People Press And Politics Of Croatia:

The People, Press, and Politics of Croatia Stjepan Malovic, Gary W. Selnow, 2001-05-30 Malovic and Selnow examine the evolution of the press government relationship in Croatia from the Tito era to the present Their story is one of three interacting players the Croatian government which until recently has sat firmly in control the compliant press which seemed little motivated to change and the largely quiescent public which demanded little from its press or its government A provocative often first hand account that will be of interest to scholars and researchers involved with Balkan current affairs journalism and politics

Historical Dictionary of Croatia Robert Stallaerts, 2009-12-22 Croatia a former republic of Yugoslavia has been a self declared independent state since July 25 1991 To its own people however it is a much older country that is finally getting another chance to forge a nation The Croats trace their roots back many centuries and the depth of this resurgent nationalism helps explain why Yugoslavia split as it did and where it did As Croatia and its people try to make a success of their new state they can take hope in the notable progress that has already been made in regards to its economic restructuring democratization and a rapprochement with their neighbors and Europe more broadly The third edition of the Historical Dictionary of Croatia relates the history of this country through a detailed chronology an introduction a bibliography and cross referenced dictionary entries on significant persons places and events institutions and organizations and political economic social cultural and religious facets

Culture and Customs of Croatia Marilyn Cvitanic, 2010-12-16 An expert guide to the present day cultural life of Croatia and how it has been influenced by the nation s tumultuous past Culture and Customs of Croatia offers an expert insider s look at a Balkan nation which for the first time since the 12th century is free to draw on its own traditions to determine its political philosophical and cultural identity Culture and Customs of Croatia provides a comprehensive overview of Croatian art and culture with an emphasis on the historical factors contributing to contemporary Croatian life An in depth exploration of the country s past lays the groundwork for a discussion of a number of current issues including progress towards EU membership the expanding role of the Catholic Church preservation of the country s World Heritage Sites the growing popularity of the nation s Adriatic coastline as a beach vacation destination and the complex still reverberating legacy of the former Yugoslavia

Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes

Building Democracy in the Yugoslav Successor States Sabrina P. Ramet, Christine M. Hassenstab, Ola Listhaug, 2017-05-15 Building democracy in societies that have known only authoritarian rule for half a century is complicated Taking the post Yugoslav region as its case study this volume shows how success with democratisation depends on various factors including establishing the rule of law the consolidation of free media and society's acceptance of ethnic religious and sexual minorities Surveying the seven successor states the authors argue that Slovenia is in a class by itself as the most successful with Croatia and Serbia not far behind The other states Bosnia Herzegovina Macedonia Montenegro and Kosovo are all struggling with problems of corruption poverty and unemployment The authors treat the issue of values as a policy problem in its own right debating the extent to which values have been transformed by changes in education and the media how churches and women's organisations have entered into the policy debate and whether governments have embraced a programme designed to effect changes in values

Language Planning and National Identity in Croatia K. Langston, A.

Peti-Stantic, 2014-09-09 Following the collapse of the former Yugoslavia Croatian was declared to be a separate language distinct from Serbian and linguistic issues became highly politicized This book examines the changing status and norms of the Croatian language and its relationship to Croatian national identity focusing on the period after Croatian independence

Doing Business with Croatia Marat Terterov, Visnja Bojanic, Visnja Bojanic, 2005-07 This is the definitive English language guide to the laws and procedures governing the Croatian property market and to the investment opportunities in the country Aimed at an international audience of property developers professional investors lawyers estate agents and multinational companies who are interested in both commercial and residential property investment it addresses issues such as gaining clear title to land land registry records gaining permission to buy a property tax on capital gains social legislation And it looks in depth at the structure and future prospects for the property market in Croatia

Democratic Transition in Croatia Sabrina P. Ramet, 2007 With the fall of communism and the breakup of Yugoslavia the successor states have faced a historic challenge to create separate modern democracies from the ashes of the former authoritarian state Central to the Croatian experience has been the issue of nationalism and whether the Croatian state should be defined as a citizens state with members of all nationality groups treated as equal or as a national state of the Croats with a consequent privileging of Croatian culture and language but also with a quota system for members of national minorities Sabrina P Ramet and Davorka Matić have gathered here a series of studies by important scholars to examine the development of Croatia in the aftermath of communism and the war that marred the transition Sixteen scholars of the region discuss the values and institutions central to Croatia's transformation from communism and toward liberal democracy They discuss economic change political parties and the uses of history since 1989 To understand the patterns in Croatia they examine how civic values have been expressed reinforced and sometimes challenged through religion education and the media The implications of nationalism in its various manifestations are treated thematically in all the analyses This book is a companion volume to a similar study on Slovenia edited by Sabrina P Ramet and Danica Fink Hafner and released in fall 2006 Together these two works form an important case study in comparison and contrast between two countries in the same region going through the transition from communism to liberal democracy Scholars and policy makers will find a wealth of material in these two volumes

EU Conditionality in the Western Balkans Florian Bieber, 2018-12-07 This volume examines how European institutions the European Union in particular through its policy of conditionality have shaped the post conflict reconstruction of the Western Balkans From state building to democratization and environmental policies this book explores whether and in what ways the EU has been successful in consolidating states and democracy in the Balkans In addition to requiring countries to be ready to join the European Union the EU has also set new conditions in an effort to become the prime international organization involved in stabilizing the Western Balkans after the wars of the 1990s Its record has been mixed the conditions of the EU have often been haphazard and were frequently not followed through In addition enlargement towards the Western Balkans has been slow and marred by open questions over the stability of some countries in the region This volume assesses the EU's struggle to transform the societies through conditionality and whether the offer of EU membership is enough to build stable democracies This book was published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies

Reporting the Attacks on Dubrovnik in 1991, and the Recognition of Croatia Mato Brautović, Renaud de la Brosse, 2017-05-11 This collection brings together 13 papers by 16 authors presented at the international conference Reporting on attacks on Dubrovnik and recognition of Croatia held in Dubrovnik Croatia in October 2011 It provides a combined scientific and practical overview of the role of the media and journalists during the attack on Dubrovnik in autumn 1991 by the federal army JNA and Montenegrin reservists This book represents a primary source of information about the propaganda war waged during the conflict between Croatia and Serbia in 1991 because some of the contributors were practical journalists and ministers during the events of that year The book is structured in three parts global media international relations and strategic communication during wartime the example of Dubrovnik and the practices of wartime reporting from the Dubrovnik area and media analysis on the subject of war in Dubrovnik and Croatia In the first part the book examines the impact of the attack on Dubrovnik and the recognition of Croatia by the international community the strategic steps taken by the Croatian government in the media propaganda war and the role of the Diaspora in winning over the international public to favour the Croatian side In the second part the book examines the reporting practices used to cover the siege of Dubrovnik and the role of local and international journalists non governmental organisations and fixers Special attention is devoted to the conflict which arises when professional journalistic standards and patriotism clash particularly if the journalist is reporting from his own town and his own family is in danger The third part of the book brings an analysis of the war propaganda used by the Croatian Serbian and Montenegrin media

Soldiers and Societies in Postcommunist Europe A. Forster, T. Edmunds, 2003-09-08 This major comparative study examines the development of military society relations in central and eastern Europe since the collapse of communism Soldiers and Societies in Post Communist Europe explores how the interaction of the common challenges of postcommunism and the diverse circumstances of individual countries are shaping patterns of military society relations in this changing region Detailed country case studies written by international experts to a common analytical framework compare the experiences of Poland the Czech Republic Slovakia Hungary Latvia Lithuania Romania Bulgaria Slovenia Croatia Yugoslavia and Ukraine Religion and the State Scott A. Merriman,2009-07-14 This timely and authoritative resource combines both topical and country by country coverage to help readers understand the coexistence of church and state in nations around the world today At a time when faith based groups have become more politically active in the United States and with religious conflicts at the epicenter of many of the world s most dangerous hotspots Religion and the State An International Analysis of Roles and Relationships could not be more welcomed or timely Country by country faith by faith it unravels the historic underpinnings and long range effects of the relationship between religious principles and the operations of government in its many guises worldwide The work combines topical essays on significant developments in the confluence of religion and law throughout the world with short descriptions of each countries current treatment of religion Readers can investigate specific nations compare situations across nations and explore key issues in the pervasive often controversial relationship between religion and government Mass Media and Drug Prevention William D. Crano,Michael Burgoon,Stuart Oskamp,2001-11-01 This book tells the story of the mass media s potential in the war against drug abuse It is based on scientific evidence on the use of media in health promotion and disease prevention Past approaches successes and failures alike are included to help enlighten future programs of research and practice Advice about the logical steps that must be taken to help alleviate the crisis of drug abuse is featured throughout The book will appeal to social scientists interested in persuasion and the media Each chapter offers information to help the conscientious practitioner maximize persuasive effects of a mass mediated presentation Croatia and the European Union Pero Maldini,Davor Paukovi?,2016-03-09 The accession of Croatia to the EU marked the end of a long and arduous period of transition Croatia had to meet significantly higher criteria than previous states with suspicion and concerns among existing members about further enlargement increasing Meanwhile initially strong public support in Croatia declined as inconsistencies in EU policy entry criteria and problems caused by the economic crisis all combined with fears about the loss of national identity and the ability to realize national interests The successful Croatian accession to the EU in 2013 shows that despite concerns on both sides the EU continues to have meaning and significance and that membership remains highly desirable Through nine mutually interrelated chapters the contributors speak not only about the political and social situation in Croatia but also prospects for the European Union itself Croatia at the United Nations, October 21, 1993-January 16, 1998 ,1998 Sites of European Antisemitism in the Age of Mass Politics, 1880-1918 Robert Nemes,Daniel Unowsky,2014-08-05 This innovative collection of essays on the upsurge of antisemitism across Europe in the decades around 1900 shifts the focus away from intellectuals and well known incidents to less familiar events actors and locations including smaller towns and villages This from below perspective offers a new look at a much studied phenomenon essays link provincial violence and antisemitic politics with regional state and even transnational trends Featuring a diverse array of geographies that include Great Britain France Austria Hungary Romania Italy Greece and the Russian Empire the book demonstrates the complex interplay of many factors economic religious political and personal that led people to attack their Jewish neighbors

Political Change in Post-Communist Slovakia and Croatia: From Nationalist to Europeanist S. Fisher, 2015-12-11
Revealing how the quest for independence and challenges of democratization created a contest between nationalists and Europeanists two powerful forces in domestic politics after the collapse of communism Fisher sheds light on the nationalism and post communist transitions

Religion and Contemporary Politics Timothy J. Demy, Jeffrey M. Shaw
Ph.D., 2019-09-19 With respect to the countries of the world this work addresses two basic questions How does religion affect politics in this country and How does politics affect religion in this country Although there are many books on the topics of religion and politics reference works that consider the two together are few with those that do exist primarily addressing theory rather than trends The present work does the latter contextualizing them within regional and national boundaries In so doing it recognizes the power of political and religious ideas and movements on individuals communities and nations making the work a valuable resource for several disciplines among them political science international relations religion and sociology The work focuses on the interplay of religion and politics in countries around the world with an emphasis on the post 2000s It is organized by global geographic regions including Africa Central and South America and the Middle East and presents countries alphabetically within those sections Each region has a brief overview of the political religious dynamics of the area so readers can compare and contrast the dynamics between and among countries in a region The work also includes an introduction sidebars and a bibliography

Forging War Mark Thompson, 1999 A fascinating study of the manipulation of the media in the former Yugoslavia The New York Times This study of the political manipulation of the media in Serbia Croatia Bosnia and Herzegovina before and during the war argues that political struggles for media control are early warnings of war and a form of preparation for it

Historical Knowledge Production Cultures in Late Socialist Hungary and Croatia Réka Krizmanics, 2024-01-08 Historical Knowledge Production Cultures in Late Socialist Hungary and Croatia Expertise Unsettled offers a comparative study and analysis from the Hungarian case and integrating academic party and popular historiography into a single analytical framework Narratives concerning the history of the interwar period and the Second World War and circumstances of their elaboration are at the forefront of this study R ka Krizmanics argues that even within state socialist Eastern Europe different enabling and restrictive factors were at play and investigates the specificities of late socialism while embedding them in the context of their interwar Stalinist and post Stalinist legacies Expertise Unsettled refers to the growing peril of historians who proved to be often divided among themselves and were increasingly on the defense as a guild when literature cinema and interested non professionals got involved in making and criticizing narratives of the recent past Party history and party historians have been often sidelined in intellectual history but the author argues that their inclusion is crucial both for a more complex understanding of what late state socialism meant for historians and to historicize practices of contemporary post socialist especially illiberal memory regimes
