Nation Building A Key Concept For Peaceful Conflict Transformation:

Nation-Building Jochen Hippler, 2005-06-20 The term nation building has experienced a remarkable renaissance since the early 1990s. It has been used to describe and to justify the military interventions in Somalia, Afghanistan, and Iraq. Linked to the idea of failed or failing states, the concept is used to hide and legitimise a whole range of diverse policies allowing foreign powers to control and reshape countries in areas of conflict. Currently, the international debate on nation building is heavily dominated by US actors and authors, especially by writers connected to the Bush administration or its policies. This book presents academic and political alternatives, presenting a critical view from Old Europe. The book combines academic research and analysis with policy orientation, with contributors from both fields. It clarifies the terminology, distinguishing developmental, peace-related, imperial, and analytical approaches to nation building. Highlighting its connections to globalization, democracy, ethnic and religious minorities, the contributors consider case studies such as Somalia, the Balkans, Afghanistan, Iraq, and Nigeria.

Reconciliation, Conflict Transformation, and Peace Studies Iyad Muhsen AlDajani, Martin Leiner, 2024-10-01 This book, achieved in cooperation with the Academic Alliance for Reconciliation Studies in the Middle East and North Africa (AARMENA), focuses on peacebuilding, conflict transformation, and shifts toward approaching the reconciliation process as an inter-trans and multidisciplinary field. The research presented in the series focuses on the Middle East and North Africa, highlighting contributions by practitioners and scholars alike. The book is divided into five sections: Section 1: Theoretical and Philosophical Framework; Section 2: Digital Humanities on Reconciliation, Conflict Transformation, and Peace Studies; Section 3: Research Science on Reconciliation, Conflict Transformation, and Peace Studies; Section 4: Practices of Studies on Reconciliation, Conflict Transformation, and Peace Studies; Section 5: Cases Studies on Reconciliation, Conflict Transformation, and Peace Studies. The book's first part focuses on theories and the philosophical framework for the research on reconciliation, conflict transformation, and peace studies. The second part of the book is dedicated to digital humanities development in the reconciliation and peace education field, its impact on the reconciliation process in societies, and the introduction of Artificial Intelligence in analysis techniques to differentiate and identify research in different domains. The book's third part is dedicated to the research on reconciliation and conflict transformation in different disciplines. The fourth part concentrates on the practices in the field, and the fifth part illustrates case studies on reconciliation, conflict transformation, and peace studies. The target audience is professors, scholars, practitioners, students, and scientists that are experts in the field of Middle East and North Africa.

Aid Paradoxes in Afghanistan Nematullah Bizhan, 2017-08-14 The relationship between aid and state building is highly complex, and the effects of aid on weak states depend on donors' interests, aid modalities, and the recipient's pre-existing institutional and socio-political conditions. This book argues that in the case of Afghanistan, the country inherited conditions that were not favourable for effective state building. Although some of the problems that emerged in the post-2001 state building process were predictable, the types of interventions that occurred including an aid architecture which largely bypassed the state the subordination of state building to the war on terror and the short horizon policy choices of donors and the Afghan government reduced the effectiveness of the aid and undermined effective state building By examining how foreign aid affected state building in Afghanistan since the US militarily intervened in Afghanistan in late 2001 until the end of President Hamid Karzai s first term in 2009 this book reveals the dynamic and complex relations between the Afghan government and foreign donors in their efforts to rebuild state institutions The work explores three key areas how donors supported government reforms to improve the taxation system how government reorganized the state s fiscal management system and how aid dependency and aid distribution outside the government budget affected interactions between state and society Given that external revenue in the form of tribute subsidies and aid has shaped the characteristics of the state in Afghanistan since the mid eighteenth century this book situates state building in a historical context This book will be invaluable for practitioners and anyone studying political economy state building international development and the politics of foreign aid Peacebuilding Elisabeth Porter,2007-09-18 This volume elucidates some key ideas and practices underlying women s peacebuilding highlighting positive examples of their contribution to peacebuilding in conflict zones and in societies pursuing transitional justice

Climate Wars Harald Welzer,2015-02-03 Struggles over drinking water new outbreaks of mass violence ethnic cleansing civil wars in the earth s poorest countries endless flows of refugees these are the new conflicts and forces shaping the world of the 21st century They no longer hinge on ideological rivalries between great powers but rather on issues of class religion and resources The genocides of the last century have taught us how quickly social problems can spill over into radical and deadly solutions Rich countries are already developing strategies to garner resources and keep climate refugees at bay In this major book Harald Welzer shows how climate change and violence go hand in hand Climate change has far reaching consequences for the living conditions of peoples around the world inhabitable spaces shrink scarce resources become scarcer injustices grow deeper not only between North and South but also between generations storing up material for new social tensions and giving rise to violent conflicts civil wars and massive refugee flows Climate change poses major new challenges in terms of security responsibility and justice but as Welzer makes disturbingly clear very little is being done to confront them The paperback edition includes a new Preface that brings the book up to date and addresses the most recent developments and trends United Nations as Peacekeeper and Nation-BUILDER Nassrine Azimi,Li Lin Chang,2005-11-01 In the wake of the Iraq War what lies ahead for the United Nations as peacekeeper and nation builder What lessons were learnt in Afghanistan and Iraq what reforms could they entail how do UN efforts fare as compared with those of the United States and what will be in the next decade the most pressing challenges confronting the Organization Will the United Nations in its current form and within the new global power structure be able to remain relevant retain its ideals and still respond meaningfully to mounting international tensions These were some of the questions tackled by a group of eminent scholars and practitioners many directly and personally involved with multilateral or unilateral peace operations In addition to the larger issues of peacekeeping and peace building and the recommendations for historical reform suggested by the UN High level Panel on Threats Challenges and Change in December 2004 the group debated some of the most complex recent interventions including Afghanistan East Timor and Iraq This volume which contains all the presentations and discussions of the UNITAR IPS Conference on United Nations as a Peacekeeper and Nation Builder Continuity and Change What Lies Ahead will be a valuable addition to the collections of experts or laypersons interested in the future role of the United Nations in general and in peacekeeping and post conflict state building in particular

Persistent State Weakness in the Global Age Dr Denisa Kostovicova, Dr Vesna Bojicic-Dzelilovic, 2013-03-28 Persistent State Weakness in the Global Age addresses the question of why state weakness in the global era persists It debunks a common assumption that state weakness is a stop gap on the path to state failure and state collapse Informed by a globalization perspective the book shows how state weakness is frequently self reproducing and functional The interplay of global actors policies and norms is analyzed from the standpoint of their internalization in a weak state through transnational networks Contributors examine the reproduction of partial and discriminatory rule at the heart of persistent state weakness drawing on a wide geographical range of case studies including the Middle East the Balkans the post Soviet states and sub Saharan Africa The study of state weakening dynamics related to institutional incapacity colonial and war legacies legitimacy gaps economic informality democratization and state building provides an insight into durability and resilience of weak states in the global age

Religion, Education and Governance in the Middle East Sai Felicia Krishna-Hensel, 2016-04-08 The Middle East is a key geopolitical strategic region in the international system but its distinctive cultural and political divisions present a mosaic of states that do not lend themselves to simplistic interpretations A thoughtful analysis of the Middle East requires an understanding of the synergism between tradition and modernity in the region as it adapts to a globalizing world Religious education and activism continue to remain a significant factor in the modernization process and the development of modern governance in the states of the Middle East This interdisciplinary book explores the historical and contemporary role of religious tradition and education on political elites and governing agencies in several major states as well as generally in the region The relationship between democracy and authority is examined to provide a better understanding of the complexity underlying the emergence of new power configurations As the region continues to respond to the forces of change in the international system it remains an important and intriguing area for analysts

American Foreign Policy and Postwar Reconstruction Jeff Bridoux, 2013-01-11 This book provides a detailed comparison of the reconstruction of Japan from 1945 to 1952 with the current reconstruction of Iraq

Dependent Communities Caroline Hughes, 2018-05-31 Dependent Communities investigates the political situations in contemporary Cambodia and East Timor where powerful international donors intervened following deadly civil conflicts This comparative analysis critiques international policies that focus on rebuilding state institutions to accommodate the global market In addition it explores the dilemmas of politicians in Cambodia and East Timor who struggle to satisfy both wealthy foreign benefactors and constituents at home groups whose interests frequently conflict Hughes argues that the policies of Western aid organizations tend to stifle active political engagement by the citizens of countries that have been torn apart by war The neoliberal ideology promulgated by United Nations administrations and other international NGOs advocates state sovereignty but in fact sovereignty is too flimsy a foundation for effective modern democratic politics The result is an oppressive peace that tends to rob survivors and former resistance fighters of their agency and aspirations for genuine postwar independence In her study of these two cases Hughes demonstrates that the clientelist strategies of Hun Sen Cambodia's postwar leader have created a shadow network of elites and their followers that has been comparatively effective in serving the country's villages even though so often coercive and corrupt East Timor's postwar leaders on the other hand have alienated voters by attempting to follow the guidelines of the donors closely and ignoring the immediate needs and voices of the people Dependent Communities offers a searing analysis of contemporary international aid strategies based on the author's years of fieldwork in Cambodia and East Timor Exceptionalism Lars Jensen, Kristín Loftsdóttir, 2021-09-27

This volume crucially provides an analytical and comparative approach investigating the meaning and uses of the concept of exceptionalism while demonstrating the ways in which it manifests itself in different historical and geographical settings Exceptionalism offers comparative case studies from different parts of the world showcasing the way in which exceptionalism has come to occupy an important narrative position in relation to different nation states including the United States the United Kingdom the Nordic countries various European nations and countries in Latin America Africa and Asia An introduction to and overview of a term that has come to define the past and present identity of many nations this book will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology geography cultural studies and politics How Geography and Institutions

Shaped the Development of Nations Irina Busygina, 2024-11-20 This book provides a concise and informative introduction to how geography and institutions shaped the development of nations showing that while the role of institutions for the development of nations is indisputable the role of geographic factors remains underexplored and underestimated Drawing on rich empirical material from the history and modernity of different continents and nations How Geography and Institutions Shaped the Development of Nations Across Countries and Continents seeks to show not only the importance of geographical explanations of development but also their extraordinary diversity This book is divided into two parts The first part examines the main contributions to the understanding of development under the influence of geographic and institutional factors as well as state's geographic attributes and borders as geographic institutions The second part immerses the reader in empirical material presenting various cases on different continents in different historical periods This book is an essential read for researchers in a broad range of areas including international organizations and practitioners involved accelerating national development It will also be of interest to scholars and students in development studies and more broadly to geography comparative politics and regional studies Life and Security in Rural Afghanistan Neamatollah Nojumi, Dyan Mazurana, Elizabeth Stites, 2010-01-06 To access the maps mentioned in this book Click Here Despite the fall of the Taliban Afghanistan remains a country in dire need of strong international support Only with an understanding of the conditions in both urban and rural areas will the international community be able to offer aid and remain committed to long term development This fascinating and clearly written book mines a rich and unique array of data which was collected in rural areas of Afghanistan by an expert team of researchers to analyze countrywide trends in the relationship between human security and livelihoods The team's research and recommendations published here for the first time suggest that international assistance or national development strategies that ignore the long term developmental and structural goals and sideline the moderate elements of Afghan society will be doomed to failure The authors' deeply informed policy recommendations will help to focus further action on vital issues such as co-optation of aid by armed political groups water scarcity contamination and degradation of the environment education health care agriculture livestock and land health and justice A valuable resource for students policymakers donor governments and national and international organizations Life and Security in Rural Afghanistan opens a rare window into the otherwise hidden lives of the people of rural Afghanistan

Politics and State Building in Solomon Islands Sinclair Dinnen, Stewart Firth, 2008-05-01 Politics and State Building in Solomon Islands examines a crisis moment in recent Solomon Islands history Contributors examine what happened when unrest engulfed the capital of the small Melanesian country in the aftermath of the 2006 national elections and consider what these events show about the Solomon Islands political system the influence of Asian interests in business and politics and why the crisis is best understood in the context of the country's volatile blend of traditional and modern politics Until the disturbances of April 2006 and subsequent deterioration in bilateral relations between Australia and Solomon Islands under the Sogavare government experts had hailed the Regional Assistance Mission to Solomon Islands RAMSI as an unqualified success Some saw it as a model for cooperative intervention in failing states worldwide Following these developments success seems less certain and aspects of the RAMSI model appear flawed Using the case of Solomon Islands this book raises fundamental questions about the nature of cooperative intervention as a vehicle for state building asking whether it should be construed as a mainly technical endeavour or whether it is unavoidably a political undertaking with political consequences Providing a critical but balanced analysis Politics and State Building in Solomon Islands has important implications for the wider debate about international state building interventions in failed and failing states Pakistan at Seventy-Five Andrea Fleschenberg, Sarah Holz, Arslan Waheed, 2023-04-01 Pakistan at Seventy Five investigates the country's multi-layered issues in the context of a post colonial polity marked by diversity heterogeneity stratification and volatility This wide ranging discourse engages with diverse formal and informal actors as markers of identity historical events and social conditions as well as global geo-political and neo colonial centre-periphery relations that shape narratives about the nation and the
