Maestro The Life Of Arturo Toscanini:

The Maestro, the Life of Arturo Toscanini Howard Taubman, 1951 For twenty years Howard Taubman music editor of the New York Times has been collecting material for a biography of Arturo Toscanini Last spring accompanying the maestro on his transcontinental tour of several weeks he had the opportunity to crystallize and complete his research For Mr Taubman s reports on that tour he received the 1950 prize of the Music Lovers League For the present book he should receive some sort of prize from the public at large It is based on attendance at hundreds of the maestro s concerts and dozens of his rehearsals the reading of everything that has been written about him the examination of many scores in which Toscanini made his own notes the interviewing both here and in Italy of dozens of men and women who had worked with Toscanini and the close friendship and co operation of several of the maestro s immediate family Finally came the weeks of the transcontinental trip during which Mr Taubman asked hundreds of questions This book quotes verbatim the answers to many of them The story begins with the boy Toscanini and how he left his famiy to enter the Musical Conservatory at Parma at the age of nine It then goes on to show how he wanted more than anything else to become a pianist how the rigid monastic discipline of the Conservatory forced him to become a cellist and how he gradually evolved without specific plan into becoming the greatest conductor that the world has ever known We see in these pages how he prepares his concerts how he fought with impresarios boards of governors fellow musicians and even politicians to maintain the highest possible standards in music He has always been a fighter and even today at the age of eighty four he can become first the despair of those who work with him and then their god As the long musical career unrolls magnificently before us as we trace his relationships with Italy and America with his family and his friends we come into contact with a great man and a great personality We are able to gauge his courage his convictions his sense of humor and of proportion For the first time we see the man Toscanini as a whole Music is the most important part of that whole but one must see the rest to appreciate what his music means to him and through him to us Dust jacket The Maestro, the Life of Arturo Toscanini Hyman Howard Taubman, 2003-01-01
