Amorsolo: Chroma Marinella Andrea "Tenten" C. Mina, 2025-07-28 During and beyond his lifetime Fernando Amorsolo y Cueto 1892-1972 was a much loved and acclaimed painter who influenced generations of Philippine artists His canvases of historical events and the mundane resonated with audiences both foreign and local for they captured what was perceived to be the essence of the Philippine experience and identity the Philippine panorama bathed in the brilliant sunlight This volume is published in conjunction with the exhibition Amorsolo Chroma which invites audiences to revisit the plein air paintings and landscapes of Amorsolo to better understand why he received monikers such as The Grand Old Man of Philippine Painting the poet of color and the painter of Philippine sunlight While these titles speak of Amorsolo s palette they also beg the question whether today s audiences in the age of hypermedia appreciate those titles and Amorsolo s colors in the same way The exhibition s exploration of color and empathy are further expanded in this volume through the examination of the psyche in the essays of Ditas Samson on the prevailing thoughts of the Filipinos of Amorsolo s generation and the psychological respite offered by the natural environment by Prof Femke Beute Complimenting these is a reprint of the 1960 analysis of Amorsolo s work through the eyes of painter and scholar Fernando Z bel

Remodelling to Prepare for Independence Ian Morley,2023-12-01 Remodelling to Prepare for Independence The Philippine Commonwealth Decolonisation Cities and Public Works c 1935 46 illuminates the implications of the USA s final phase of colonial rule in the Philippine Islands It explores the Filipino side of decolonisation and the management of the built environment in the years immediately prior to self rule This book shakes off the collaboration vs resistance paradigm that empire histories generally follow and consequently yields an original vantage point to comprehend transition within an Asian society in the years immediately prior to during and after World War Two This will not only deepen insight of the American Empire but also grants the opportunity to tie Philippine political cultural change to the global history of urban planning s advancement Accordingly it opens a new window to rethink Filipino ethno history and societal evolution alongside the opportunity to compare the Philippines with other nations that undertook planning projects as part of their decolonisation process and early postcolonial advancement The book utilises theoretical frames in order to help creatively excavate the era 1935 46 for the purpose of not just revealing what public works occurred but to also uncover what those projects meant to the Commonwealth Government the BPW s staff and the public who benefitted from public works projects The book will be relevant to students and researchers of Urban History Asian and American Empire History and Imperial and Colonial Studies Architects planners and members of the public who are interested in the form and meaning of urban environments designed constructed in the past will also find the publication to be of great interest
