inscribing the Other focuses on great authors who have by birth or choice or both found themselves outside the mainstream of their culture but who have still wished to address it Goethe Freud Wilde Heine Nietzsche and Isaac Bashevis Singer among others In thirteen probing provocative essays Sander L Gilman reinterprets their writing as it reveals their efforts to come to terms with their real or imagined sense of difference The chapters treat many themes and problems ranging widely from the romantic notion of the transcendent artist to the twentieth century artists in exile and employing the perspectives of psychiatry aesthetics photography politics and the history of mentalities The fate of Jewish writers in modern Germany or of Yiddish writers whose language is devalued in European culture is explored The theme of difference and its artistic and intellectual manifestations runs throughout the book which includes discussions of Goethe's and Wilde's homosexuality Nietzsche's madness Heine's refusal to be photographed and Primo Levi's internment at Auschwitz as well as an interview with Singer In a frank autobiographical introduction Gilman attempts to understand his own writing as an exercise in inscribing the Other in dealing with his own sense of difference through artistic creation The Sense of Sex Margaret R. Higonnet, 1993 Cinematic Schooling James Combs, 2018-12-14 This volume uses the metaphor of schooling to highlight the conviction that the widespread attention given to moving pictures in their various venues is not only diverting and entertaining but also educative although subtle and suggestive rather than explicit and didactic The importance of our movie experience includes the inescapable fact of play learning which for many people becomes accumulative over time and consequential in our imagination of the world as well as providing guidelines and cues for possible lines of action and codes of socially relevant beliefs Most movies are not propaganda but what is communicated onscreen can be incorporated into our ways of thinking and acting Although this process is difficult to ascertain certainly nevertheless for those interested in the overwhelming impact of moving pictures as a component and source of our thinking and action it deserves serious inquiry and invites social concern as to its power as an experience from which we learn who we are and what we do Story and Situation Ross Chambers, 1900 Studies the relation between teller and listener in a set of French English and American short stories from the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Beyond Doer and Done to Jessica Benjamin, 2017-07-06 In Beyond Doer and Done To Jessica Benjamin author of the path breaking Bonds of Love expands her theory of mutual recognition and its breakdown into the complementarity of doer and done to Her innovative theory charts the growth of the Third in early development through the movement between recognition and breakdown and shows how it parallels the enactments in the psychoanalytic relationship Benjamin's recognition theory illuminates the radical potential of acknowledgment in healing both individual and social trauma in creating relational repair in the transformational space of thirdness Benjamin's unique formulations of intersubjectivity make essential reading for both psychoanalytic therapists and theorists in the humanities and social sciences

The Abortionist of Howard Street R.E. Fulton, 2024-05-15 Josephine McCarty had many identities But in Albany New York she was known as Dr Emma Burleigh the abortionist of Howard Street On January 17 1872 McCarty boarded a streetcar in Utica New York shot her ex lover in the face and disembarked unaware that her bullet had passed through her target's head and into the heart of the innocent man sitting beside him The unlucky passenger died within minutes Josephine McCarty was arrested for attempted murder and quickly became the most notorious woman in central New York The Abortionist of Howard Street was however far more than a murderer In Maryland she was Johnny McCarty a blockade runner and spy for Confederate forces New Yorkers whispered of her as a mistress to corrupt Albany politicians So who was she The prosecution in her murder trial claimed she was a calculating and heartless operative both in the bedroom and in her public life Or was she the victim of ill fortune and the systemic weight of misogyny and male violence The answer of course was not as simple as either narrative In this absorbing and rich history R E Fulton considers the nuances of Josephine McCarty's life from marriage to divorce from financial abuse to quarrels with intimate partners and more trying to decipher the truth behind the stories and myths surrounding McCarty and what ultimately led her to that Utica streetcar with a pistol in her dress pocket In The Abortionist of Howard Street Fulton revisits a rich history of women's experience in mid nineteenth century America revealing McCarty as a multifaceted fascinating personification of issues as broad as reproductive health education domestic abuse mental illness and criminal justice
