Maternal Ethics And Other Slave Moralities:

Maternal Ethics and Other Slave Moralities Cynthia Willett, 2013-12-19 In Maternal Ethics and Other Slave Moralities which includes the first extended philosophical discussion of the works of Frederick Douglass Cynthia Willett puts forward a novel theory of ethical subjectivity that is aimed to counter prevailing pathologies of sexist racist Eurocentric culture Weaving together accounts of the self drawn from African American and European philosophies psychoanalysis slave narratives and sociology Willett interrogates what Hegel locates as the core of the self the desire for Interspecies Ethics Cynthia Willett, 2014-09-02 Interspecies Ethics explores animals vast capacity for agency justice solidarity humor and communication across species The social bonds diverse animals form provide a remarkable model for communitarian justice and cosmopolitan peace challenging the human exceptionalism that drives modern moral theory Situating biosocial ethics firmly within coevolutionary processes this volume has profound implications for work in social and political thought contemporary pragmatism Africana thought and continental philosophy Interspecies Ethics develops a communitarian model for multispecies ethics rebalancing the overemphasis on competition in the original Darwinian paradigm by drawing out and stressing the cooperationist aspects of evolutionary theory through mutual aid The book's ethical vision offers an alternative to utilitarian deontological and virtue ethics building its argument through rich anecdotes and clear explanations of recent scientific discoveries regarding animals and their agency Geared toward a general as well as a philosophical audience the text illuminates a variety of theories and contrasting approaches tracing the contours of a postmoral ethics Strange Encounters Sara Ahmed, 2013-02-01 Examining the relationship between strangers embodiment and community Strange Encounters challenges the assumptions that the stranger is simply anybody we do not recognize and instead proposes that he or she is socially constructed as somebody we already know Using feminist and postcolonial theory this book examines the impact of multiculturalism and globalization on embodiment and community whilst considering the ethical and political implication of its critique for post colonial feminism A diverse range of texts are analyzed which produce the figure of the stranger showing that it has alternatively been expelled as the origin of danger such as in neighbourhood watch or celebrated as the origin of difference as in multiculturalism The author argues that both of these standpoints are problematic as they involve stranger fetishism they assume that the stranger has a life of its own Mad Mothers, Bad Mothers, and What a "Good" Mother Would Do Sarah LaChance Adams, 2014-04-29 When a mother kills her child we call her a bad mother but as this book shows even mothers who intend to do their children harm are not easily categorized as mad or bad Maternal love is a complex emotion rich with contradictory impulses and desires and motherhood is a conflicted state in which women constantly renegotiate the needs mother and child the self and the other Applying care ethics philosophy and the work of Emmanuel Levinas Maurice Merleau Ponty and Simone de Beauvoir to real world experiences of motherhood Sarah LaChance Adams throws the inherent tensions of motherhood into sharp relief drawing a more nuanced portrait of the mother and child relationship than previously conceived The maternal example is particularly instructive for ethical theory highlighting the dynamics of human interdependence while also affirming separate interests LaChance Adams particularly focuses on maternal ambivalence and its morally productive role in reinforcing the divergence between oneself and others helping to recognize the particularities of situation and negotiating the difference between one's own needs and the desires of others She ultimately argues maternal filicide is a social problem requiring a collective solution that ethical philosophy and philosophies of care can inform

Caring and Power in Female Leadership Janet L. Borgerson, 2019-01-10 Can philosophical understandings of power and care illuminate roadblocks that disrupt the potential of women in leadership This book examines leadership challenges by drawing upon debates that pulse through the history of philosophy and into present day philosophical conversations and larger social concerns Its in depth engagement with Nietzsche's power theory and its historically grounded discussion of debates in feminist ethics around sexual dualism and care offer essential lessons for contemporary leadership studies The book provides compelling examples from literature film and art history as well as short case studies of contemporary lives that productively demonstrate tensions between concepts and embodiments of caring and power Its analysis of related notions of resentment desire disobedience and resistance creates novel dimensions for addressing barriers that undermine successful female leadership such as the glass cliff As such the book reveals how philosophical investigations add to understandings in leadership business ethics and organization studies

The Philosopher Queen Chris J. Cuomo, 2003 The search for an ethic that is joyful and life loving yet politically and scientifically realistic is at the root of Cuomo's recent philosophy

The Ethics of Care Virginia Held, 2006 The author assesses the ethics of care as a promising alternative to the familiar moral theories that serve so inadequately to guide our lives Held examines what we mean by care and focuses on caring relationships She also looks at the potential of care for dealing with social issues and global problems

Witnessing Kelly Oliver, 2001-01-03 Challenging the fundamental tenet of the multicultural movement that social struggles turning upon race gender and sexuality are struggles for recognition this work offers a powerful critique of current conceptions of identity and subjectivity based on Hegelian notions of recognition The author's critical engagement with major texts of contemporary philosophy prepares the way for a highly original conception of ethics based on witnessing Central to this project is Oliver's contention that the demand for recognition is a symptom of the pathology of oppression that perpetuates subject object and same different hierarchies While theorists across the disciplines of the humanities and social sciences focus their research on multiculturalism around the struggle for recognition Oliver argues that the actual texts and survivors accounts from the aftermath of the Holocaust and slavery are testimonials to a pathos that is beyond recognition Oliver traces many of the problems with the recognition model of subjective identity to a particular notion of vision presupposed in theories of recognition and misrecognition Contesting the idea of an objectifying gaze she reformulates vision as a loving look that facilitates connection rather than necessitates alienation As an alternative

Oliver develops a theory of witnessing subjectivity She suggests that the notion of witnessing with its double meaning as either eyewitness or bearing witness to the unseen is more promising than recognition for describing the onset and sustenance of subjectivity Subjectivity is born out of and sustained by the process of witnessing the possibility of address and response which puts ethical obligations at its heart The Oxford Handbook of Ethical Theory David Copp,2006-01-26 The Handbook is a comprehensive reference work in ethical theory consisting of commissioned articles by leading scholars The first part treats meta ethics and the second part normative ethical theory As with all the Oxford Handbooks the collection is designed to achieve three goals exposition of central ideas criticism of other approaches and defenses of distinct points of view A Political Companion to Frederick Douglass Neil Roberts,2018-06-29 A splendid opportunity to rethink Douglass's political thought relevant today given the discourse of white nationalism in the United States Choice Frederick Douglass was a writer and public speaker whose impact on America has been long studied by historians and literary critics Yet as political theorists have focused on the legacies of such notables as W E B Du Bois and Booker T Washington Douglass's profound influence on Afro modern and American political thought has often been undervalued In an effort to fill this gap in the scholarship on Douglass editor Neil Roberts and an exciting group of established and rising scholars examine the author's autobiographies essays speeches and novella Together they illuminate his genius for analyzing and articulating core American ideals such as independence liberation individualism and freedom particularly in the context of slavery The contributors explore Douglass's understanding of the self made American and the way in which he expanded the notion of individual potential by arguing that citizens had a responsibility to improve not only their own situations but also those of their communities A Political Companion to Frederick Douglass also considers the idea of agency investigating Douglass's passionate insistence that every person in a democracy even a slave possesses an innate ability to act Various essays illuminate Douglass's complex racial politics deconstructing what seems at first to be his surprising aversion to racial pride and others explore and critique concepts of masculinity gender and judgment in his oeuvre The volume concludes with a discussion of Douglass's contributions to pre and post Civil War jurisprudence Rich insights from scholarship both old and new A fine collection Political Theory Racism in Mind Michael P. Levine,Tamas Pataki,2018-08-06 This philosophical analysis of the phenomenon of racism brings together some of the most influential analytic philosophers writing on racism today The introduction by Tamas Pataki outlines the historical and thematic development of conceptions of race and racism and locates the following essays against the backdrop of contemporary reactions to that development While the framework is primarily analytic the volume also includes essays deeply informed by psychoanalysis phenomenology and feminist and social theory The fourteen chapters in this collection address three interrelated questions What is racism What are the causes of racism And what are the moral and political implications of racism Although their approaches are wide ranging the contributors to Racism in Mind broadly endorse a psychological characterological approach to the understanding of many aspects of racism The Colonization of Psychic Space Kelly Oliver, 2004 Oliver philosophy Vanderbilt U does not attempt to apply psychoanalysis to oppression Rather she transforms psychoanalytic concepts such as alienation melancholy and shame into social concepts by developing a psychoanalytic theory based on a notion of the individual or psyche that is thoroughly social The psyche and the social world are so Family Values Kelly Oliver, 2018-05-11 Family Values shows how the various contradictions at the heart of Western conceptions of maternity and paternity problematize our relationships with ourselves and with others Using philosophical texts psychoanalytic theory studies in biology and popular culture Kelly Oliver challenges our traditional concepts of maternity which are associated with nature and our conceptions of paternity which are embedded in culture Oliver's intervention calls into question the traditional image of the oppositional relationship between nature and culture maternal and paternal Family Values also undercuts recent returns to the rhetoric of a battle between the sexes by analyzing the conceptual basis of these descriptions in biological research and the presuppositions of such suggestions in philosophy and psychoanalysis By developing a reconception of maternity and paternity Family Values offers hope for peace in the battle of the sexes Black Existentialism and Decolonizing Knowledge Lewis R. Gordon, 2023-07-13 Black Existentialism and Decolonizing Knowledge collects key philosophical writings of Lewis R Gordon a globally renowned scholar whose writings cover liberation struggles across the globe and make field defining contributions to the philosophy of existence philosophy of race Africana philosophy philosophy of human sciences aesthetics and decolonization Gordon's expansive output ranges across phenomenology anti Blackness activist thinkers sexuality Fanon Jimi Hendrix Black Jewish struggles critical pedagogy psychoanalysis and Ubuntu philosophy Edited by Rozena Maart and Sayan Dey two decolonial thinkers from South Africa and India this reader shifts attention away from colonial centres of power encouraging global dialogue across students scholars and activists Featuring a foreword by the celebrated novelist and postcolonial thinker Ngugi wa Thiong'o this reader includes a mixture of research articles short critical essays reflections interviews poems and photographs in the creative pursuit of liberation Feminism and Ecological Communities Christine Cuomo, 2002-09-11 Feminism and Ecological Communities presents a bold and passionate rethinking of the ecofeminist movement It is one of the first books to acknowledge the importance of postmodern feminist arguments against ecofeminism whilst persuasively presenting a strong new case for ecological feminism Chris J Cuomo first traces the emergence of ecofeminism from the ecological and feminist movements before clearly discussing the weaknesses of some ecofeminist positions Exploring the dualisms of nature culture and masculinizing feminine that are the bulwark of many contemporary ecofeminist positions and questioning traditional traditional feminist analyses of gender and caring Feminism and Ecological Communities asks whether women are essentially closer to nature than men and how we ought to link the oppression of women people of colour and other subjugated groups to the degradation of nature Chris J Cuomo addresses these key issues by drawing on recent work in feminist ethics as well as the work of diverse figures such as Aristotle John Dewey Donna Haraway and Maria

Lugones A fascinating feature of the book is the use of the metaphor of the cyborg to highlight the fluidity of the nature culture distinction and how this can enrich ecofeminist ethics and politics An outstanding new argument for an ecological feminism that links both theory and practice Feminism and Ecological Communities bravely redraws the ecofeminist map It will be essential reading for all those interested in gender studies environmental studies and philosophy Hospitality of the Matrix Irina Aristarkhova,2012 This book analyzes the question where do we come from by discussing the matrix The author then applies this to the science technology and art of ectogenesis and proves the question can the machine nurse
