Cassels. With] 1980 suppl., by D.K. and F.K. Cassels Robert Cassels,1870 Roots of Entanglement Myra Rutherdale,Kerry Abel,P. Whitney Lackenbauer,2018-01-31 Roots of Entanglement offers an historical exploration of the relationships between Indigenous peoples and European newcomers in the territory that would become Canada Various engagements between Indigenous peoples and the state are emphasized and questions are raised about the ways in which the past has been perceived and how those perceptions have shaped identity and in turn interaction both past and present Specific topics such as land resources treaties laws policies and cultural politics are explored through a range of perspectives that reflect state of the art research in the field of Indigenous history Editors Myra Rutherdale Whitney Lackenbauer and Kerry Abel have assembled an array of top scholars including luminaries such as Keith Carlson Bill Waiser Skip Ray and Ken Coates Roots of Entanglement is a direct response to the Truth and Reconciliation Commission s call for a better appreciation of the complexities of history in the relationship between Indigenous and non Indigenous peoples in Canada The Scottish Nation; Or The Surnames, Families, Literature Honours, and Biographical History of the People of Scotland. [With Illustrations, Including Portraits, and Genealogical Tables.] William Anderson (Miscellaneous Writer.),1863 Records of the Family of Cassels and Connexions Robert CASSELS (of Edinburgh.),1870 Wood Engravings and Drawings of Iain Macnab of Barachastlain Albert Garrett,1973 The Scottish Nation; or the Surnames, Families, Literature, Honours, and Biographical History of the People of Scotland William Anderson,2021-10-29 Reprint of the original first published in 1867 Housing the North American City Michael Doucet,John C. Weaver,1991-08-06 Doucet and Weaver begin this empirical analytical and narrative study with an analysis of the evolution of land development as an enterprise and continue with an examination of house design and construction practices the development of the apartment building and an account of class and age as they relate to housing tenure They also relate developments in Hamilton to the current state of urban historiography using their case study to resolve discrepancies and contradictions in the literature Among the major themes the authors deal with is a controversial exploration of what they see as a central North American urge the desire to own a home Other themes include the social allocation of urban space the quality and affordability of housing the increased interest of large corporations in the land development and financial service industries and a comparative analysis of housing in Canada and the United States The authors have drawn on civic and business records dating from the early nineteenth century to the latest planning data Combining this information with their comprehensive analysis Doucet and Weaver show that current housing problems and potential solutions are better understood when seen as part of a historical process They provide a critical assessment of the ways in which contemporary society produces shelter and question the use of technical innovations alone to resolve housing crises
