Seeing And Saying Selfreferentiality In British And American Literature:

Seeing and Saying Detlev Gohrbandt, Bruno von Lutz, 1998 Transcultural English Studies Frank

Schulze-Engler, Sissy Helff, 2009 What is most strikingly new about the transcultural is its sudden ubiquity Following in the wake of previous concepts in cultural and literary studies such as creolization hybridity and syncretism and signalling a family relationship to terms such as transnationality translocality and transmigration transcultural terminology has unobtrusively but powerfully edged its way into contemporary theoretical and critical discourse The four sections of this volume denote major areas where transcultural questions and problematics have come to the fore theories of culture and literature that have sought to account for the complexity of culture in a world increasingly characterized by globalization transnationalization and interdependence realities of individual and collective life worlds shaped by the ubiquity of phenomena and experiences relating to transnational connections and the blurring of cultural boundaries fictions in literature and other media that explore these realities negotiate the fuzzy edges of ethnic or national cultures and participate in the creation of transnational public spheres as well as transcultural imaginations and memories and finally pedagogy and didactics where earlier models of teaching other cultures are faced with the challenge of coming to terms with cultural complexity both in what is being taught and in the people it is taught to and where target cultures have become elusive The idea of locating culture and literature exclusively in the context of ethnicities or nations is rapidly losing plausibility throughout an English speaking world that has long since been multi rather than monolingual Exploring the prospects and contours of Transcultural English Studies thus reflects a set of common challenges and predicaments that in recent years have increasingly moved centre stage not only in the New Literatures in English but also in British and American studies

Eventfulness in British Fiction Peter Hühn, 2010 Describes a framework for the narratological definition of the term eventfulness This book includes a series of analyses of canonical British novels and tales that demonstrates in how this concept can be put into practice for a specific contextual interpretation of the eventfulness of these texts Engendering Realism and Postmodernism , 2021-11-01 This volume assembles critical essays on and excerpts from works of contemporary women writers in Britain Its focus is the interaction of aesthetic play and ethical commitment in the fictional work of women writers whose interest in testing and transgressing textual boundaries is rooted in a specific awareness of a gendered multicultural reality This position calls for a distinctly critical impetus of their writing involving the interaction of the political and the literary as expressed in innovative combinations of realist and postmodern techniques in works by A S Byatt Maureen Duffy Zoe Fairbairns Eva Figes Penelope Lively Sara Maitland Suniti Namjoshi Ravinder Randhawa Joan Riley Michele Roberts Emma Tennant Fay Weldon Jeanette Winterson All contributions to this volume address aspects of these writers positions and techniques with a clear focus on their interest in transgressing boundaries of genre gender and post colonial identity The special quality of these interpretations first given in the presence of writers at a symposium in Potsdam derives from the creative and prosperous interactions between authors and critics The volume concludes with excerpts from the works of the participating writers which exemplify the range of concrete concerns and technical accomplishments discussed in the essays They are taken from fictional works by Debjani Chatterjee Maureen Duffy Zoe Fairbairns Eva Figes Sara Maitland and Ravinder Randhawa They also include the creative interactions of Suniti Namjoshi and Gillian Hanscombe in their joint writing and Paul Magrs critical engagement with Sara Maitland

The Poetry of Derek Mahon Hugh

Haughton,2010-10-21 Derek Mahon is one of the leading poets of his time both in Ireland and beyond famously offering a perspective that is displaced from as much as grounded in his native country From prodigious beginnings to prolific maturity he has been through thick and thin through troubled times and other a writer profoundly committed to the art of poetry and the craft of making verse He has also been no less a committed reviser of his work believing the poem to be more than a record in verse but a work of art never finished This virtuoso study by Hugh Haughton provides the most comprehensive account imaginable of Mahon s oeuvre Haughton s brilliant writing always serves and illuminates the poetry yielding extraordinary insights on almost every page The poetry its revisions and reception are the subject here but so thorough is the approach that what is offered also amounts indirectly to an intellectual biography of the poet and with it an account of Northern Irish poetry vital to our understanding of the times

LITERARY ALLUSION AND REFERENCE IN CONTEMPORARY AMERICAN LITERATURE. Oakley C. Johnson,1928 Post-World War II Masculinities in British and American Literature and Culture Stefan Horlacher,Kevin Floyd,2016-04-08 Analyzing literary texts plays films and photographs within a transatlantic framework this volume explores the inseparable and mutually influential relationship between different forms of national identity in Great Britain and the United States and the construction of masculinity in each country The contributors take up issues related to how certain kinds of nationally specific masculine identifications are produced how these change over time and how literature and other forms of cultural representation eventually question and deconstruct their own myths of masculinity Focusing on the period from the end of World War II to the 1980s the essays each take up a topic with particular cultural and historical resonance whether it is hypermasculinity in early cold war films the articulation of male anxieties in plays by Arthur Miller David Mamet and Sam Shepard the evolution of photographic depictions of masculinity from the 1960s to the 1980s or the representations of masculinity in the fiction of American and British writers such as Patricia Highsmith Richard Yates John Braine Martin Amis Evan S Connell James Dickey John Berger Philip Roth Frank Chin and Maxine Hong Kingston The editors and contributors make a case for the importance of understanding the larger context for the emergence of more pluralistic culturally differentiated and ultimately transnational
