Macroeconomic Determinants Of International Migration In Europe Population Stories:

Macro-economic Determinants of International Migration in Europe Roel Peter Wilhelmina Jennissen, 2004 Discusses macro economic determinants of international migration in Europe

Determinants of Illegal Migration Robert Wiliater Sibarani, 2018-10-08 Deportation remains a critical issue within labour migration from East Java to Malaysia The research presented in this book focuses on the most predominant factors determining why workers from East Java migrate illegally to Malaysia It finds out that the difference between wages before migration and expected wages in Malaysia the low educational level below junior secondary school being married and being between 15 and 30 years old increases the probability the workers from East Java migrate illegally to Malaysia Based on the findings the recommendations which are proposed to local government are to communicate actively with the migrant candidates to explain legal migration to implement strict control against the presence of illegal agents and encourage opening more branches of PPTKIS Private Agency for Placement of Indonesian Migrant Workers Abroad in the remote areas in East Java

The Macroeconomics of Open Economies Under Labour Mobility George M Agiomirgianakis, 2019-05-29 First published in 1999 this study recognises the importance of international labour mobility for modern economics This is in large part due to its effects on the size age structure and skills of the labour force the human flow between countries and the expected rise in scale as a result of income differentials demographic pressures and differential labour force growth rates along with developments in transport and communications These migrations are increasingly volatile and unpredictable whilst being concentrated in regions like Australia the USA Sub Saharan Africa and Western Europe Given the extensive literature on the microeconomic view George M Agiomirgianakis aims to extend the debate on open economy macroeconomics through an exploration of international labour mobilities and their effects on open economies with flexible exchange rates

The SAGE Handbook of International Migration Christine Inglis, Wei Li, Binod Khadria, 2019-11-05 The SAGE Handbook of International Migration provides an authoritative and informed analysis of key issues in international migration including its crucial significance far beyond the more traditional questions of immigrant settlement and incorporation in particular countries Bringing together chapters contributed by an international cast of leading voices in the field the Handbook is arranged around four key thematic parts Part 1 Disciplinary Perspectives on Migration Part 2 Historical and Contemporary Flows of Migrants Part 3 Theory Policy and the Factors Affecting Incorporation Part 4 National and Global Policy Challenges in Migration The last three decades have seen the rapid increase and diversification in the types of international migration and this Handbook has been created to meet the need among academics and researchers across the social sciences policy makers and commentators for a definitive publication which provides a range of perspectives and insights into key themes and debates in the field

Oxford Textbook of Global Public Health Roger Detels, Quarraisha Abdool Karim, Fran Baum, Liming Li, Alastair H Leyland, 2021-10-29 The Oxford Textbook of Global Public Health is the ultimate resource on the subject of public health and epidemiology It offers a global and comprehensive perspective on wide ranging public health needs and priorities in modern health care Thoroughly revised and updated for the seventh edition the book is split into three main topics The Scope of Public Health covers the development of the discipline determinants of health and disease and policies law and ethics The second volume focuses on The Methods of Public Health including the science of epidemiology social science techniques and environmental techniques Finally The Practice of Public Health is fully explored with sections on specific public health problems ways of prevention and control the varying needs of different populations and the functions of public health services and professionals Three new editors have joined for this edition Liming Li China Fran Baum Australia and Alastair H Leyland UK complimenting Quarraisha Abdool Karim South Africa and Roger Detels USA for a truly global perspective on public health Featuring over 225 contributors from countries all over the world ensures that the book covers public health from all aspects with vastly different health systems and priorities Featuring new chapters on gender identity and gender based violence environmental health and climate change genomics and epidemiology and emerging and re emerging infectious diseases the seventh edition of the Oxford Textbook of Global Public Health remains the most comprehensive text on the subject and is a vital resource for public health practitioners and trainees clinical epidemiologists and students in the field

Immigrant Integration in Europe Angela Paparusso, 2021-08-08 This topical book sheds light on immigrants subjective well being by analysing the main factors associated with self reported life satisfaction among immigrants and natives It thereby draws upon subjective components of well being which are now receiving growing attention in well being research It also fills in a gap in migration research which has not yet focused on the study of immigrants well being Starting from a broader focus on Europe the book then looks more closely at Italy This is a key country in the immigration policy field in Europe but where the study of immigrants integration from a subjective perspective has been rarely addressed so far The book provides suggestions for constructing and implementing immigration and integration policies by not only taking into account the needs of the host societies but also the experiences opinions requirements and expectations of immigrants This book is very useful for academic and policy researchers working on immigrant integration issues Sociological Abstracts
