E. Clarke,2011-03-08 The recent conflict between indigenous Uyghurs and Han Chinese demonstrates that Xinjiang is a major trouble spot for China with Uyghur demands for increased autonomy and where Beijing's policy is to more firmly integrate the province within China This book provides an account of how China's evolving integrationist policies in Xinjiang have influenced its foreign policy in Central Asia since the establishment of the People's Republic in 1949 and how the policy of integration is related to China's concern for security and its pursuit of increased power and influence in Central Asia The book traces the development of Xinjiang from the collapse of the Qing empire in the early twentieth century to the present and argues that there is a largely complementary relationship between China's Xinjiang Central Asia and grand strategy derived interests This pattern of interests informs and shapes China's diplomacy in Central Asia and its approach to the governance of Xinjiang Michael E Clarke shows how China's concerns and policies although pursued with vigour in recent decades are of long standing and how domestic problems and policies in Xinjiang have for a long time been closely bound up with wider international relations issues Community Matters in Xinjiang: 1880-1949 Ildikó Bellér-Hann,2008-08-31

Xinjiang and the Chinese State Debasish Chaudhuri,2017-08-18 This book focuses on the nature of ethno national conflicts and impacts of ideological orientation of the Communist Party of China CPC towards the national question in the context of Han nationalism and political economic and security policies towards Xinjiang Violence in Xinjiang since the mid 1990s is projected as one of the major national security challenges for China along with issues pertaining to Tibet and Taiwan. The author argues that the post Mao reformist model may have been a beneficial economic and political innovation but failed in dealing with regional conflicts and unrests arising out of the demands for independence, freedom, greater autonomy and assertion of democratic and civic rights. The book discusses Chinese nationalism and the construction of Uyghur national identity, consequences of economic modernisation in the region, ethnic conflicts and coercive measures, the security and social stability situation in Xinjiang, intensification of violence in Xinjiang under the new leadership, vision of the Chinese dream, key policies and programmes, post riot fallouts and social contradictions, manifest in discourses surrounding development, separatist violence, religious fundamentalism and international terrorism. With its in depth accessible and comprehensive analyses, this book will be a valuable addition to scholars and researchers of Chinese studies, politics and international relations, security and strategic studies, sociology, social anthropology and ethnic studies.
