Lyautey And The French Conquest Of Morocco:

Lyautey and the French Conquest of Morocco William A. Hoisington Jr, 1995-08-11 Lyautey and the French Conquest of Morocco describes and analyzes the method of colonial conquest and rule linked to the name of Marshal Louis Hubert Lyautey 1854 1934 France's first resident general in Morocco and the most famous of France's 20th century overseas soldier administrators Lyautey popularized the notions of peaceful penetration and indirect rule as part of a grand colonial design of military pacification economic development political modernization and social betterment For Lyautey imperialism could be a life giving force for both Frenchmen and Moroccans alike and during his thirteen years as resident general he boldly promoted France's actions in Morocco as the highest form of imperialism This book traces the development of Lyautey's ideas on conquest and rule at home and abroad and shows how they translated into practice While there was much that was praiseworthy in Lyautey's approach to colonial matters in the end force always remained more effective than anything else and whether used gently or severely it failed to stem Moroccan resistance to French rule Based on archival material in Morocco and France Lyautey and the French Conquest of Morocco is the first book to deal in a detailed manner with French pacification strategy in Morocco and with the mechanics of indirect rule always in reality rather more direct than indirect It should be of great value to readers of 19th and 20th century French European and North African history and to students of colonialism and imperialism

French Military Rule in Morocco Moshe Gershovich, 2012-10-12 This analysis of French colonial ideology and interest in Morocco delineates the manner in which the agents of the protectorate regime sought to conquer the country and control its indigenous inhabitants Numerous comparative perspectives are offered placing the French policy towards Morocco in a wider context making this study relevant to not only North Africa but also to other parts of the post colonial world

Lamentation and Modernity in Literature, Philosophy, and Culture R. Saunders, 2007-10-01 Saunders analyzes the ideological uses of loss in literary philosophical and social texts from the late 19th and 20th centuries through the lens of women's lament traditions and includes philosophical texts by Nietzsche Heidegger and Derrida and literary works by William Faulkner Stéphane Mallarmé Dimitris Hatzis and Tahar Ben Jelloun

The French empire between the wars Martin Thomas, 2017-03-01 By considering the distinctiveness of the inter war years as a discrete period of colonial change this book addresses several larger issues such as tracing the origins of decolonization in the rise of colonial nationalism and a re assessment of the impact of inter war colonial rebellions in Africa Syria and Indochina The book also connects French theories of colonial governance to the lived experience of colonial rule in a period scarred by war and economic dislocation

Anthropology, Colonial Policy and the Decline of French Empire in Africa Douglas W. Leonard, 2019-12-26 Conceived as both a vehicle to national prestige and as a civilizing mission the second French colonial empire 1830 1962 challenged soldiers scholars and administrators to understand societies radically different from their own The resultant networks of anthropological inquiry however did not have this effect Rather they opened pathways to political and intellectual independence framed in the language of social science and in the process upended the colonial political system and reshaped the nature of human inquiry in France While still unequal French colonial rule in Africa revealed the durability and strength of non European modes of thought In this influential new study historian Douglas W Leonard examines the political and intellectual repercussions of French efforts to understand and to dominate colonial Africa through the use of anthropology From General Louis Faidherbe in the 1840s to politician Jacques Soustelle and sociologist Pierre Bourdieu in the 1950s these French thinkers sowed the seeds of colonial destruction

Wars Of Imperial Conquest Bruce Vandervort, 2015-01-28 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Arguing about Empire Martin Thomas, Richard Toye, 2019-02-21 Arguing about Empire analyses the most divisive arguments about empire between Europe's two leading colonial powers from the age of high imperialism to the post war era of decolonization Focusing on the domestic contexts underlying imperial rhetoric Arguing about Empire adopts a case study approach treating key imperial debates as historical episodes to be investigated in depth The episodes in question have been selected both for their chronological range their variety and above all their vitriol Some were straightforward disputes others involved cooperation in tense circumstances These include the Tunisian and Egyptian crises of 1881-2 which saw France and Britain establish new North African protectorates ostensibly in co operation but actually in competition the Fashoda Crisis of 1898 when Britain and France came to the brink of war in the aftermath of the British reconquest of Sudan the Moroccan crises of 1905 and 1911 early tests of the Entente Cordiale when Britain lent support to France in the face of German threats the 1922 Chanak crisis when that imperial Entente broke down in the face of a threatened attack on Franco British forces by Kemalist Turkey World War Two which can be seen in part as an undeclared colonial war between the former allies complicated by the division of the French Empire between De Gaulle's Free French forces and those who remained loyal to the Vichy Regime and finally the 1956 Suez intervention when far from defusing another imperial crisis Britain colluded with France and Israel to invade Egypt the culmination of the imperial interference that began some eighty years earlier

Intelligence, Crises and Security Len Scott, R. Gerald Hughes, 2013-09-13 This collection of essays by leading experts seeks to explore what lessons for the exploitation and management of secret intelligence might be drawn from a variety of case studies ranging from the 1920s to the War on Terror Long regarded as the missing dimension of international history and politics public and academic interest in the role of secret intelligence has continued to grow in recent years not least as a result of controversy surrounding the terrorist attacks on the United States on September 11 2001 Intelligence Crises and Security addresses a range of themes including crisis management covert diplomacy intelligence tradecraft counterterrorism intelligence overload intelligence in relation to neutral states deception and signals intelligence The work breaks new ground in relation to numerous key international episodes and events not least as a result of fresh disclosures from government archives across the world This book was previously published as a special issue of Intelligence and National Security

Colonial Cinema and

Imperial France, 1919-1939 David Henry Slavin,2001-10-09 In this book the author uses such key colonial era films as L'Atlantide and Pepe le Moko to document how the French cinema reflected the changing policies and values of French colonialism in the inter war period

Neocolonialism and Built Heritage Daniel E. Coslett,2019-07-02 Architectural relics of nineteenth and twentieth century colonialism dot cityscapes throughout our globalizing world just as built traces of colonialism remain embedded within the urban fabric of many European capitals Neocolonialism and Built Heritage

addresses the sustained presence and influence of historic built environments and processes inherited from colonialism within the contemporary lives of cities in Africa Asia and Europe Novel in their focused consideration of ways in which these built environments reinforce neocolonialist connections among former colonies and colonizers states and international organizations the volume s case studies engage highly relevant issues such as historic preservation heritage management tourism toponymy and cultural imperialism Interrogating the life of the past in the present authors thus challenge readers to consider the roles played by a diversity of historic built environments in the ongoing asymmetrical balance of power and unequal distribution capital around the globe They present buildings maintenance management reuse and re interpretation and in so doing they raise important questions the ramifications of which transcend the specifics of the individual sites and architectural histories they present

Regeneration Through Empire Margaret Cook Andersen, 2015-01-20 Following France s defeat in the Franco Prussian War in 1870-71 French patriots feared that their country was in danger of becoming a second rate power in Europe Decreasing birth rates had largely slowed French population growth and the country s population was not keeping pace with that of its European neighbors To regain its standing in the European world France set its sights on building a vast colonial empire while simultaneously developing a policy of pronatalism to reverse these demographic trends Though representing distinct political movements colonial supporters and pronatalist organizations were born of the same crisis and reflected similar anxieties concerning France s trajectory and position in the world Regeneration through Empire explores the intersection between colonial lobbyists and pronatalists in France s Third Republic Margaret Cook Andersen argues that as the pronatalist movement became more organized at the end of the nineteenth century pronatalists increasingly understood their demographic crisis in terms that transcended the boundaries of the metropole and began to position the French empire specifically its colonial holdings in North Africa and Madagascar as a key component in the nation s regeneration Drawing on an array of primary sources from French archives Regeneration through Empire is the first book to analyze the relationship between depopulation and imperialism
