democratic principles and how picturebooks link democracy with human qualities by utilizing democracy-themed picturebooks in the home and the school. This project holds the promise of promoting meaningful instruction of democracy through the use of picturebooks.

Handbook of Research on Children's and Young Adult Literature Shelby Wolf, Karen Coats, Patricia Enciso, Christine Jenkins, 2011-04-27 This landmark volume is the first to bring together leading scholarship on children's and young adult literature from three intersecting disciplines: Education, English, and Library and Information Science. Distinguished by its multidisciplinary approach, it describes and analyzes the different aspects of literary reading texts and contexts to illuminate how the book is transformed within and across different academic figurations of reading and interpreting children's literature. Part one considers perspectives on readers and reading literature in home, school, library, and community settings. Part two introduces analytic frames for studying young adult novels, picturebooks, indigenous literature, graphic novels, and other genres. Chapters include commentary on literary experiences and creative production from renowned authors and illustrators. Part three focuses on the social contexts of literary study with chapters on censorship, awards, marketing, and literary museums. The singular contribution of this Handbook is to lay the groundwork for colleagues across disciplines to redraw the map of their separately figured worlds, thus to enlarge the scope of scholarship and dialogue as well as push ahead into uncharted territory.

The Newcomer Student Louise H. Kreuzer, 2016-04-12 More than 50 million individuals will be forcibly displaced from their homes this year. Many will be resettled into other countries or cultures, including the United States. With specific regard to education, a growing sector of ELA instruction now caters to the unique needs of refugee and immigrant students. These Newcomer learners, as they are resettled into Westernized regions, require a tailored brand of education. The Newcomer Student is a field guide from the trenches. It is the product of one educational specialist's experiences, observations, and research in the Newcomer ELA field. It is a tale of personal participation linking grassroots to modern progressive protocol, a story of cultural exploration stemming from Louise's refugee teaching experiences and an ongoing search to discover interpersonal peace and humanistic continuity.

Reading the World with Picture Books Nancy J. Polette, 2010-07-21 This valuable reference guide provides suggestions of picture books set in more than 70 countries in each continent of the world, along with standards-based activities. Reading the World with Picture Books presents an exhaustive collection of booktalk options with picture books that are set in the major countries of each continent. Hundreds of children's books with an international flavor are organized by continent and then by country, and suggested activities accompany the titles, encouraging students to interpret information related to historical or geographic concepts and use problem-solving skills. Activities range from those appropriate for beginners to experienced researchers/writers. All call for high-level thinking and most provide opportunities to respond in creative ways. In addition, all of the activities are keyed to selected national standards in language arts and social studies. The picture books suggested are not only excellent choices to capture a booktalk audience's attention and educate young readers about world culture but also to demonstrate how human beings have adapted to the various environments of the world

Gabriela Mistral's Letters to Doris Dana Velma García-Gorena,2018-06-15

The Nobel Prize winning poet Gabriela Mistral is celebrated by her native Chile as the mother of the nation even though she spent most of her life in Mexico Europe and the United States. Throughout the Spanish speaking world and especially in Chile Mistral was characterized as a sad traditionally Catholic spinster. Yet her voluminous correspondence with Doris Dana long believed to be her secretary reveals that the two women were lovers from 1948 until Mistral's death in 1957. These letters published in Spanish in 2010 and now translated for the first time into English provide insight into her work as a poet and illuminate her perspectives on politics especially war and human rights. The correspondence also sheds light on the poet's personal life and corrects the long standing misperceptions of her as a lonely single heterosexual woman.
