Longer Stories From The Last Decade:

Shelby Foote C. Stuart Chapman, 2006 A biography that plumbs the ambiguous life of the gentlemanly novelist and historian

Longer Stories from the Last Decade Anton Pavlovich Chekhov, 1993 The short stories of Chekhov are an inexhaustible treasure of humanity and wisdom wrote Elizabeth Hardwick The whole of Russian life lies within them Some six hundred tales bear Chekhov's name not a few of which are the famous long short stories written during roughly the last decade of his brief life This volume gives us eleven of these in eminent translations by Constance Garnett and chosen by Shelby Foote Perhaps the most autobiographical is Three Years which offers a portrayal of mercantile greed and exploitation that was new to Russian literature The Duel is the story of Ivan Layevsky a self styled St Petersburg Hamlet who filled with Tolstoyan ideas of a noble life of toil on the land escapes with another man's wife to the Caucasus The ensuing philosophical confrontations among the major characters clearly resemble those in Uncle Vanya And in the masterly Ward No 6 a doctor disgusted by the stupidity and misery of the world of normal men forms such a close relationship with an interesting lunatic that society declares the doctor a lunatic too and incarcerates him The story is devastatingly symbolic of the corruption and hopelessness in Russia toward the end of the autocracy Also included are The Black Monk An Anonymous Story A Woman's Kingdom The Wife In the Ravine Peasants The Murder and My Life Chekhov is not only a great writer but even rarer a liberating one said Susan Sontag Shelby Foote has provided an Introduction for this edition

Out of Print: Ten Years: An Anthology of Stories Indira Chandrasekhar, 2024-07-03 About the book Out of Print in print A decade ago in 2010 Indira Chandrasekhar set up Out of Print to address a need she felt as a writer a focused platform for the short story a space for robust editorial discussions as well as one that would serve as a platform for discoveries of newer facets of the form itself and of new writing This commemorative volume hopes to capture something of that adventure It is thus not a best of volume but one that speaks to the spirit of the magazine its diversity of literary voices its openness to experimentation its focus on Indian language publishing and its stand against mediocrity Most crucially of course this is an ode to the short story form its art of brevity and honesty

Stories of Four Decades Glenn Meeter, 2009-09 A number of the stories in Glenn Meeter's Stories of Four Decades have been reprinted most frequently Hard Row and A Harvest but they all made their first appearance in publications as diverse as The Atlantic Monthly Redbook Epoch The Literary Review and The Reformed Journal Each story has its own individual appeal Each has its own style theme mood its own plot and setting and its own cast of characters who come fully to life only within its boundaries Even Peter Heitz in The Oppressor has different problems and preoccupations from the slightly older character with the same name in The Convert But set with others in a collection that touches major points in life stories of Youth followed by those of Marriage and Parenthood and finally New Journeys each story takes on new dimensions Together they form a tableau of life in the American Midwest and California a mid century Mecca for Midwesterners from the forties through the seventies One thinks of the slow clank clank of tire chains on mall town winter streets in the first story the visitors to Grandmother's house paying Chicago tolls in the last and in between Lost Angeles freeways and South Dakota gravel roads Another dimension is as ancient as Joseph in Egypt the clash of rural and village culture with urban modernity Some characters need to break away from the village culture faith family community some lose it and re create it Some seek it out All need to re interpret it And all struggle to maintain and pass on some aspects of that culture if only the awed thankfulness of the traveler in A Harvest who exclaims about his own journey but my God what a delight just to travel through

The Souls of Black Folk W.E.B. Du Bois,2000-11-01 Selected by the Modern Library as one of the 100 best nonfiction books of all time The problem of the twentieth century is the problem of the color line Thus speaks W E B Du Bois in The Souls Of Black Folk one of the most prophetic and influential works in American literature In this eloquent collection of essays first published in 1903 Du Bois dares as no one has before to describe the magnitude of American racism and demand an end to it He draws on his own life for illustration from his early experiences teaching in the hills of Tennessee to the death of his infant son and his historic break with the conciliatory position of Booker T Washington Far ahead of its time The Souls Of Black Folk both anticipated and inspired much of the black consciousness and activism of the 1960 s and is a classic in the literature of civil rights The elegance of DuBois s prose and the passion of his message are as crucial today as they were upon the book s first publication

The Long and Winding Road: a collection of short stories Fairbanks,2024-03-05 Long and Winding Road is a collection of eleven short stories Nine of the stories are prose one is a play and another is a narrative poem but all eleven are really stories just in different genres The value of a collection of short stories is that you can read just one story at a sitting or two sittings for the longer stories rest from it and then dip in for another treat next reading session Settings are primarily Australian though one story is set in a fictitious ancient kingdom and one in northern Mexico and parts of USA The short play is set in a nursing home of all places Readers will meet a range of interesting characters Miss Magnolia who has a secret Viv Black who uncovers a secret the trans gender Al Mara the young loom girl Therese who becomes Queen the boy wonder Agave who was born without vocal cords but is anything but mute Mohair Mary the talented and prescient Aboriginal woman Doreen teen Essie Esmerelda who discovers gold as she discovers her Self the former sex worker Penelope in a nursing home Master Nathaniel who dies by guillotine and dozens more Some stories border on the bawdy but nothing X rated some deal with tragedy and misadventure some with romance and strong personal bonds It s like life We trudge along life s path the winding road dragging life s burdens behind in the dust not knowing what lies around the next bend But always there are more stories to tell

The Long Road Home and Other Short Stories from the Silences in the Gospel of Mark James S. Lowry,2013-05-17 Borrowing from the ancient rabbinic use of midrash as a means of opening Scripture to students James Lowry has chosen six texts from among those in which he believes Mark deliberately left silences The author is convinced Mark hoped his readers would be encouraged to raise a variety of possibilities as to what the evangelist left unsaid Beginning with Mark choosing not to name the temptations of Jesus Mark 1 12 13 and concluding with Mark choosing to conclude his narrative with the women leaving the tomb of Jesus in stunned silence Mark 16 8 Lowry spins short stories that suggest several alternative ideas as to how the biblical narrative might have played In half of the tales Lowry enters the text and adds fictitious material to Mark's narrative In the other half his stories are set in the small textile town of Great Falls South Carolina where the author grew up in the 1950s The hope is these stories will encourage readers of Mark and groups of his readers to raise other possibilities

Short Stories Fitzgerald Francis Scott Fitzgerald, 2014-05-23 Francis Scott Key Fitzgerald 1896-1940 was an American author of novels and short stories whose works are the paradigmatic writings of the Jazz Age a term he coined Includes short stories collections All the Sad Young Men Taps at Reveille and the short story The Curious Case of Benjamin Button and fifty-five 55 other short stories Today F. Scott Fitzgerald is known for his novels but in his lifetime his fame stemmed from his prolific achievement as one of America's most gifted and best paid writers of stories and novellas This masterpiece ranges from early stories that capture the fashion of the times to later ones written after the author's fabled crack up which are sober reflections on his own youthful excesses Included are classic novellas such as The Rich Boy The Strange Case of Benjamin Button Together these forty-three stories compose a vivid picture of a lost era but their brilliance is timeless As Malcolm Cowley once wrote Fitzgerald remains an exemplar and archetype but not of the 1920s alone in the end he represents the human spirit in one of its permanent forms This essential collection is ample testament to that statement and a monument to the genius of one of the great voices in the history of American literature

Tess of the d'Urbervilles Thomas Hardy, 2000-11-01 Etched against the background of a dying rural society Tess of the d'Urbervilles was Thomas Hardy's bestseller and Tess Durbeyfield remains his most striking and tragic heroine Of all the characters he created she meant the most to him Hopelessly torn between two men Alec d Urberville a wealthy dissolute young man who seduces her in a lonely wood and Angel Clare her provincial moralistic and unforgiving husband Tess escapes from her vise of passion through a horrible desperate act Like the greatest characters in literature Tess lives beyond the final pages of the book as a permanent citizen of the imagination said Irving Howe In Tess he stakes everything on his sensuous apprehension of a young woman s life a girl who is at once a simple milkmaid and an archetype of feminine strength Tess is that rare creature in literature goodness made interesting Now Tess of the d Urbervilles has been brought to television in a magnificent new co production from A Oliver Milburn Chandler and Jason Flemyng is Alec d Urberville The cast also includes John McEnery Black Beauty as Jack Durbeyfield and Lesley Dunlop The Elephant Man as Joan Durbeyfield Tess of the d Urbervilles is directed by Ian Sharp and produced by Sarah Wilson with a screenplay by Ted Whitehead it was filmed in Hardy country the beautiful English countryside in Dorset where Thomas Hardy set his novels South Asian American Stories of Self Tasneem

Mandviwala,2022-10-04 This book acknowledges and discusses the now politically infamous aspects of an American Muslim woman s life such as Islamophobia and hijab but it more importantly examines how women actually deal with these obstacles intentionally shifting the lens to capture a more holistic nuanced understanding of their human experiences This text is based on a three year long qualitative interdisciplinary cultural and developmental psychology and gender systems study It uniquely organizes risks protective factors and coping mechanisms according to developmental life stages from teenage to adulthood Results show how second generation Muslim American women s identities develop during adolescence 11 18 emerging adulthood 19 29 and adulthood 30 39 within multiple socio cultural contexts Discussions regarding Muslim Americans often erroneously equate Muslim with Arab or Middle Eastern By focusing on South Asian Muslim Americans this work bluntly discusses the overlaps of South Asian culture with Islam an important contribution to the field since the majority of immigrant Muslims in America are of South Asian descent This study adds nuance and detail to American Muslim girls and women s experiences while fighting misinformation and stereotypes It is a significant contribution to anthropological developmental psychology and cultural psychology The focus on a historically academically marginalized population is beneficial to students researchers and professionals in the field Russian Irrationalism from Pushkin to Brodsky Olga

Tabachnikova,2016-10-27 Russia once compared to a giant sphinx is often considered in the Anglophone world an alien culture often threatening and always enigmatic Although recognizably European Russian culture also has mystical features including the idiosyncratic phenomenon of Russian irrationalism Historically Russian irrationalism has been viewed with caution in the West where it is often seen as antagonistic to and subversive of the rational foundations of Western speculative philosophy Some of the remarkable achievements of the Russian irrationalist approach however especially in the artistic sphere have been recognized and even admired though not sufficiently investigated Bridging the gap between intellectual cultures Olga Tabachnikova discusses such fundamental irrationalist themes as language and the linguistic underpinning of culture the power of illusion in national consciousness the changing relationship between love and morality the cultural roots of humour as well as the relevance of various individual writers and philosophers from Pushkin to Brodsky to the construction of Russian irrationalism Cover Stories (Routledge Revivals) Michael Denning, 2014-07-11 First published in 1987 this title tracks the spy thriller from John Buchanan to Eric Ambler Ian Fleming and John Le Carr and shows how these tales of spies moles and the secret service tell a history of modern society translating the political and cultural transformations of the twentieth century into the intrigues of a shadow world of secret agents Combining cultural history with narrative analysis Cover Stories explores the two main traditions of the thriller the thriller of the work in which bureaucratic routines are invested with political meaning and the thriller of leisure in which the sports and games that kill time become a time of dangerous political contests Examining the characteristic narrative structures of the spy novel the adventure formulas and the plots of betrayal disguise and doubles Denning shows how they attempt to resolve crises and contradictions in ideologies of nation and empire and of class and gender Stories of Coming Home William Fitzgerald, 1997 A book that helps readers wade through the messiness in their lives thereby offering nourishment encouragement and solace
