Burdett,2014-03-17 Frank E Burdett is a survivor from seriousness This is no laughing matter and only needs a simple explanation Frank decided to divorce himself from all seriousness in an effort to gain control of his sense of humour Once he attained his sense of humour he realised that the amount of absurdity and nonsense that abounds in society can only be diagnosed in the gentlest of terms as over seriousness of epidemic proportions Frank has researched and evaluated the importance of nurturing your sense of humour in order to balance the well being of people everywhere especially against the high degrees of stress both emotional and work associated challenges that attack everyone today He came to the conclusion that people of all persuasions have completely lost the knack of being able to step aside and have a good and free laugh at themselves Therefore the time has come for you to learn to laugh at yourself and live longer Frank knows the effects of harrowing trauma being attacked mauled and carried away by a man eating tiger and curing himself of spreading melanoma cancer of the neck shoulder both lungs liver and bowel cancer He had been diagnosed by orthodox medicine as stage IV and given six months to live He tuned to find an alternative cure He has now been four years free of cancer Frank devised a technique whereby even you can benefit and learn to laugh at yourself You have nothing to lose except your overpowering seriousness Frank spent three years delving into the properties of laughing at yourself and he soon realised that there is more to laughing than showing a set of teeth Laughing at yourself allows you the complete freedom to see stress and seriousness in their proper light as a threat to your long lasting happiness This is your opportunity to take a real look at yourself by using Franks technique to step on the path towards learning the Art of Happiness You either want to be free from the pangs of stress and seriousness or you do not Your choice

Therapeutic Worlds Daniel Nehring,Dylan Kerrigan,2019-02-04 This book builds a fresh perspective on therapeutic narratives of intimate life Focusing on the question of how popular psychology organises everyday experiences of intimacy its argument is grounded in qualitative research in Trinidad in the Anglophone Caribbean Against the backdrop of Trinidad s colonial and postcolonial history the authors map the development of therapeutic institutions and popular therapeutic practices and explore how transnationally mobile commercial forms of popular psychology mostly originating in the Global North have taken root in Trinidadian society through online social networks self help books and other media In this sense the book adds to social research on the transnational spread of a digital attention economy and its participation in the proliferation of popular psychological discourse Drawing on in depth interviews with self help readers the book considers how popular psychology organises their everyday experiences of intimate life It argues that the proliferation of self help media contributes to the psychologisation of intimate relationships and obscures the social dimensions of intimacy in terms of gender race ethnicity and other social structures and inequalities At the same time the book draws on anthropological arguments about the colonisation of consciousness in the Global South to interpret the insertion of transnationally mobile popular psychology into Trinidadian society An innovative contribution to scholarship on therapeutic cultures which explores the widely under researched dissemination of popular psychology in the Global South the book adds to a sociological understanding of the ways in which therapeutic narratives of self and intimate relationships come to be incorporated into everyday experience As such it will appeal to scholars of cultural studies anthropology and the sociology of gender sexuality families and personal life read with an open heart My hope is that you find something here that speaks to your soul something that helps you love better communicate deeper forgive quicker and treasure your marriage for the divine gift that it is Let s uncover these treasures together
