See Both Sides A Practical Guide To Gender Analysis For Quality Service Delivery:

See Both Sides Karen Richardson, 2004 This book provides invaluable strategy training exercises and impact assessment tools and shares examples from the experience of an organisation providing services to lone parents They successfully used gender analysis to widen their target group revitalise existing services and develop new ones What Men and Women Want Helen Buhaenko, 2004 Based on an actual gendered participatory appraisal in Wales this guide offers a thorough explanation of why looking at the differences in men's and women's life experiences is an essential part of any participatory work What Men and Women Want guides the user through the stages of a process which is embedded throughout in other words which takes account of the different perspectives of women and men It provides a range of accessible tools explains how to analyze and collate qualitative information with a gender perspective and shows how to move from action to bring about real and lasting changes in the lives of men and women Men in Contemporary Russia Rebecca Kay, 2016-12-05 Rebecca Kay assesses how men in post Soviet Russia are represented through media and popular discourses Using case studies she explores the challenges which have arisen for men since 1991 and the ways in which their responses are shaped by and viewed through the prism of widely accepted attitudes towards gender The lives and concerns of men in provincial Russia are examined through ethnographic fieldwork combining extensive participant observation with in depth interviews The book reveals how individual men strive to maintain a sense of equilibrium between the activities in which they are engaged and the ways in which they are perceived both by others and by themselves The findings of the research have produced significant areas of contrast and comparison with the author's earlier work on women This is drawn out throughout the book placing the study of Russian men in a broader gendered context The issues raised by the men mirror concerns discussed in men's studies literature and popular discourse beyond Russia The book is therefore of interest to a wider international audience as well as contributing to ongoing interdisciplinary debates in Russian Studies Anthropology Sociology and Human Geography addressing the need for new approaches to understanding post Socialist change Gender in Local Government Prabha Khosla, 2008 This sourcebook aims at providing local governments with the tools to better understand the importance of gender in the decision making process and to reach better solutions for the communities they serve For this publication the following key issues of local governance have been selected participation in local government land rights urban planning service provision local government financing violence against women and local economic development Each of these issues is introduced by a brief gender analysis Numerous case studies illustrate what local governments can do Reflection questions and training exercises help trainers to develop successful training events The manual is designed as a companion to other UN HABITAT training tools providing local government trainers with the background and tested training methods they need to strengthen the gender dimension in their day to day training activities The source book may also be used as a stand alone tool introducing local governments to gender issues and their importance for local government policy making and project implementation P iv Prevention ,1993 Prevention '93/'94 United States. Office of Disease Prevention and Health Promotion,1994 Lists prevention programs of the Department of Health and Human Services Figures include data on leading causes of death by age life expectancy death rates by disease and immunization status Gender Equality and Water Security Asian Development Bank,2024-10-01 This report explains why women in Asia and the Pacific are more likely to suffer water insecurity shows how it impacts their lives and sets out ways to infuse gender into water management policies and governance to ensure water security for all Highlighting how women are underrepresented in the management and delivery of water the report recommends setting targets monitoring progress toward gender equality and promoting gender inclusive practices in water security initiatives It shows how water related organizations alongside governance and management institutions can take measures to boost women s water access reduce vulnerability and increase employment to drive transformational change Handbook of Obesity George A. Bray,Claude Bouchard,2003-12-05 With rates of obesity soaring to epidemic proportions this reference strives to unearth new treatment regimens and pharmaceuticals for the prevention and treatment of obesity Offering the latest recommendations and research from the most respected leaders in the field the Second Edition compiles the most noteworthy studies on the evaluation and Cumulated Index Medicus ,1991 Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh,2014-09-26 Resources in Education ,2001 Equal Opportunities Review ,2002 Treating Tobacco Use and Dependence: 2008 Update: Clinical Practice Guideline ,2009 Forced Migration and Humanitarian Action Lorenzo Guadagno,Lisette R. Robles,2024-10-24 Forced population movements are a defining feature of almost any humanitarian crisis shaping the design targeting and delivery of emergency responses This book investigates how the evolving situation of different forced migrants is accounted for and addressed in humanitarian action in order to improve their access to support and assistance Bringing together case studies from Africa Asia Europe and the Pacific this book focuses on a diversity of operational modalities and types of assistance provided by both traditional and non traditional humanitarian actors to address the specific needs of displaced children women people with disabilities and older people as well as trafficked migrant workers This book adopts a broad perspective on humanitarian action acknowledging how its boundaries are challenged and expanded in forced migration contexts Its operational and theoretical insights will be useful for a range of readers from humanitarian and migration researchers and students to practitioners and policymakers Social norms, intersectionality and sexual and reproductive health and rights in low and middle income countries Paul Mukisa Wako Bukuluki,Beniamino Cislighi,Rebecka Lundgren,2024-01-15 Gender Based Violence in University Communities Anitha, Sundari,Lewis, Ruth,2018-06-27 Until recently higher education in the UK has largely failed to recognise gender based violence GBV on campus but following the UK government task force set up in 2015 universities are becoming more aware of the issue And recent cases in the media about the sexualised abuse of power in institutions such as universities Parliament and Hollywood highlight the prevalence and damaging impact of GBV In this book academics and practitioners provide the first in depth overview of research and practice in GBV in universities They set out the international context of ideologies politics and institutional structures that underlie responses to GBV in elsewhere in Europe in the US and in Australia and consider the implications of implementing related policy and practice Presenting examples of innovative British approaches to engagement with the issue the book also considers UK EU and UN legislation to give an international perspective making it of direct use to discussions of what works in preventing GBV Becoming a CBT Therapist Jason Roscoe,2025-03-11

Whilst there are many texts that introduce trainees to the overarching theory formulations and interventions used in Cognitive Behavioural Therapy CBT few describe the lived experience of being a CBT therapist and of making it through training Becoming a CBT Therapist takes prospective trainees on a journey from applying for a place on a training course through to navigating the challenges of CBT training and developing in their career once qualified Featuring contributions from experienced CBT tutors supervisors and practicing therapists this book is the first to detail the practical emotional and psychological challenges of embarking upon and sustaining a career in this field From adjustment to learning new skills to the role transition from their existing role and identity through to the practicalities of how to demonstrate competence during their training the book covers an array of topics which are a must read for aspiring CBT therapists The chapters offer practical advice for developing a range of key skills such as how to succeed at interviews maintain a work study life balance and deal with imposter syndrome Packed full of vignettes and reflective exercises this book is a must read for those looking to apply for CBT training currently undertaking training or involved in supporting trainees through the various challenges they will encounter Clinical Ethics Albert R.
