Genesis 1

1. In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

2. The earth was without form and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep; and the Spirit of God was moving over the face of the waters.

3. And God said, "Let there be light"; and there was light.

4. And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness.

5. God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

6. And God said, "Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters."

7. And God made the firmament, and separated the waters above the firmament from the waters below the firmament, and God called the firmament Heaven. And God formed man of dust of the ground, and breathed into him the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

8. And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, one day.

Murray's Illustrated Bible Dictionary William Coleman Piercy, 1909 The Text of the Bible David S. New, 2013-04-26

For 2000 years the Bible has provided evidence and witness for the beliefs of three major world religions Some consider the Bible dangerous while others have died for it but the response to the Bible is always passionate This book relates the story of such passions from the Roman Empire to the present It is a story primarily about individuals the drama of their lives woven into the tapestry of their times barbarian invasions Black Death Waldensian heresy the pageantry of medieval romance the debauchery of the medieval Vatican the spirit of the Renaissance the tradition of monk and scholar All of these historical currents influenced the text now corrupted and distorted and existing in a confusing number of versions This book tells how today's Bible came to be what it is and provides an understanding of the richness of its text Hand-book of Bible Geography ...
