Method Is The Message Marshall McLuhan And Karl Marx:

Marshall McLuhan's Mosaic Elena Lamberti, 2012-01-01 One hundred years after Marshall McLuhan's birth Elena Lamberti explores a fundamental yet neglected aspect of his work the solid humanistic roots of his original mosaic form of writing In this investigation of how his famous communication theories were influenced by literature and the arts Lamberti proposes a new approach to McLuhan's thought Lamberti delves into McLuhan's humanism in light of his work on media and culture exploring how he began to perceive literature not just as a subject but a function inseparable from communal existence Lamberti pays particular attention to the central role played by Modernism in the making of his theories including the writings of Ford Madox Ford James Joyce Ezra Pound and Wyndham Lewis Reconnecting McLuhan with his literary past Marshall McLuhan's Mosaic is a demonstration of one of his greatest ideas that literature not only matters but can help us understand the hidden patterns that rule our environment

McLuhan in Space Richard Cavell, 2002-01-01 Demonstrates how McLuhan extended insights derived from advances in physics and artistic experimentation into a theory of acoustic space which he then used to challenge the assumptions of visual space that had been produced through print culture

The Method is the Message Paul Grosswiler, 1998 The argument made here is that there is a bond between McLuhan's media studies and Marx's political economy
