Participatory Democracy in Southern Europe Joan Font, Donatella Della Porta, Yves Sintomer, 2014-06-05 Citizen participation is a central component of democratic governance. As participatory schemes have grown in number and gained in social legitimacy over recent years, the research community has analyzed the virtues of participatory policies from several points of view but usually giving focus to the most successful and well known grass roots cases. This book examines a wider range of participatory interventions that have been created or legitimized by central governments providing original exploration of institutional democratic participatory mechanisms. Looking at a huge variety of subnational examples across Italy, Spain and France, the book interrogates the rich findings of a substantial research project. The authors use quantitative and qualitative methods to compare why these cases of participatory mechanisms have emerged, how they function and what cultural impact they've achieved. This allows highly original insights into why participatory mechanisms work in some places but not others and the sorts of choices that organizers of participatory processes have to consider when creating such policies.

Michelangelo Antonioni Bert Cardullo, 2008. Collected interviews with the Italian filmmaker who directed La Notte, Blow Up and Zabriskie Point.

The Revolt Against Psychiatry Bonnie Burstow, 2019-08-20. A real eye opener. This riveting anti-critical psychiatry book is comprised of original cutting edge dialogues between Burstow, an antipsychiatry theorist and activist, and other leaders in the revolt against psychiatry including radical practitioners, lawyers, reporters, activists, psychiatric survivors, academics, family members, and artists. People in dialogue with the author include Indigenous leader Roland Christjohn, psychiatrist Peter Breggin, survivor Lauren Tenney, and scholar China Mills. The single biggest focus/tension in the book is a psychiatry abolition position versus a critical psychiatry or reformist position. In the scope of this project, Burstow considers the ways racism, genocide, Indigeneity, sexism, media bias, madness, neurodiversity, and strategic activism are intertwined with critical and antipsychiatry.

Personal Identity Ellen Frankel Paul, Fred Dycus Miller, Jeffrey Paul, 2005. What is a person? What makes me the same person today that I was yesterday or will be tomorrow? Philosophers have long pondered these questions. In Plato's Symposium, Socrates observed that all of us are constantly undergoing change; we experience physical changes to our bodies as well as changes in our manners, customs, opinions, desires, pleasures, pains, and fears. Aristotle theorized that there must be some underlying substratum that remains the same even as we undergo these changes. John Locke rejected Aristotle's view and reformulated the problem of personal identity in his own way: is a person a physical organism that persists through time, or is a person identified by the persistence of psychological states by memory? These essays, written by prominent philosophers and legal and economic theorists, offer valuable insights into the nature of personal identity and its implications for morality and public policy.

Budget Justice Celina Su, 2025-09-09. A bold vision that empowers communities to solve our cities' most pressing problems. Amid political repression and a deepening affordability crisis, Budget Justice challenges everything you thought you knew about dull and daunting government budgets It shows how the latter confuse and mislead the public by design not accident Arguing that they are moral documents that demand grassroots participation to truly work for everyone the book reveals how everyday citizens can shape policy to tackle everything from rising housing and food costs to unabated police violence underfunded schools and climate change driven floods and wildfires Drawing on her years of engagement with democratic governance in New York City and around the globe Celina Su proposes a new kind of democracy in which city residents make collective decisions about public needs through processes like participatory budgeting and in which they work across racial divides and segregated spaces as neighbors rather than as consumers or members of voting blocs Su presents a series of interludes that vividly illustrate how budget justice plays out on the ground including in depth interviews with activists from Porto Alegre Brazil Barcelona Spain and Jackson Mississippi and shares her own personal reflections on how changing social identities inform one s activism Essential reading to empower citizens Budget Justice explains why public budgets reflect a crisis not so much in accounting as in democracy and enables everyone especially those from historically marginalized communities to imagine and enact people s budgets and policies from universal preschool to affordable housing that will enable their communities to thrive Flight ,1917 One Slight Hitch Lewis Black,2013-11-25 It s Courtney s wedding day and her mom Delia is making sure that everything is perfect The groom is perfect the dress is perfect and the decorations assuming they arrive will be perfect Then like in any good farce the doorbell rings And all hell breaks loose So much for perfect

Theological Quodlibeta in the Middle Ages: The Thirteenth Century Chris Schabel, 2018-11-12 This is the first of two volumes on theological quodlibeta records of special disputations held before

Christmas and Easter ca 1230 1330 mostly at the University of Paris in which audience members asked the great masters of theology the questions for debate questions de quolibet about anything The variety of the material and the authors stature make the genre uniquely fascinating In Volume I chapters by acknowledged experts introduce the genre cover the quodlibeta of Thomas Aquinas Henry of Ghent Giles of Rome Godfrey of Fontaines and 13th century Franciscans and demonstrate how the masters used quodlibeta to construct and express their authority on issues from politics and economics to two headed monsters For all those interested in medieval studies especially intellectual history Relearning to See Thomas R. Quackenbush, 2000-01-24 In this accessible presentation of the famous Bates method Thomas R Quackenbush who teaches the Bates method in California and Oregon describes how eyesight can improve naturally at any age and regardless of heredity This book is a wonderful tribute to the genius of Dr Bates who was a pioneer in discovering how vision becomes blurred and how it restores itself naturally to clarity and acuity Now 80 years later his findings and teachings remain light years ahead of our contemporaries His approach to treating vision problems was truly holistic and the theme throughout this book is very much an extension of that holistic approach Dr Quackenbush is to be commended for his dedication in getting the truth out and keeping the torch burning in this bible on vision improvement Book Review Digest ,1922 The Metaphysical Thought of Godfrey of Fontaines John F. Wippel, 1999-10 Students of the final troubled decades of the thirteenth century following the censures of the 1270s will be delighted to have this richly researched presentation of the metaphysics of Godfrey of Fontaines Modern Schoolman Plainly the indispensable key to understanding and evaluating Godfrey s thought International Studies in Philosophy A clearly written and substantial contribution to our understanding of this important period in medieval thought Choice This excellent study makes accessible the central philosophical ideas of one of the three or four most important Parisian masters of theology between Thomas Aquinas and Duns Scotus Already the leading authority on his subject Professor Wippel here draws together and greatly extends his previous work providing a superbly documented view of the highest of high scholastic discussion as seen in the contributions of a subtle and spirited participant Speculum
