Between Mirage and Miracle J. Barrie Shepherd, 2012-06-01 In this volume Shepherd selects from these and from other unpublished works to shape a series of poems that seek to portray and even illuminate to some extent the life of the spirit They begin by tracing the progress of a typical year January through December but also by noting and celebrating at times the high points of The Christian Year Lent Easter Pentecost Thanksgiving Advent Christmas and Epiphany Other more generally themed less calendar related poems follow including poems that reflect on the September 11 2001 attack on the World Trade Center an attack in which several of the author's parishioners and friends were killed This is a book to be dipped into rather than read right through It should provide fertile soil for the practice of daily prayer and meditation manger of long ago as well as the faces that have been there since Original Whatever Happened to Delight? J. Barrie Shepherd, 2006-01-01 Preaching is an art J Barrie Shepherd argues and the sermon is an art form an exercise in creativity and imagination But all too often preaching suffers from a lack of imagination and a loss of the joy and wonder that attracted the crowds to Jesus words two thousand years ago In this book based on his 2003 Beecher Lectures at Yale Divinity School Shepherd hopes to encourage the preacher toward a more creative vision for the sermon His approach is spontaneous eclectic intuitive and daring Shepherd s purpose is to encourage the preacher to think of life as filled with God s presence to search for the presence and to use images and words to unveil that presence The end result is a sermon that is full of astonishment and delight Justice, Mercy, and Well-Being Peter G. Bolt, James R. Harrison, 2020-03-10 This collection of essays examines how God s justice and mercy intersect in the lives of individuals and their communities with a view to the establishment of personal and social well being in the world The authors drawn from England and Australia approach the theme from a variety of methodological and interdisciplinary perspectives Theological exegetical historical healthcare moral and visual arts approaches are brought to bear in an investigation relevant for the identity and mission of the church in a world characterized by cycles of revenge the perpetration of injustice and the marginalization and persecution of various ethnic groups The practical outcome of these studies has wide ranging relevance for our attitudes toward indigenous peoples the well being of single and married people healthcare throughout the ages the spiritual care of people including those suffering dementia the personal experience of trauma issues of moral judgement and the abiding value of the creative arts
