Haunting Experiences Diane Goldstein, Sylvia Grider, Jeannie Banks Thomas, 2007-09-15 Ghosts and other supernatural phenomena are widely represented throughout modern culture They can be found in any number of entertainment commercial and other contexts but popular media or commodified representations of ghosts can be quite different from the beliefs people hold about them based on tradition or direct experience Personal belief and cultural tradition on the one hand and popular and commercial representation on the other nevertheless continually feed each other They frequently share space in how people think about the supernatural In Haunting Experiences three well known folklorists seek to broaden the discussion of ghost lore by examining it from a variety of angles in various modern contexts Diane E Goldstein Sylvia Ann Grider and Jeannie Banks Thomas take ghosts seriously as they draw on contemporary scholarship that emphasizes both the basis of belief in experience rather than mere fantasy and the usefulness of ghost stories They look closely at the narrative role of such lore in matters such as socialization and gender And they unravel the complex mix of mass media commodification and popular culture that today puts old spirits into new contexts HPI: Wishfire Paul Dale Roberts and Deanna Jaxine

Once Upon A Lane Duncan Wilson,2019-11-23 There once was a lane filled with well tended lawns and well fostered friendships of well appointed houses all neat and tidy and those that live within of stories and mysteries that manifest for only fleeting moments for the few who pay attention This is one such tale A tale about pleasant people about the lives they live about their wants and dreams about their loves and losses their joys and hates about their days and nights in the company of cherished companions in the houses they call home In this tale of the happy little lives of blissful simple folk there are monsters to be sure But this is not the story of monsters this is not the tale of their evil deeds this is the tale of those they make suffer In this tale the monsters have no names The monsters do not deserve names A character driven slice of life story that follows the humble lives of the residents of a suburban neighborhood as they live and love and about the house with the dead yard a vacant lot that sits among their homes inert and immobile yet intimidating and terrifying to any who look at it too long The children of the lane are not the only ones who are fearful of the anomaly in their midst Every adult upon the lane wonders why the structure still stands with no known owner and no reason to be The lingering question is not who owns the house but why no one ever goes in or comes out and why there are such ghastly noises emanating from within Day by day the happy people of the lane go about their tasks and trials and day by day the house with the dead yard seems a little more ominous a little more intrusive and a little less ignorable than before Ann
