Walking to Magdalena Seth Schermerhorn, 2019-04-01 In Walking to Magdalena Seth Schermerhorn explores a question that is central to the interface of religious studies and Native American and indigenous studies What have Native peoples made of Christianity By focusing on the annual pilgrimage of the Tohono O odham to Magdalena in Sonora Mexico Schermerhorn examines how these indigenous people of southern Arizona have made Christianity their own This walk serves as the entry point for larger questions about what the Tohono O odham have made of Christianity With scholarly rigor and passionate empathy Schermerhorn offers a deep understanding of Tohono O odham Christian traditions as practiced in everyday life and in the words of the O odham themselves The author s rich ethnographic description and analyses are also drawn from his experiences accompanying a group of O odham walkers on their pilgrimage to Saint Francis in Magdalena For many years scholars have agreed that the journey to Magdalena is the largest and most significant event in the annual cycle of Tohono O odham Christianity Never before however has it been the subject of sustained scholarly inquiry Walking to Magdalena offers insight into religious life and expressive culture relying on extensive field study videotaped and transcribed oral histories of the O odham and archival research The book illuminates indigenous theories of personhood and place in the everyday life narratives songs and material culture of the Tohono O odham A Study in Sable Mercedes
