Our Unswerving Loyalty David W. Lovell, Kevin Windle, 2008-08-01 The story of the Communist Party of Australia has been told in various ways Until now however archival collections that have borne on this story have been relatively inaccessible to the ordinary interested reader This book begins to redress that deficiency by bringing together 85 key documents from the Russian State Archives of Social and Political History RGASPI selected from a collection of thousands of documents concerning the relations between the Communist International and the Communist Party of Australia The selection focuses on the relationship between the CPA and the Comintern because the activities of the CPA are essentially incomprehensible without understanding the international communist context within which the CPA operated That context was dominated by the newly created Soviet state and its decision to authorize and utilize a network of communist parties throughout the world

An Introduction to Substructural Logics Greg Restall, 2002-09-11 This book introduces an important group of logics that have come to be known under the umbrella term substructural Substructural logics have independently led to significant developments in philosophy computing and linguistics An Introduction to Substructural Logics is the first book to systematically survey the new results and the significant impact that this class of logics has had on a wide range of fields The following topics are covered Proof Theory Propositional Structures Frames Decidability Coda Both students and professors of philosophy computing linguistics and mathematics will find this to be an important addition to their reading

Writing Home Glenn Morrison, 2017-01-30 Writing Home explores the literary representation of Australian places by those who have walked them In particular it examines how Aboriginal and settler narratives of walking have shaped portrayals of Australia's Red Centre and consequently ideas of nation and belonging Central Australia has long been characterised as a frontier the supposed divide between black and white ancient and modern But persistently representing it in this way is preventing Australians from re imagining this internationally significant region as home Writing Home argues that the frontier no longer adequately describes Central Australia and that the Aboriginal songlines make a significant but under acknowledged contribution to Australian discourses of hybridity belonging and home Drawing on anthropology cultural theory journalism politics and philosophy the book traces shifting perceptions of Australian place and space since precolonial times through six recounted walking journeys of the Red Centre

Ishtar Louise M. Pryke, 2017-07-14 Ishtar is the first book dedicated to providing an accessible analysis of the mythology and image of this complex goddess The polarity of her nature is reflected in her role as goddess of sexual love and war and has made her difficult to characterise in modern scholarship By exploring this complexity Ishtar offers insight into Mesopotamian culture and thought and elucidates a goddess who transcended the limits of gender divinity and nature It gives an accessible introduction to the Near Eastern pantheon while also opening a pathway for comparison with the later Near Eastern and Mediterranean deities who followed her

India On Our Minds: Essays By Tharman Shanmugaratnam And 50 Singaporean Friends Of India Tommy Koh, Hernaikh Singh, 2020-11-25 Singapore and India established diplomatic relations in August 1965 However their ties date as far back as the 10th century The last half century has seen a blossoming of their relationship The two countries warm and substantive friendship is based upon history economics defense cooperation and a high degree of mutual trust The relationship is quite unique because a significant portion of Singapore s population consists of ethnic Indians and an Indian language Tamil is one of Singapore s official languages The book brings together 52 of Singapore s thought leaders They come from different sectors of the Singapore s society Each of them has written an essay on India s past or present or future Each essay is short easy to read and full of insight and humour One of the writers is Singapore s Senior Minister Mr Tharman Shanmugaratnam a person who is admired both in Singapore and in India The book includes essays on Nalanda University Amaravati India Singapore Comprehensive Economic Cooperation Agreement and the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership On the lighter side the book contains two charming essays by Ambassador Karen Tan and Eirliani Abdul Rahman on their time in India The book s foreword is written by Mr Goh Chok Tong Singapore s second Prime Minister It was Mr Goh who overcame prejudice and inertia and launched a new beginning in Singapore India relations This publication is a candid reflection of India and India Singapore relations by Singaporeans who carry the hope that India will rise above its challenges to join the ranks of the great nations of the world It will be of interest to Singaporeans who are interested in India and Indians who are interested in Singapore
